John B. Mann, 53, prominent Haywood county farmer, died at 7:15 o'clock Tuesday night at his home in the North Hominy section about four miles from Canton. He had been ill for the past two years. Mr. Mann was formerly employed in the soda mill department of the Champion Fibre company. He was a member of the Arnold Plains Methodist church.

W. T. Shelton Is Honored At Fair In New Mexico

A recent issue of the Farmington, New Mexico Times-Herald, gave considerable space to W. T. Shelton, who is now in New Mexico as honor guest of the Ship Rock Fair, which he inaugurated when he was superintendent of the Indian Reservation there years ago. Some 10,000 Indians attended the fair, and Mr. Shelton was honored in many capacities. He led a mile-long parade given in his honor, and was also guest of honor given by the Farmington Chamber of Commerce. He is expected back here in about two weeks.

Mrs. Matthews' Mother Passed Away Saturday

Mrs. D. T. Chestnut, 78, died Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Matthews, on the Howell Mill road after an illness of several months. In addition to Mrs. Matthews she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. James Hayes, of Okmulgee, Okla.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. A. W. Francis, of Okmulgee, a stepson, P. M. Chestnut, of Oklahoma City, 32 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. After a short funeral service Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock which was held at the Garrett funeral home here by Rev. H. W. Baucum, pastor of the First Baptist church, the body was taken by ambulance to Corbin, Ky. A service was also held there on arrival at the Christian church in the afternoon, followed by burial in Green Hill cemetery. The body was accompanied to Corbin by Mrs. Matthews and her two children, David and Buddy. Mr. Matthews, who is a traveling salesman, at present in the mid-west, joined Mrs. Matthews and the children in Corbin.

Music Class Is Started Here

Professor E. J. Smith, president of Smith's Conservatory of Music, Knoxville, was here over the week-end making final arrangements for the establishing of a music class which will be opened in the auditorium of the high school. Miss Grace Crocker, local music teacher, has been named on the staff and will teach violin. Plans are to have an orchestra here during the coming few months. A large class has already enrolled, it was said.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson arrived on Tuesday night from Philadelphia and are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Coman, at Lake Junaluska. Dr. Ferguson has been assigned sea duty and will leave on Friday for New Orleans, where he will go aboard the U. S. S. Wyoming. While he is away Mrs. Ferguson will remain with her family at Lake Junaluska.

Circus Stops Here For Gas Enroute To Newport, Tenn.

The Robbins Circus which showed here Tuesday a week ago passed through Waynesville late Saturday afternoon en route to Newport, Tenn. The circus was scheduled to show in Murphy Saturday but the lot was covered with water. The circus travels in large trucks, there being about twenty in all, stopped here to refill with gas. The truck carrying the trained horse and ponies stopped in front of The Mountaineer office and Chief of Police Stringfield noticed that the horse had become untied and was trying to bite the "collected pony." The horse was promptly tied before moving on. Sunday morning those on the streets watched with interest the carnival that was en route to Hendersonville after being with the Haywood County Fair for a week.

East Waynesville Victor Over Hazelwood In Basketball

Monday afternoon the boys' and girls' basketball teams captured two close games from Hazelwood Elementary. The girls won the first game 4-2, while the boys took their game 8-5. Ratliff writes from Hinton, W. Va.: "My wife and I have used Theodor's Black-Draught thirty-five years for constipation, — tired feeling and headache. I use it when I feel my system needs cleansing. After all these years, I haven't found anything better than Black-Draught." Sold in 25-cent packages. Theodor's BLACK-DRAUGHT

Bethel Boys Win Seed Judging Contest At The Fair

Three agricultural students from Bethel High School won the seed judging and crop identification contest held last Wednesday afternoon at the Haywood County Fair. The team from Bethel competed against three other teams from Waynesville, Clyde and Fines Creek. Only first year agriculture students were eligible for the contest. The boys had to judge six classes of seeds and identify sixty crop seeds and plants. Glenn Chambers, of Bethel, was the highest scoring individual of the contest, with Steve Cathey, also of Bethel, ranking second. Bill Hyatt, of Bethel and Billy McElroy, of Fines Creek, tied for third place. The Waynesville boys placed were second and Fines Creek third. Mr. W. D. Smith, County Agent, will take Steve Cathey, Bill Hyatt and Maurice Evans, all of Bethel High School, to Raleigh Thursday to enter the state 4-H seed judging contest at the State Fair. Glenn Chambers is not a 4-H club boy which prevents him from entering the state contest. About seventy dollars in cash prizes are offered in this contest at the State Fair.
