

Society News

SOCIETY PAGE

Local Items

Mrs. Ben Sloan, Editor - - - - - Phone 137

JOINT HOSTESSES HONOR MISS MAUD TERRELL

Miss Maud Terrell, charming bride-elect of the summer season, was extended a lovely courtesy on last Wednesday afternoon when Mr. Gerald Fish and Mrs. Frank Pate, entertained with a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Pate, at Clyde.

Three tables were arranged for contract in the living rooms which were lavishly decorated with daisies, roses, lemon lilies, and flags to denote a color scheme of yellow and white. Dainty shoulder corsages of yellow and white flowers marked each guest's place at the tables and the chosen motif was noted in detail in the salad course served after the games.

When the scores were totaled Mrs. S. P. Gay was awarded the high score prize and Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr. received the low score gift. The hostesses also presented an attractive gift to Miss Terrell.

Those playing bridge were: Misses Maud and Margaret Terrell, Miss Ula Patterson, Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., Miss Mary Barber, Mrs. R. L. Cain, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Miss Henry Davis, Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mrs. Graydon Ferguson, and Miss Virginia O'Shughnessy, of Asheville.

Joining this group for tea were the mother and grandmother of the honoree, Mrs. J. G. Terrell and Mrs. Lillie Terrell.

Miss Louise Edwards left last week for Knoxville, Tennessee where she will attend summer school at the University of Tennessee.

Mr. Joe Sloan arrived last week from Emory Junior College at Oxford, Georgia, to spend the summer vacation with his father, Mr. Hugh J. Sloan.

C. M. ROGERS OBSERVES 85TH BIRTHDAY

On Sunday June 10, Mr. C. M. Rogers was honored at a family dinner at his home at Fines Creek in celebration of the eighty-fifth anniversary of his birthday.

A mid-day dinner was served at tables on the lawn. The birthday cake which held eighty-five candles was presented to the guest of honor by Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Noland.

In the afternoon a short service was held by Rev. Thomas Erwin at which time tribute was paid to Mr. Rogers and the guests present showered him with good wishes.

Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Noland, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bryson, Mr. L. H. Rogers, Mr. France Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Cauley Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCracken, the children of Mr. Rogers; and the following grandchildren and great grandchildren: Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Green and family, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. James and family, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rogers and family, Mrs. C. B. McTearry and children, Rev. Thomas Erwin, Mr. J. D. Justice and daughter, Miss Dell Rogers, Miss Maggie James, Miss Ann McCracken, Mrs. Herman Green, Mr. Bert Walker, Mrs. Edna Roger Ferguson, Mrs. Gaston Ferguson, and Mr. D. C. Justice.

Mrs. Howell Abbott, of Columbia, South Carolina arrived Sunday to spend the summer in Waynesville and is a guest at the Hotel Waynesville.

Mrs. George Ward, of Asheville, and Miss Meta Adams, of Raleigh were visitors in the city Monday.

YOUNGER SET IS ENTERTAINED AT BRANNER CREST

An outstanding social event of the week for members of the younger set was the party given Monday evening by Mrs. James Atkins at Branner Crest, honoring her niece, Miss Margaret Shackford, and her guests from Charlotte, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Dorothy Caldwell, and Miss Jane Pierson.

The guests were greeted by Miss Babbie Way and were shown into the reception room where dancing was enjoyed. Mrs. Atkins served punch and cake, at a beautifully appointed table throughout the evening.

Those present included the guests of honor and Misses Billie Rotha, Martha Way, Emily Siler, Sarah Welch, Mary Snyder, of Salisbury, Corinne Wagenfeld, Mary Alice Dungan, of Elizabethton, Tenn., Helen Sisk, Thomasine Stringfield, Mozelle McCracken, Mary Penland McCracken, Polly Black of Travelers Rest, S. C., Hazelina Swift, Louise Stringfield and Barbara Haviland, of Atlanta, Georgia, and Mesers, Loch Hyatt, Howard Hyatt, Bob Wagonfield, Jack Jack Atkins, Roy Burgin, Leon Killian, Bobby Sloan, Frank Massie, Otis Massie, John Cuddeback, Ernest Withers, Bill Swift, Ben Atkins, Frederick Marsh, Joe Shypley, Joe Shackford, William Medford, Atkins Shackford, and Red Robinson.

For the occasion the home was adorned with quantities of roses in shades of pink. Tallies were in the bridal motif and the color scheme, of pink and white was attractively carried out in the ice course. After the games little Jimmie Swift, dressed as Cupid and carrying a telegram pulling a wagon which was laden with a shower of gifts from the guests. Other lovely gifts were also presented to Mrs. Felix Stovall, who made high score, and Miss Martha Neal, who scored low.

