

Go to Church Sunday

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Dr. R. P. W. Iker, Minister. On last Friday evening nine men of this church attended a men's supper in West Asheville...

It would be a splendid thing if every member of our church would make an honest effort to attend Sunday school and church Sunday. Why not do it?

LONG'S CHAPEL—JUNALUSKA'S ONLY CHURCH

F. O. Dryman, Pastor. "Behind how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity..."

At the Haywood County Pastors meeting on Monday the matter of a building for children at the County Home was discussed. It appears that all civic clubs of the county are behind this movement as well as the pastors. This thing is greatly needed and we hope it can be done.

Rally Day comes in October. Let us begin now to invite people to Sunday school. September 16-21 is Church Paper Week. Do you take the church paper? Now is the time to begin to give your subscription to any member of the Auxiliary; they get $1.00 for every new subscription and you need the church paper.

Our program: Sunday school 9:45 sermon 11 Christian Endeavor 7:15. The pastor will preach Sunday on "Better Thinking" and he will be glad to see you at church.

WAYNESVILLE METHODIST

Paul Franklin Jr., Pastor. The Reverend L. B. Hayes, president of the Waynesville district, will preach at our church at 7:30 Sunday evening. Please remember that the hour of the night service has been changed from 8 to 7:30 o'clock. The pastor will preach at the morning hour 11 a. m. and all other services will be held as usual. The young people meet at 6:45 p. m. We are pleased that Locke Hyatt was elected president of the Haywood County Young People's Union. Let's back Locke here in our own church.

JUNALUSKA SCHOOL HEARS DR. PARKER

Dr. Parker, of Rio de Janeiro, who is spending sometime at Lake Junaluska, was the guest speaker for the chapel exercises at the Lake Junaluska Elementary School last Monday morning. Dr. Parker has lived in South America 33 years and his address was especially interesting to the school children who are at present covering Brazil in their study of Geography.

AN APOLOGY

In last week's issue there appeared a paragraph in an article which some of our readers took offense to. The paragraph got in the paper without the editor seeing it. Those offended were kind enough to come to us about it and we gladly made personal apology to them. We deeply regret that it happened. We also appreciate the attitude of those who came in and talked the matter over.

All crops seem to be good this season and especially is corn and Irish potatoes. The apple crop is somewhat short but enough to supply the demand.

The great problem that faces the farmer at this time is getting a market for his surplus crops in order to raise funds to pay the tax collector and to meet other obligations.
