

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS

PHONE 137

Mrs. S. T. Neal and party of friends motored to Asheville on Monday. Mr. Clifford Brown, of Clyde, spent Tuesday in town on business. Mr. Dewey Stovall made a business trip to Asheville during the week. Among those from Clyde in town on Tuesday was Mr. J. B. Holder. Dr. J. R. McCracken spent Monday in Franklin on professional business. Mr. T. J. Reece, of Cruso, made a visit to Waynesville on Tuesday. Mrs. J. H. Coffey, of Bryson City, spent Tuesday in town shopping. Mr. F. A. Justice, of Crabtree, spent Tuesday in town on business. Mrs. Hiram Campbell, of Maggie, spent Monday in town shopping. Mr. D. H. Harris, of Canton, was a Waynesville visitor on Tuesday. Mrs. E. R. Dotson, of Clyde, spent Monday in town shopping. Mr. Norman James, of Fines Creek, spent Saturday in town on business. Mr. Josh Allison, of Jonathan's Creek, spent Monday in town. Mr. Carl Hill, of Canton, spent Saturday in town on business. Mr. W. W. Haynes, of Clyde, was in town during the week on business. Mr. W. E. Allison, of Jonathan's Creek, spent Monday in town. Mr. Zeb Rogers, of Crabtree, was in town on business Saturday. Mrs. A. C. Moody, of Franklin, was a Waynesville visitor during the week. Mr. Pink Best, of Crabtree, made a business trip to town on Saturday.

Mr. George Hampton, of Canton, spent Tuesday in Waynesville on business. Mr. Zack Davis, of Iron Duff, spent Tuesday in town on business and in attendance of the County Fair. Mr. D. M. Cagle, prominent citizen of Clyde, spent Tuesday in Waynesville. Mr. W. J. Darroff, official of the Champion Fibre Company, spent Tuesday in town. Miss Elizabeth Henry and Miss Fannie Pearl Felmet spent the week-end with friends in Atlanta. Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Sloan and children, of Franklin, spent the first of the week in Waynesville. Mr. K. F. Weitz, of the Champion Fibre Company, spent Tuesday in town on business. Col. and Mrs. W. T. Bates, of Fort M. Pherson, were among the Waynesville visitors on Monday. Dr. Ernest Morgan of Clyde, was among those in town the first of the week. Mrs. A. Allison and daughter, Miss Winn Allison, of Jonathan's Creek, spent Friday in town shopping. Mr. Harley Palmer, of Cataloochee, was a Waynesville visitor during the week. Mrs. Charles Byrd, of High Point, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Henry, in the Jonathan's Creek road. Mrs. Ed. McFarrell motored to Asheville on Friday with a party of friends. Mr. Murray Neal and Mr. Bill Shoofield were Asheville visitors during the week. Mr. Rufe McCracken was among those in town during the week from Crabtree. Mr. James A. Gwyn of New York City, was the guest during the week of his brother, Mr. T. L. Gwyn. Mr. Carter Osborne, of Clyde, made a business trip to Waynesville on Saturday. Mrs. Harriet Howell is attending the Asheville Normal Teachers Training College, of Asheville. Mrs. Henry Wigham spent the past week in Asheville with her husband, who is now located there. Dr. and Mrs. J. Rufus McCracken were among the Asheville visitors on Friday. Mr. Aaron Prevost and a party of friends attended the ball game in Asheville on Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wagonfeld were among those motoring to Asheville on Friday. Rev. S. R. Crockett, formerly of Waynesville now of Franklin, was a Waynesville visitor on Friday. Mr. Charles Smathers, of Canton, made a business trip to town during the week. Mr. Mark Leatherwood, of the Big Bend section, spent Monday in town on business. Miss Lydia Wilkinson, of Bellhaven, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Allen for a fortnight's visit. Dr. H. A. Smathers, of Canton, made a business trip to Waynesville during the week. Mr. S. M. Robinson, of Canton, spent several days in Waynesville during the past week. Mr. J. H. Kirkpatrick, of Canton, made a business trip to town the first of the week. Mr. P. J. McCracken, of Crabtree, made a business trip to town during the week. Mr. Charles McFarrell, of Fines Creek, spent Monday in town on business. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Bowls spent the weekend in Sylva as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan. Mrs. Carolina Hyatt and Miss Margaret Ashton were Sylva visitors on Saturday. Mr. John Carver, of Bellwood, made a business trip to town during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Abel attended the reunion of the 39th Division in Asheville last week. Mrs. K. to Sanford, of Crabtree, was among the visitors from her section of the county on Tuesday. Mr. Jack Brown, attorney, of Asheville, spent Wednesday in town on business. Mr. Tom Rollins, attorney of Asheville, spent several days in town during the week. Mr. Hugh Massie leaves for Greenville today where he will spend several days on business. Mr. Chief Lee, of Columbus, Ga., spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lee, at their country place. Mr. Kid Roberts, well known boxer, left during the week after spending some time as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ferguson. Mrs. William Hannah, Mrs. Kathleen Fryburger, and Mrs. O. B. O'Brien spent Wednesday in Asheville.

