

Society News

SOCIETY PAGE

Local Items

Mrs. Hilda Way Gwyn, Editor - - - Phone 137

UNUSUAL HONOR COMES TO MRS. ROBERT WOOD

An unusual honor has recently been bestowed upon Mrs. Robert Wood of Elizabethton, Tenn. Mrs. Wood is the former Miss Annie Shoolbred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoolbred, and has numerous friends here who will recall with interest of her recognition. At a recent banquet held by the Chamber of Commerce of Elizabethton, Tenn., she was presented a handsome silver cup with the following engravings: "Presented to Mrs. R. E. Wood Selected Citizen of the Year 1934 For outstanding community service performed without compensation. The noblest motive is the public good."

The cup is to be "typed annually" by the Chamber of Commerce of Elizabethton, Tenn. Mrs. Wood and her active participation in the affairs of the Chamber of Commerce has been the subject of many articles in the local press. She has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce since its organization in 1914 and has served as president for several years. She has also served as president of the Chamber of Commerce of Elizabethton, Tenn. for several years.

The cup is to be "typed annually" by the Chamber of Commerce of Elizabethton, Tenn. Mrs. Wood and her active participation in the affairs of the Chamber of Commerce has been the subject of many articles in the local press. She has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce since its organization in 1914 and has served as president for several years. She has also served as president of the Chamber of Commerce of Elizabethton, Tenn. for several years.

The cup is to be "typed annually" by the Chamber of Commerce of Elizabethton, Tenn. Mrs. Wood and her active participation in the affairs of the Chamber of Commerce has been the subject of many articles in the local press. She has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce since its organization in 1914 and has served as president for several years. She has also served as president of the Chamber of Commerce of Elizabethton, Tenn. for several years.

Night Appointments Ruth Ray's Beauty Shop PHONE 113 Permanents Given by Experienced Operators Eugene Combination . . . $5.00 Relistic Croquignole with Beautiful curly ends . . . $5.00

CLOTHING

For Men and Boys A Complete Service

C. E. Ray's Sons

SMITH'S Cut-Rate Drug Store

Everyday Prices At Smith's

Table listing various drugs and their prices: 60c Thor's Vitamin Comp. 49c, 25c Thedford's Black Draught 15c, 50c Vicks Nose Drops 37c, Lb. Epsom Salts 9c, $1.00 Ovaltine Large Size 59c, 30c Lysol Disinfectant 24c, 75c Listerine Antiseptic 59c, 50c Ipana Tooth Paste 39c, 10c Listerine Tooth Paste 33c, $1.00 Vitalis Hair Tonic 79c, $1.00 ST. 37 Antiseptic 79c, 75c Fitches Shampoo 59c

Table listing Wampoles, Feen-a-Mint, and Cardui with prices: WAMPOLES 79c, FEEN-A-MINT 17c, CARDUI 69c

MISS ISABEL FERGUSON BRIDE OF LYMAN S. AYERS

Of interest to a wide circle of relatives and friends is the following account. Miss Ferguson is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ferguson. A wedding of interest took place yesterday afternoon when Miss Isabel Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lenoir Ferguson, became the bride of Lyman S. Ayres, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Murray Ayers, of Indianapolis, Ind.

The ceremony was performed at 2:30 at St. Paul's Episcopal church with the Rev. J. Keith M. Lee, pastor of St. Paul's officiating. The church was decorated with palms, ferns, madonia lilies and white gladiolus with luscious cathedral chandeliers in tall standards.

Proceeding the ceremony a program of music was given by Mrs. Carol Shepard, organist of the church. Miss Ayres, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a bridal gown of white satin with simple lines with a high collar and a full skirt. Her veil of illusion was arranged with a special beaded cap from which her hair fell. She carried a white bouquet of lilies. She had as her maid of honor Miss Elsie Ferguson, who was seated to the left of the bride. The bridesmaids were Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Ferguson.

The bridesmaids, Miss Anna Ayres, Indianapolis, sister of the bride; Miss Margaret A. Ferguson, of Washington, D. C.; and Miss Homer L. Ferguson, of Newport News, Va.; were seated to the right of the bride. Miss Norman J. Ayres, of Richmond, Mrs. Harvey Ferguson, of Cambridge, Mass., and Miss Lillian Langhorne, of Norfolk, wore dresses of white, by which the bride and bridesmaids were distinguished. The bridesmaids were also dressed in white. The groom had as his best man his brother, Elbert, of Indianapolis, and the groomsmen were Homer L. Ferguson of Newport News, Va.; Charles A. Ferguson, of Washington, D. C.; William Ferguson, of New York City; Chandler Kibbee, of Chicago; Harold Stuart, of Oklahoma City; John Williams, and Thomas Ruckelshaus, of Indiana.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson entertained at a reception at the James River Country club. The club was decorated in autumn tints. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Ayres left on the wedding trip to Honolulu.

