EARL MESSER WEDS MISS FRANCES EWING

A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock when Miss Mary Frances Ewing of Balsam, became the bride of Mr. Earl Messer, of this city. The ceremony, which was marked with charming simplicity and dignity, was performed in the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. L. S. Baker of Kernerville, uncle of the bride, officiated.

The bridegroom, who is an amateur jeweler, dressed in a suit of tuxedo, was attired in many colors to shed a soft glow over his newest pony, pink and blue.

Just before the advance of the bridal party, Mr. Elmer Clark of Waycross, sang "The Sweetest String Ever Told," and "Love You I Do." She was accompanied by Mrs. Jack Jones, of Tillery. Mrs. Jones played the dulcet clavier from "Home" and by Weezer as the pre-cantata.

The bride's only attendant was her maid of honor, Mrs. Alice Bowlin, who was attired in a lace-trimmed white with shoulder bows of pink roses. She wore a white gown, K. B. Ewing, Jr.

The bridegroom's usher was nothing. His bride was dressed in a dark blue gown, Mrs. S. J. White, a young graduate of the school of Mrs. McCall, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Ewing of Waycross. She is a graduate of the local High School and Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee. In the past two years she has taught in the schools of Tillery. Since the announcement of her engagement she has been honored at many social functions.

Mr. Messer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Messer. He received his education at Western Carolina Teachers College and at Georgia Tech. At present he is in business with his brother in the Standard Mountain Motor Inn, having the Point as agency office.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on a short wedding trip and are now visiting at the home of the groom's parents.