Miss Ruth Craig, of Pontiac, Mo., arrived during the week and will be associated with the Jo Ann Beauty Shop. Dr. Sam Stringfield and Dr. Tom Stringfield were Asheville visitors on Friday, having motored over for the football game. Miss Louie Carlisle has returned to her home in Lawndale, S. C., after spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. T. L. Bramlett. Among those attending the ball game in Asheville on Friday afternoon were Dr. C. N. Sisk, Mr. Tom Lee, Jr., and Rev. Paul Hardin, Jr. Mrs. W. C. Russ has returned home after a two weeks visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Bennett, in Hendersonville. Mr. W. L. Hardin, Mr. Bill Shoofield, and Mr. Emmett Fyfe joined a party at Old Fort during the week for a bear hunt in that section. Mr. J. Bat Smathers, prominent attorney at Asheville, spent several days in town on business during the week. Captain and Mrs. George Platt were among those attending the reunion of the 39th Division in Asheville during the past week. Among those attending the reunion of the 39th Division in Asheville last week were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., and Mrs. Ruth R. Lee. Mr. John F. Needham, chief ranger of the Great Smoky Mountain National Park, was in town on Bryson City, spent Saturday in town. Mr. Fred W. Jackson, of Roanoke, Va., who has been one of the most active players at Lake Junaluska, left for his home on Saturday. Mr. Charles Owens, principal of the Bellwood school, was in town on Wednesday attending the Haywood County Fair. Mr. C. W. DeHart and two children, Mrs. W. C. DeHart, and son, Fred, left during the week for the county seat, Mr. and Mrs. T. Dinkler. Mr. Ralph Howell, of Jonathan's Creek, spent Wednesday in town on business attending the Haywood County Fair. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Duckert had a party at home on Wednesday. Mr. Glenn Leatherwood and two children, of Cataloochee. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. McElroy, of the Naval Training Station of Norfolk, Va., were visiting friends and relatives in the county the past week. Mr. A. J. Stevens, of New York, president of the Sumner Lumber Company, spent last Thursday in town on business. Mr. Lawrence G. Miller, of West Grove, Mo., spent the week end in town with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, at the Hotel LeFaine. Mrs. Harrold Koppin, and Miss Elizabeth Fisher, frequent Waynesville visitors from Miami, have arrived to spend some time at the Hotel LeFaine. Mrs. Margie Blaylock and her sister, Mrs. Alex Shuford, who is visiting here, left during the week for Morristown, Tenn., where they will be the guests of Mrs. John C. Orr. Miss Belle Franklin left last week for Cullowhee where she will be a student at the Western Carolina Teachers Training College for the coming year. Among those attending the ball game in Asheville on Friday afternoon, were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Withers, Miss Catherine Martin, Miss Emily Siler, Miss Sarah Welch and Ernest Withers, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoofield have as their guest this week Mrs. George Tomary, of Johnson City, Tenn. Mrs. Tomary is a niece of Mrs. Shoofield. Mr. W. H. Fyfe had as his guests over the week end at the Parkway Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shelton and Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Dyer, of Morristown, Tenn. Motoring to Asheville on Saturday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith, Miss Bernice McElhannon, and Mr. R. W. Hamann and son Harold. Mrs. Clifford E. Lupton, the former Miss Louise Francis, who has been spending the past month with relatives here left on Saturday for her home in Bridgeport, Conn. Miss Hattie Siler Freeman is among those from Waynesville who are attending the Western Carolina Teachers Training College at Cullowhee. Mr. Humphrey Snyder, of Jackson county, spent Tuesday in town attending the Haywood County Fair. Mr. Snyder was formerly president of the Jackson county Fair. Mr. and Mrs. Berry Lee Barnes, and Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, of Asheville, spent Monday in town as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Wood Reed. Mr. Gene Carter, of Lenoir City, Tenn., spent the week-end with his family. On Monday he was accompanied to Lenoir City by Mrs. Carter and Miss Virginia Carter who will spend this week there. Miss Alden Howell left on Friday for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend some time with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson. She will be joined later by her father, Mr. Alden Howell, Jr.

