

Go to Church Sunday

HAZELWOOD PRESBYTERIAN

O. C. Landrum, Pastor.
Sunday school and church attendance are increasing since the vacation season has ended.

Dr. John J. Fix, of Bristol, Tenn., director of Religious Education in the synod of Appalachia, will conduct a teacher training course for Sunday school teachers beginning either September 24 or October 1st. L. N. Davis is superintendent of our Sunday school.

Our church will entertain Asheville Presbytery at its fall meeting, Oct. 16 and 17.
The men of the church meet tonight (Thursday) for their September meeting. Supper will be served at the Hut at 6:30. L. E. Davis will be in charge of the session.

The hours of our church services are 10:40 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m.
We welcome all visitors and urge all the church membership to attend.

WAYNESVILLE METHODIST

Paul Hardin Jr., Pastor.
The young people will have charge of the night service Sunday. They are planning a good program, with special music and an outside speaker. The pastor will be away conducting services at Fines Creek but feels confident that the young people can be depended upon to conduct a splendid service. We slip with them at 7:30 Sunday evening.

The pastor will preach at the 11 o'clock service and all other services will be held as usual. Church school at 9:45 a. m. H. J. Sloan, superintendent.

The stewards of the church are making a strenuous effort to close out the finances of the conference year. Please give them your loyal support and cooperation. Let's clean the slate and have some Jubilee services before conference!

We extend a cordial invitation to all visitors to worship with us as often as possible.

PASTOR RESIGNS

W. the members of the Richland Missionary Baptist church are very much pained to give up our faithful pastor, Rev. L. E. Clark, of Canton, who has so faithfully served the church for ten long years, but due to declining health, must retire as pastor for a while.

We trust and pray for his recovery as he has a great host of friends in Waynesville. He is a faithful minister and a man that brings to his hearers the true gospel power. We as a church can safely commend him to any church where he may be associated and to the confidence of the people.

Now, we as a church must tell him good by, praying that he may come to us again and may God's richest blessings follow this good man of God wherever he may be in the prayer of this church by vote of entire church Sunday evening Sept 2 1934.
MRS. ETHEL SHEEHAN,
Church Clerk.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Dr. R. P. Walker, Minister.
Did you subscribe for the church paper? If not call some member of the auxiliary and do so right now.
Sunday, October 7th, is Rally Day throughout the Presbyterian church and in every department. On that day you are asked to rally to the church service, the Sunday school and the Christian Endeavor. There will be a Rally Day program in the Sunday school.

There are four regular services in the church each week: Sunday school 9:45 a. m., morning worship 11, and Christian Endeavor 7:15 p. m., mid-week service Wednesday 7:30 p. m. The ministers' topic Sunday will be "The King's Garden."

You are cordially invited to all services.

ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

Rev. Howard V. Lane, Pastor.
Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost. Morning Mass at 11 a. m. Sermon "Our Father" by the pastor. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament immediately after the Mass.

All the ladies of St. John's church, both visitors and parishioners, will meet at the rectory on Thursday afternoon from four to five o'clock to discuss the organization of an Altar society.

Kills Nagging Wife, Sentenced

London.—A British judge and jury today agreed in an unprecedented decision that a man who kills his wife because she "nags" him is not guilty of murder.

Sidney Haggerty, forty-one, successfully pleaded that he was driven to strangling his wife because she continually nagged him.

The charge of murder was reduced to one of manslaughter, and Haggerty was sentenced to only one year's imprisonment in Old Bailey.

In summing up the case the judge pointed out that Haggerty was a "nice peaceable man," whereas his wife was "quarrelsome and violent."

Traffic Cop: "Let me see your license."

Tourist: "Which one? marriage, car, driver's, camp-fire, fishing, or hunting? Open the license trunk, Maria."

Teacher: "Now, can any little boy or girl tell me why a mother bird sits on her eggs?"

Little Girl: "Please, miss because she hasn't got a chair."

Weatherby Predicts Greatest Team In History Of Waynesville School

Study Of Players Shows That Well Rounded Team Will Perhaps Outplay Famous Team Of '33

(By W. Thos. Reeves.)

Coach C. E. Weatherby says "I'll have the best team I've ever coached." If this is true, it means the best team to ever represent the Waynesville High School on the gridiron will face Hayesville in the opening game Friday. It appears to the majority that the former Duke star has favored the local fans with their greatest team in the 1933 edition of Mountaineers. I have heard the "Main Street" fans say that the team which defeated Asheville about twenty to nothing was the greatest. It is true that other teams had the services of Hyatt Davis, Crawford, and Phillips, but the team of last year was composed of eleven men as a team. None of them may have been equal to either of the four former stars. Fans will have to argue this matter. I didn't even see the old edition.