The bride attended St. Catherine's school, Richmond; Oldfield school, Baltimore; and Sarah Lawrence college, Bronxville, N. Y. She made her debut in Norfolk in 1932. Mr. Ayres is a graduate of the 1930 class of Yale university.

Mrs. D. W. Williams and Miss Mozelle Huff, of Picolet, S. C., were the guests of Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick, at her home on Walnut street during the week.

MRS. BARBER GIVES TRAVEL LUNCHEON

Of unusual interest and charm was the luncheon given Saturday by Mrs. R. N. Barber, president of district No. 1 of the North Carolina Federation of Women's clubs, in honor of the presidents of the clubs in the district. She was assisted in receiving her guests by her daughter, Miss Mary Ashworth Barber.

Quantities of beautiful dahlias, gaily colored zinnias, and other fall flowers from the gardens of the hostess adorned the rooms. The guests were seated at small tables and served a five-course luncheon. The tables were decorated by appointments of international interest collected by the hostess in her travels. For the occasion Mrs. Barber wore a stunning frock from London, with a bracelet from Paris, a watch from Switzerland, beads from Cairo, Egypt, and carried a handkerchief from Belgium. The tables were spread with handsome Maitreia linens. The place cards were hand-painted scenes of Venice and were white and blue silk cords. The napkins were of the same color and had attached to them small checks from the sea of Galilee. In the center of each table the guests were served with a vase in which were placed a bouquet of flowers from the garden of Ann Hathaway. The luncheon was served in a room which was decorated with flowers from the garden of Ann Hathaway. The luncheon was served in a room which was decorated with flowers from the garden of Ann Hathaway.

The invited guests were: Mrs. N. R. Wild, president of the Canton Woman's club; Mrs. E. M. Green, president of the Civic Woman's club; Mrs. Ben Colkitt, vice-president of the Community club, of Waynesville; Mrs. Grover Davis, president of the Woman's club, of Waynesville; Mrs. Grant Lowe, president of the Civic League, of Waynesville; Mrs. John Morris, president of the Twentieth Century club of Sylva; Mrs. E. L. McKee of Sylva, past president of the North Carolina federation; Mrs. J. J. Stone, president of the Kappa Delta club, of Andrews; Mrs. H. G. Davis, president of the Woman's club, of Andrews; Miss Ada Moody, president of the Woman's club, of Robbinsville; Mrs. B. R. Taylor, vice-chairman of the district; Mrs. Stanley Black, president of the Woman's club, of Bryson City; Mrs. C. H. Allen, president of the Community club, of Cullowhee; Mrs. Charles Gully, of Cullowhee, State chairman of Music; Mrs. C. W. Savage, of the Marygrove Woman's club; Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, district secretary and Dr. A. P. Cline, of Canton—Asheville Citizen.

Waynesville D. A. R. attend meeting. Mrs. J. Harden, Howell, Regent. Mrs. J. W. Seaver, Secretary. Mrs. James W. Killian, Mrs. J. E. Henderson, and Miss Margaret Henderson, of Canton, were among the members of the Dorcas Bell Love chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, who attended the district meeting held in Bryson City yesterday. Mrs. Howell, as regent presented the work of the chapter. Mrs. J. W. Seaver served as a member of the courtesy committee. Mrs. James W. Killian was a member of the nominating committee while Miss Margaret Henderson served as a page. On behalf of the local chapter Mrs. Howell extended an invitation to the district to meet in Waynesville next year.

Baptist Missionary Circles to meet. The Women's Missionary Circles will meet as follows: Mollie Herrem with Mrs. Fred Saunders, next Tuesday 3:30. Lottie Moon, with Mrs. Jack Messer, next Tuesday 3:30. North Side Circle, with Mrs. W. T. Crawford. West Side Circle, with Mrs. Shuford Howell, next Tuesday 3:30. Business Women's Circle, with Mrs. Edwin Hayes Thursday 7:30. Mrs. C. E. Williams, of Crabtree, was among those in town on Wednesday from that section of the county.

COMMUNITY CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The initial meeting for the fall of the Community Club was held on Monday afternoon in the club rooms on Main street with the vice president, Mrs. Ben Colkitt, opening the meeting. Following the usual ritualistic service the resignation of Mrs. Robert Stretcher as president was read and was accepted with deep regret by the members.