Those playing bridge were: Misses Elizabeth and Edna Garrett, Miss Mary Emma Massie and guest, Miss Sara Williams, of Buford, S. C., Miss Hester Ann Withers, Miss B. J. Way, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Gladys Dicus, Miss Rosalyn Ray, Miss Jewel Hippi, Miss Martha Neal, Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. Harace Keener and Mrs. Roy Campbell.

The guests were: Mrs. N. W. Garrett, Mrs. S. T. Neal, Mrs. J. R. Hippi, Mrs. J. M. Kelett, Mrs. J. H. H. Howell, Mrs. W. F. Swift, and Mrs. Nancy Killian.

MISS ILLA GREENE HAS HOUSE PARTY

Miss Ila Greene was hostess for a delightful house party at her home on East street last week-end. The guests were Miss Bertha Emberger, of Yorkfork, West Virginia, Mr. Phil McGee and Mr. Kelsey Williams, of Burkesville, Kentucky.

Several enjoyable social affairs were given for the visitors including a party on Saturday evening given by Miss Greene. A scavenger hunt and dancing featured the entertainment and punch, cakes, and sandwiches were served throughout the evening.

The guests were: Miss Louise Moody, Miss Edna McKay, Miss Mildred McClure, Mrs. Ruth Rotha, Miss Johnnie Russell, Miss Marie Plott, Miss Josephine Cabe, Miss Virginia Roberts, Miss Blanche Medford, Miss Rose Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grahl, Mr. Jack Phillips, Mr. Joe Helmick, Mr. Alfred Kuhne, Mr. Dave Cabe, Mr. Ben Atkins, Mr. William Medford, Mr. Lee Davis, Mr. Frank Ferguson, Jr., and Mr. Gene Fitzgerald, of Franklin.

Another delightful event honoring Mr. McGee was the informal breakfast given by Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Purcell Sunday morning at their home on Maple street.

Miss Louise Moody was also hostess for the house party at a beautifully appointed dinner party. Covers were laid for Miss Greene and her guests and Mr. Jack Phillips.

MISS KILLIAN HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Elizabeth Garrett, who has been extensively entertained since the announcement of her engagement a week ago, was delightfully honored on Monday afternoon when Miss Ellen Louise Killian was hostess for a bridge party and miscellaneous showers.

For the occasion the home was adorned with quantities of roses in shades of pink. Tallies were in the bridal motif and the color scheme, of pink and white was attractively carried out in the ice course.

After the games little Jimmie Swift, dressed as Cupid and carrying a telegram pulling a wagon which was laden with a shower of gifts from the guests. Other lovely gifts were also presented to Mrs. Felix Stovall, who made high score, and Miss Martha Neal, who scored low.

Those playing bridge were: Misses Elizabeth and Edna Garrett, Miss Mary Emma Massie and guest, Miss Sara Williams, of Buford, S. C., Miss Hester Ann Withers, Miss B. J. Way, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Gladys Dicus, Miss Rosalyn Ray, Miss Jewel Hippi, Miss Martha Neal, Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. Harace Keener and Mrs. Roy Campbell.

The guests were: Mrs. N. W. Garrett, Mrs. S. T. Neal, Mrs. J. R. Hippi, Mrs. J. M. Kelett, Mrs. J. H. H. Howell, Mrs. W. F. Swift, and Mrs. Nancy Killian.

MISS WITHERS HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Elizabeth Garrett, whose marriage to Mr. Herbert Braren, of Gainesville, Florida, will be an interesting event tomorrow, was honored at a beautiful party Tuesday afternoon when Miss Hester Ann Withers entertained at her home on Church street.

A wealth of spring flowers in shades of yellow and orange added beauty and attractiveness to the rooms and the same colors were noted in all details of the party. Tallies were miniature bouquets of garden flowers. Contract bridge was played at three tables and high score prize was awarded to Miss Martha Neal while Miss Louise Stringfield received the consolation gift. After the games little Miss Mary Ann Massie in an attractive costume presented a shower of lovely gifts to the bride, Miss Barbara Haviland and Miss Carolyn Rose assisted in serving a salad course.

Those playing bridge were: Misses Elizabeth and Edna Garrett, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Miss Martha Neal, Miss Ellen Louise Killian, Miss Babbie Way, Miss Gladys Dicus, Miss Adora Holtzclaw, Miss Louise Stringfield, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Rosalyn Ray and Miss Jewel Hippi.

Joining the group for tea were: Mrs. Paul Hardin Jr. and guest, Mrs. William Kitchie, of Concord, Mrs. Hugh Massie and Mrs. N. W. Garrett.

