Waynesville Takes Game From Christ School, By 19 to 6

Bridges And Potent Star For Mountaineers in Hard Fought Game. Game Won In Last Quarter

With the brilliant work of "Yank" Bridges, the "Ice Man," again playing the leading role, the Waynesville Mountaineers defeated Christ School's Greenies 19-6 on the local field last Friday. It was sweet revenge for the Weatherly team for the 14-7 defeat suffered last season. It was the only game lost by the great 11 eleven.

In the second quarter after an exchange of punt Yount and Summerow made a first down. Bridges added seven yards and Summerow made another first down on Christ School's nine yard line. Bridges made three and Reeves gained two yards over center. Bridges on two more drives carried the ball over for the first touchdown. Yount failed on his attempt through the line for the extra point. The half ended with the score 6-0 in favor of Waynesville.

Early in the third quarter, Yount fumbled and Newman of Christ School covered it on his twenty yard line. A drive at the line failed and then Hart crossed a beautiful pass over Summerow's head to Hurst. From his 35 yard stripe the Christ School player raced by Yount and to the goal sixty-five yards East, Ledbetter's placement failed. Score Waynesville 6 Christ School 0.

Bridges returned to the game and gave the boys another touchdown in two seconds after the third quarter started. Line plays by the entire backfield carried the ball to the opponent's ten where Bridges made a beautiful run just outside right end and over the goal line standing up. Yount failed over center, six, Waynesville 12, Christ School six.

In a wild attempt to score from their own twenty yard line Christ School threw a pass towards Summerow, and the Mountaineer's quarterback made a spectacular catch and raced to another six points. This time Potent, star of the Waynesville line, flew kicked the extra point. In a few seconds the game ended with Waynesville on the long end of a 19-6 score.

Hart and Hopkins were outstanding in Christ School's backfield, while the work of Bridges was the feature of Waynesville's victory.

Paper Praises The Work Done By W. T. Shelton In Colo.

The following article was taken from the Durango Herald-Democrat, Colorado:

The Shiprock Indian fair given by the traders of the Navajo reservation in honor of W. T. Shelton, (Natan Nez) the greatest Indian agent the southwest has ever known, will come to a close tonight with the staking of a great Navajo ceremonial dance, which will start at 9 o'clock and last until the break of dawn Friday morning.

W. T. Shelton, in whose honor the fair was held, came from his home in North Carolina to attend. He established the custom of holding a Navajo Indian fair annually, soon after he became agent of the Northern Navajo Indian reservation. When he left, about twenty years ago, the holding of the Navajo fairs was discontinued.

This is the first fair held since he left, and the traders of the reservation plan to make it an annual event in the future.

A fine souvenir program book was published for the fair, with the following compliment to Mr. Shelton: "Dedicated to W. T. Shelton, first superintendent of the Northern Navajo Indian reservation, and founder of the San Juan Navajo fair. It is conceded that Shelton did more than any other Navajo superintendent to develop the Navajo Indians."

We were very fortunate in having Mrs. Doyle Alley and Aunt M. H. Bowles present. Mrs. Alley gave a very interesting talk on the organization of a P. T. A. and what a P. T. A. means to a community. Mr. Bowles stated some of the benefits of a P. T. A. to the school. Mrs. W. D. Keiter presented some very important data concerning the effect of malnutrition on the child physically, mentally, and socially.

Another feature of the program enjoyed by all was the musical number given by Billy, Alva Joy and Wanda Menly of the Shelton Brothers. Health Work In County Schools

Among the many phases of constructive work being undertaken by the health department of which Haywood county is a part, is the thorough physical examination being given all the school children. This work is being followed up by definite cooperation with the parents and teachers in an effort to correct the deficiencies. After the completion of the examination a notice is sent to the parents of all children needing attention on any condition, with a request for additional physical history. Attractive health charts are being presented each grade on which a monthly record of each child may be kept, which will no doubt inspire the children to a greater realization of the importance of health.

Miss Harte Oliver has recently finished the examination of the children in the Waynesville Elementary school with the following result: She has examined 345 children and notices are being sent to 212 parents. Her findings were in full as follows: Free of correctable defects, 133; with dis-

Obituary

MRS. LORENA DAVIS ROGERS. As the twilight shadows deepened and the snows fell on Friday, Oct. 12, 1934, the gentle spirit of Mrs. Lorena Davis Rogers, age 85 years, peacefully passed out of this life to be at home with the Redeemer. At a time of age when the judgment of earth would have her to be gone beyond the vale of sorrow, she could bravely pass through the valley of death because at evening there was the light of salvation to guide her pathway. The Captain of her salvation had safely brought her through life and He it was who could sail the ship of Zion into port.

Mrs. Lorena Davis Rogers was born July 19, 1849, in Iron Duff township of Haywood county. At the age of 19 years she professed faith in Christ as her Saviour and joined the Davis Chapel Methodist church. On December 19, 1872, she married Asbury Thornton Rogers and from that time made her home in Crabtree township and joined Mt. Zion Methodist church. On November 8, 1888, her husband died. This called for heroism and the good wife and mother moved through the trying years a true heroine. With her nine children—from a child in arms up to 15 years of age—she set in upon the difficult task of keeping her family together. She did the task well. Her children can truly rise up and call her blessed.

The deceased is survived by five children, three sons: J. F. R. F., and M. B.; and two daughters; Mrs. J. R. Kirkpatrick and Miss Elizabeth Rogers all of Crabtree, except Mrs. Kirkpatrick of Kents Store, Va. Six brothers: T. J. Z. C., and R. L. Davis, of Iron Duff E. R. and Dr. J. C. of Texas, and J. F. M. of Canton—also mourn her departure. She is also survived by 37 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

When the last great summons came it found a faithful servant of Christ ready to answer the call of God. Her faith was steadfast to the end. The old family Bible bore the marks of a devoted reader of God's word. She believed in God's word as the way of life and in this faith trained her children and her household after her.

She had faith in her church and was a faithful member. The devotion of her heart is amply reflected in the faithfulness of her children. The four children who live in Crabtree township are efficient officials of the old home church, Mt. Zion. The light of her life will shine through the lives of her children and children's children. She lived a life of Christian charity worthy of posterity's emulation. A source of Christian pride during the closing period of life, when the infirmities of age became entrenched, is the fact that one grandson has heard the call of God and is preparing himself for the ministry of her beloved church. No doubt but that the prayers of her trusting soul are fulfilled.

The passing of our beloved one was not unexpected, nevertheless it gave a feeling throughout the town that a staunch and true patriotess had been removed from this earth. We thank God that her life was spared such a fine old age. She lived in the fourth generation. Though we must realize that her physical life removed from our midst, yet her memories and her influence remain dear to the heart of all who knew her. We miss her presence and the brightness of her life. As we shed our tears of farewell we will raise a prayer to the Good Shepherd of the sheep that we shall live that the ties of Christian fellowship shall again, in God's good pleasure, be laid again the chords that Goday are tentatively broken.

The King of love my Shepherd is Where goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill With thee, dear Lord, beside me; Thy rod and staff my comfort still, Thy cross before me to guide me.

And so through all the length of days, Thy goodness faileth never; Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise Within thy home forever. HENRY W. BAKER.