CLOTHING For Men and Boys A Complete Service C. E. Ray's Sons

ALL NEXT WEEK IMPERIAL ASHEVILLE ALL NEXT WEEK 7 Days Starting SUNDAY, October 7 Our Own Will... as lovable as in "State Fair" as human as in "David Harum" as merry as in "Handy Andy" -but he touches your heart as he never has done before! WILL ROGERS in Irvin S. Cobb's Judge Priest Make Up A Party... Come See This Picture!

Miss Mary Stringfield has as her guests this week Miss Minnie Ann Weld and Miss Frances Whitmore, of Roanoke, Va. Miss Weld and Miss Whitmore were schoolmates of Miss Stringfield when she attended Converse College. Miss Harte Oliver, public health nurse of Swain, has been transferred to Haywood county. She is at present working in the Waynesville Elementary school. Mrs. Lucy Leary Harte has assumed the duties of health nurse in Swain in place of Miss Oliver. Mrs. Frank Therrell and small son, Ashton Therrell, who have been the guests of Mrs. Therrell's mother, Mrs. Nora W. Ashton, left on Monday for Louisville, Ky. She will spend one week there as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George White the latter the former Miss Braxton Kirk. Her young son, Frank Jr., will remain with his grandmother. Mrs. J. C. Weaver returned the first of the week from a visit to her sons, Mr. Charles Weaver and Mr. Ernest Weaver, in Detroit. While away Mrs. Weaver attended the Fair at Chicago, took a trip into Canada and visited several other cities in that part of the country. Major J. Harden Howell was among those attending the reunion of the 39th Division in Asheville last week. He also attended the banquet at the George Vanderbilt Hotel on Saturday night. MRS. UPTON HONORED WITH DINNER PARTY Mrs. J. P. Francis gave a lovely dinner party on Thursday evening honoring her daughter, Mrs. Clifford E. Lupton, the former Miss Louise Francis, who has spent the past month with her. Golden red and Queen Ann's lace in tinted shades of blue were a pleasing combination for the central table decorating. The table ends were yellow with miniature bouquets of blue flowers attached. The great list included some of Mrs. Lupton's most intimate friends, who were Miss Josephine Cobb, Miss Johnnie Russell, Miss Elizabeth Henry, Mrs. Fannie Pearl Felmet, and Miss Susie Fisher. Following the serving of dinner the guests enjoyed a movie theater party.

From Ray's for A Healthy Breakfast Gold Metal Cup and Saucer 25c Oatmeal 10c Crystal Wedding Oatmeal With Glassware 10c Biltmore Wheat Hearts, 12 oz. 15c Size 15c Cream of Wheat, 28 oz. 25c Size 25c Wheatena, 28 oz. 25c Kelloggs 10c Pep 10c Kelloggs Rice 10c Krispies 10c Kelloggs Whole Wheat Biscuits 25c 2 for 25c Kelloggs Cornflakes 15c 2 for 15c WITH CHINA 29c QUICK OATS LARGE SIZE 22c 19c PUFFED WHEAT 10c From Choice Haywood Stock Tea Bone Steak 12 1/2c Per Pound Sirlin Steak 12 1/2c Per Pound Round Steak 12 1/2c Per Pound Veal Chops 10c Per Pound Pork Chops 17c Per Pound Spare Ribs 14c Per Pound Kingan's Sliced Breakfast Bacon 26c Choice Western Meats Expertly Cut - Cleanly Handled C. E. Ray's Sons The Best Foods and the Best Values