MISS RABBITT WAY IS HOSTESS FOR MISS GARRETT

Continuing with a series of delightful social events this week honoring Miss Elizabeth Garrett, bride-elect Miss Babbie Way was hostess for a lovely bridge party and handkerchief shower yesterday afternoon.

Four tables were arranged for contract and a pretty setting of mixed garden flowers and the bridal motif was noted in the party appointments. After an interesting series of games, little Joe Way, brother of the hostess, in the costume of a delivery boy presented a special delivery package to Miss Garrett which contained exquisite handkerchiefs presented by the guests. The hostess also presented handkerchiefs to the holders of high and low scores.

Those playing bridge were: Misses Elizabeth and Edna Garrett, Miss Martha Mock, Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, Miss Martha Neal, Miss Ellen Louise Killian, Mrs. Jewel Emma Massie, Miss Sara Williams, Miss Rosalyn Ray, Miss Gladys Dicus, Miss Margaret Ashton, Miss Martha Stringfield, and Miss Helen Sisk.

Those coming in for tea were: Mrs. S. T. Neal, Mrs. J. R. Hippi, Mrs. J. M. Kelett, Mrs. C. E. Ray, Mrs. N. W. Garrett, Mrs. T. L. Gwynn, and Miss Hester Ann Withers.

MRS. ROY CAMPBELL IS HOSTESS FOR MISS GARRETT

Miss Elizabeth Garrett, attractive bride-elect, was feted Saturday afternoon at a charming party given by Mrs. R. R. Campbell at her home on Beulah avenue.

The chosen color scheme was pink and white with roses used in profusion as floral decoration. This motif was also noted in the tallies and salad course served after the games. Contract was played at three tables and the high score prize went to Miss Babbie Way while Miss Ellen Louise Killian received the low score gift. The honoree was also presented an attractive gift.

The guests were: Misses Elizabeth and Edna Garrett, Miss Babbie Way, Miss Ellen Louise Killian, Miss Hester Ann Withers, Miss Gladys Dicus, Miss Martha Neal, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Jewel Hippi, Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, and Mrs. Felix Stovall.

MISS ILLA GREENE HAS HOUSE PARTY

Miss Ila Greene was hostess for a delightful house party at her home on East street last week-end. The guests were Miss Bertha Emberger, of Yorkfork, West Virginia, Mr. Phil McGee and Mr. Kelsey Williams, of Burkesville, Kentucky.

Several enjoyable social affairs were given for the visitors including a party on Saturday evening given by Miss Greene. A scavenger hunt and dancing featured the entertainment and punch, cakes, and sandwiches were served throughout the evening.

The guests were: Miss Louise Moody, Miss Edna McKay, Miss Mildred McClure, Mrs. Ruth Rotha, Miss Johnnie Russell, Miss Marie Plott, Miss Josephine Cabe, Miss Virginia Roberts, Miss Blanche Medford, Miss Rose Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grahl, Mr. Jack Phillips, Mr. Joe Helmick, Mr. Alfred Kuhne, Mr. Dave Cabe, Mr. Ben Atkins, Mr. William Medford, Mr. Lee Davis, Mr. Frank Ferguson, Jr., and Mr. Gene Fitzgerald, of Franklin.

Another delightful event honoring Mr. McGee was the informal breakfast given by Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Purcell Sunday morning at their home on Maple street.

Miss Louise Moody was also hostess for the house party at a beautifully appointed dinner party. Covers were laid for Miss Greene and her guests and Mr. Jack Phillips.

MISS KILLIAN HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Elizabeth Garrett, who has been extensively entertained since the announcement of her engagement a week ago, was delightfully honored on Monday afternoon when Miss Ellen Louise Killian was hostess for a bridge party and miscellaneous showers.

For the occasion the home was adorned with quantities of roses in shades of pink. Tallies were in the bridal motif and the color scheme, of pink and white was attractively carried out in the ice course.

After the games little Jimmie Swift, dressed as Cupid and carrying a telegram pulling a wagon which was laden with a shower of gifts from the guests. Other lovely gifts were also presented to Mrs. Felix Stovall, who made high score, and Miss Martha Neal, who scored low.

Those playing bridge were: Misses Elizabeth and Edna Garrett, Miss Mary Emma Massie and guest, Miss Sara Williams, of Buford, S. C., Miss Hester Ann Withers, Miss B. J. Way, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Gladys Dicus, Miss Rosalyn Ray, Miss Jewel Hippi, Miss Martha Neal, Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. Harace Keener and Mrs. Roy Campbell.

The guests were: Mrs. N. W. Garrett, Mrs. S. T. Neal, Mrs. J. R. Hippi, Mrs. J. M. Kelett, Mrs. J. H. H. Howell, Mrs. W. F. Swift, and Mrs. Nancy Killian.

