MISS MILDRED ROGERS WINS U. D. C. SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Mildred Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Rogers of Fines Creek township, has been awarded the U. D. C. scholarship to the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina for the two years 1934-35 and 1935-36. The announcement was made this week by the Waynesville chapter. The award was made by the State United Daughters of the Confederacy and is the only one given this year to Western North Carolina.

Miss Rogers graduated at the Fines Creek high school in 1932 at the age of sixteen. She was valedictorian of her class. She entered the Woman's college in the fall of 1932 and has completed both the freshman and sophomore years. She left Sunday to begin her junior year.

Miss Rogers is qualifying for a teaching career, majoring in biology and minoring in English.

MRS. SYDIE RAY HONORS GUESTS

Mrs. Sydie Ray was hostess for a delightful bridge party yesterday afternoon honoring her aunt, Mrs. H. M. Friend, of Mobile, Alabama and Mrs. A. T. Henley of Birmingham, Alabama. Both Mrs. Friend and Mrs. Henley are house guests of Mrs. Ray.

Two tables were arranged for contract in the living room which was prettily decorated with mixed garden flowers in pastel shades. Following several progressive prizes were presented to the honor guests and to the holder of high and low scores.

Those playing were: Mrs. Friend, Mrs. Henley, Mrs. C. E. Kirkpatrick, Miss Robina Miller, Mrs. C. N. Sisk, Mrs. J. Jeffords, of Clearwater, Florida, Mrs. J. W. Seaver and Mrs. E. B. Camp.

LEGION AUXILIARY HAS MONTHLY MEETING

The Waynesville unit of the American Legion Auxiliary met on Monday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. E. B. Camp.

After the usual opening ceremony business was transacted. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the treasurer's report was given.

It was decided after a motion made by Mrs. W. F. Swift to give a small gift to each member of the two men at their own expense assigned to this unit. Mrs. George Platt was appointed hospital chairman.

A discussion followed on buying an auxiliary and the American flag. Mrs. Camp was asked to investigate and report at the next meeting the size and price of the flags.

A short letter from the retiring president of the American Legion Auxiliary was read by Mrs. Camp.

She also announced that Constitution Day is the 17th of September and should be observed. The national convention of the American Legion was announced for October and will be held in Miami, Florida.

The Flag Code in the schools was discussed and the unit decided to obtain copies for each school in the township. Mrs. W. F. Swift and Mrs. J. H. Howell were named hostesses for the October meeting. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Camp until further notice.

After adjournment the hostesses, Mrs. George Platt and Miss Nancy Killian, served cake and coffee.

IDA JEAN BROWN, Publicity Chairman.