Nevertheless, if Coach Weatherby places eleven men on the field tomorrow which will equal the starters of a year ago football fans will again be proud of their team in victory and anxious for the arrival of each game. The writer is going to be very restless until Mr. Brennan blows the opening whistle and "Fatty" Swarringer and "Slim" Davis begin to hop up and down on the sidelines.

On what does Coach Weatherby base his opinion? He bases this opinion on the best thirty-three men to ever report in one season to a Mountaineer coach. In the writer's opinion an elusive back must be developed who can kick, pass, and play in the safety position if this prediction runs true to form. In other words, Scott Reeves' shoes must be filled, and the three times All-western work a large shoe that kicked and ran havoc into all opposition last year.

Ross, the pride of the Band Mill section, relieves any coaches' worry at the end position. "Yank" Bridges is all I would want backing up my high school line. Garland can take care of his position on any high eleven. Potcoat will relieve any sea's that the coach may have for the other tackle position. Don't worry for the safety of Ferguson and Hyatt. They look good. And there I must halt. Francis and Gillett, blond, and redette will be tried Friday. You guess what they will do.

Kuykendall has the speed of a good running back. I don't know whether he can remember the signals. Summerow looks fifty per cent better than last year. His best suit is passing and kicking and he seems to have about eight spades. His side hand of running blocking and tackling appears about the average. Bryson doesn't look like a back to me but he may make a good football player for the high school team. Swift the little man of the backfield, out ran them all in past scrimmages. Moore and Yount, sophomores, played well with the varsity in early drills. Royce has been playing in Bridges' place behind the line. Let's see what Hayesville makes through the line.

As reserves Coach Weatherby has

JUNALUSKA P. T. A. HAS OPENING MEET

The first meeting of the Junaluska Parent-Teachers was held at the school house Thursday night.

After the opening song, Come Thou Almighty King, prayer was offered by Mr. Glavich.

The president, Mrs. Toy, read the aims of the organization, after which Miss Moore reported a balance in the treasury of $470. Mrs. Hilliard Moody was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Threlkeld, who has moved to the Clyde district.

The committees for the year were read as follows:

Membership, Mrs. Queen and Mr. Burress.

Program, Mrs. Glavich and Mrs. Peck.

Hospitality, Mrs. Hurst Burgin and Mrs. Claude Medford.

Publicity, Mr. Francis and Mrs. Moore.

Publications, Miss Rogers.

Welfare, Mrs. Laner and Miss Walker.

Finance, Mr. Glavich and Mr. Hurst Burgin.

Four Square League, Mrs. Leath Crawford and Mrs. Burress.

The certificate for a standard organization, which was brought from Durham last spring by Mrs. Messer was proudly displayed by the president. She read the requirements for a superior organization, and urged Rae Leatherwood "Snooks" Leatherwood, two Caldwelles, a Byrd, a Case, Shipley, McHaffey, and others. The first one looks like a football player.

It is too early to say about the others.

Through an eleven game school schedule local fans will follow the Mountaineers with interest. There are a few good players and a host of fair ones. Let's hope that some are capable of development.

that the association make that its goal for the coming year.

Plans for increasing membership and attendance this year took the form of a contest, with Mrs. Queen and Mr. Burress as captains. The losing team is to entertain the winners with a supper at the end of the term.

Before the next meeting, the president is to appoint grade mothers for every grade. Very soon, she hopes to hear from the finance committee some definite plans for raising money to pay for an encyclopedia ordered for the school.

Mrs. Jack Messer gave a most interesting report of her trip to the State Convention at Durham. Among other things, she told that Mrs. Henderson state president laid emphasis on the three C's, character education, citizenship training and cultural skill, rather than on the three R's of old.

Announcement was made of the district meeting to be held at Canton, Tuesday, October 2.

Reverend L. B. Hayes, of Waynesville, talked very interestingly and helpfully on the influence of the home in the education of the child.

Conforming to the theme of the evening Home, Sweet Home was sung as a duet by Mrs. Glavich and Miss Walker.

After delicious punch and cookies were served by the teachers, the association adjourned to meet again in October.

Assistant Publicity.