MISS WITHERS HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Elizabeth Garrett, whose marriage to Mr. Herbert Braren, of Gainesville, Florida, will be an interesting event tomorrow, was honored at a beautiful party Tuesday afternoon when Miss Hester Ann Withers entertained at her home on Church street.

A wealth of spring flowers in shades of yellow and orange added beauty and attractiveness to the rooms and the same colors were noted in all details of the party. Tallies were miniature bouquets of garden flowers. Contract bridge was played at three tables and high score prize was awarded to Miss Martha Neal while Miss Louise Stringfield received the consolation gift. After the games little Miss Mary Ann Massie in an attractive costume presented a shower of lovely gifts to the bride, Miss Barbara Haviland and Miss Carolyn Rose assisted in serving a salad course.

Those playing bridge were: Misses Elizabeth and Edna Garrett, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Miss Martha Neal, Miss Ellen Louise Killian, Miss Babbie Way, Miss Gladys Dicus, Miss Adora Holtzclaw, Miss Louise Stringfield, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Rosalyn Ray and Miss Jewel Hippi.

Joining the group for tea were: Mrs. Paul Hardin Jr. and guest, Mrs. William Kitchie, of Concord, Mrs. Hugh Massie and Mrs. N. W. Garrett.

MRS. ROY CAMPBELL IS HOSTESS FOR MISS GARRETT

Miss Elizabeth Garrett, attractive bride-elect, was feted Saturday afternoon at a charming party given by Mrs. R. R. Campbell at her home on Beulah avenue.

The chosen color scheme was pink and white with roses used in profusion as floral decoration. This motif was also noted in the tallies and salad course served after the games. Contract was played at three tables and the high score prize went to Miss Babbie Way while Miss Ellen Louise Killian received the low score gift. The honoree was also presented an attractive gift.

The guests were: Misses Elizabeth and Edna Garrett, Miss Babbie Way, Miss Ellen Louise Killian, Miss Hester Ann Withers, Miss Gladys Dicus, Miss Martha Neal, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Jewel Hippi, Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, and Mrs. Felix Stovall.

MISS MARY KIRKPATRICK PARTY HOSTESS

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick was hostess for a charming informal party Monday evening at her home at the Clewell Apartments honoring Miss Katherine Hakes and Mr. Robert Monteith, of Long Island, who are guests at the Adger House.

Quantities of garden flowers adorned the rooms where the guests assembled and bridge and dancing were enjoyed during the evening.

The guests present were: Miss Hakes, Mr. Monteith, Mrs. Marguerite Barron, Mrs. Clair Elden Hamilton, Miss Betsey Lane Quinlan, Miss S. A. Jones, Mr. Robert Woodward, Mr. Jimmie Neal, Mr. Marcus McCracken, and Mr. Jim Boyd.

Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson and Miss Elizabeth Garrett were Asheville visitors Monday.

Why Pay As Much and Sometimes More For an Off Brand HOSE. When you can buy a Nationally Known Quality Hose. Gordon for 79c, $1.00, $1.35. And How Sheer And Ringless They Are. Massie's Dept. Store "A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE"

READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS

Clean Up Week. SIX CUPS AND SAUCERS: Ivory Colored Body Rose and Poppy Decoration for only 125 OCTAGON COUPONS. Special low prices on OCTAGON SOAP, GIANT SIZE 4 for 18c, OCTAGON POWDER 4 for 18c, OCTAGON CLEANSER 2 for 9c, OCTAGON TOILET SOAP 1 for 19c. Ask us where the nearest premium store is located.

PALMOLIVE. The soap of youth. NEW LOW PRICE 3 for 14c. Boys! Interested In Baseball Uniforms. Octagon Coupons Will Get One. WRITE TO BILL DARE, PREMIUM DEPT. 17 SUSSEX ST., JERSEY CITY, N. J. If its a Cleanser - We Have It. GROCERY DEPARTMENT. C. E. Ray's Sons.

Archer FULL FASHIONED SILK HOSIERY. LOVELY CHIFFON HOSE that give extra wear. 79c Smartest style features combined with amazing resistance to wear make these lovely chiffon stockings the favored choice of thrifty moderns. Super quality dull twist silk from top to toe. Dainty crescent sole for extra beauty and wear. 1.00 Comes in a wide array of fashionable new shades. 1.25 C. E. RAY'S SONS

Change of Prices. Effective this date, the two undersigned Beauty Parlors will have the following prices: Finger Wave and Shampoo 75c, Finger Wave 50c, Finger Wave, not dried 35c. RUTH RAY'S BEAUTY SHOP Phone 113. JO-ANN'S BEAUTY SHOP Phone 63.