PALMER-SRUGGS

Coming as a surprise to their many guests was the marriage of Miss Phyllis Palmer and Kenneth Sruggs, Saturday morning at Clayton, Ga. This bride is the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Palmer of Hazelwood. The groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Sruggs. They will make their home with the bride's parents.

BOOSTERS OBSERVE TEACHERS' NIGHT

"Teachers' Night" was observed at the regular monthly meeting of the Hazelwood Boosters' Club Thursday night at the Town Hall. The teachers of the Hazelwood Elementary School were guests. The meeting was in charge of the president, W. H. Prevost. The program was in charge of Sam Knight, chairman of the program committee, who in turn asked Mrs. J. P. Beam to introduce the speakers of the evening, Supt. V. J. Hartsfield of the Canton schools. Mr. Hartsfield in his very capable way spoke of the attitude of the public in general toward the schools, of today and the true merits of a real teacher. Mr. Beam introduced each of the teachers who responded. Other speakers were Mr. Tom Reeves, a teacher and booster and Supt. M. H. Bowles of the Waynesville schools. The toast to the teachers was given by R. L. Prevost and the response by Miss Eva Leatherwood. String music by the Solo Glee Band was enjoyed during the evening. A delicious dinner was served by the ladies of the Hazelwood Baptist church. The program committee, for next meeting is Rev. O. C. Landrum, chairman, Frank Compton, and John Blalock.

DON'T MISS IT