Mrs. M. G. Stamey was unanimously elected to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Stretcher, after which Mrs. Stamey took the chair and presided over the remainder of the meeting. A motion was made and carried to assist the high school girls in obtaining literature suitable for entrance in the annual reading contest.

Mrs. M. H. Bowles, chairman of hospitality, announced that if it suited the club members her committee would like to have the annual husbands party on Thursday evening at the Country Club. Being agreeable definite plans were formulated for this occasion which is always anticipated by the club members and their escorts. A buffet supper will be served at seven-thirty o'clock, followed by various forms of entertainment.

Mrs. Ben Colkitt was elected as the substitute to the district meeting to be held the last of the month in Murphy. At this time Ben Colkitt played two musical numbers by Mrs. Margaret Stamey.

Mrs. W. T. Crawford introduced the business of the meeting and Mrs. Wilburn Wilburn presented a very interesting paper on the life of Ann Hathaway, who has been the subject of many papers in this section, working for the Park Extension, has made a most competent study of the park area. He first learned on the site and made a study of the park. He was a most interesting discussion of the park life.

He talked at length of the economic and social phases of the development of the park, stating that the park would attract visitors from over the world and that many eminent persons would be visiting this section. He claimed that the park is perhaps the most interesting feature of the entire park.

The proposed museum came in for much explanation as to its purpose and the importance of preserving the history and traditions of the people in the relics that show the manner of living. He urged that the old names be retained. In closing his remarks he displayed quite a number of interesting things he has collected for the museum.

The club upon motion gave Mr. Wilburn a rising vote of thanks for his splendid address. Following which Mrs. Campbell, chairman of literature, presented the members with the new Year Books which were much admired.

During the social hour cake and coffee were served by the hostesses of the afternoon Mrs. J. Wilford Ray, Mrs. R. R. Campbell, Mrs. Grayden Ferguson and Mrs. Linwood Grahl.

Vesper Service to be held at Grace Church. A vesper service that gives promise of much in a musical way will be held at Grace Episcopal church Sunday evening, October 7th, at eight o'clock with special musical numbers by Mrs. Walter C. Hagelegans of Miami, Fla., soloist and director of the Robinson Memorial church choir. Mrs. Hagelegans is a coloratura soprano having a very clear and beautiful voice.

She will be assisted by other artists, namely, Miss Grace Crocker, violinist, Mrs. Elizabeth de Laet, organist, and Miss Mildred Crawford, contralto. The public is cordially invited to attend. A silver offering will be taken, following the presentation of the program.

October Meeting of D. A. R. to be held. The regular monthly meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held with Mrs. Harry Harshall on Wednesday afternoon, October 10th, at the home of Mrs. Sam Stringfield.

East Waynesville P. T. A. to hold meeting. The regular monthly meeting of the East Waynesville P. T. A. will be held on Tuesday night, October 9th, at 7:30. All patrons are urged to be present.

C. E. Ray's Sons Present in Smart Ready-to-Wear

FASHIONS

Everything in Feminine Apparel Dresses Suits Skirts Sweaters Sweater Sets Foundation Garments Millinery Hosiery Shoes

Distinctive Merchandise

Every garment has been individually chosen. Each one is fashion-correct—modish. Each one selected because of its distinctiveness. Every garment a good value regardless of price.

Dress with Assurance

Buying from us you can dress with assurance. Nothing better, nothing smarter can be bought on Fifth Avenue. Traveling anywhere, you can have that feeling of being smart. You can rely on our clothes and on our advice.

Redfern Coats

Our coats have been chosen from many sources in our quest for the best. We recommend especially, however, the Redfern Coat as being outstanding. Particularly, their Sport Coats are outstanding. Where else can you find reasonably price, coats that are shower-proof, dust-proof, and wrinkle-proof? Moreover, there is no coat more comfortable or longer wearing.

Millinery

Gloriously new and modish, our fall hats will be found most fetching. Everything that is new in the way of materials, shapes, and shades. In Felts, you who are fashion-wise, will be attracted to Byron Hats. Nowhere else will you find such chic for $5.00.

Foundation Garments

Fall styles make the Foundation particularly important. Fastidiousness in the underdress was never more important. There, daintiness begins. Let us show you the lovely, choice garments from—GOSSARD VASSARETTE MADAME GRACE

EVERYTHING IN Ready-To-Wear - - Underwear

C. E. Ray's Sons