Missionary From Africa Preaching At Hazelwood

Dr. R. D. Bedinger, of Asheville, began revival services at the Hazelwood Presbyterian church on last Sunday morning. Services are held each evening at 7:30 o'clock. The service Sunday morning will be at 10:45.

Dr. Bedinger, who is superintendent of Home Missions of Asheville Presbytery was for 18 years a missionary in Africa under the Mission Board of the Southern Presbyterian church.

For four years prior to coming to Asheville Dr. Bedinger was pastor of the Founder Presbyterian church in Jackson, Miss. While there his work received state-wide recognition and he was asked by the synod of Mississippi to travel over the state and tell other churches of his work.

Before the sermon each night Dr. Bedinger will have a story period for the children, telling something in connection with a snake, tiger, leopard, or elephant. He will also tell of some of the outstanding work by boys of the African churches. These stories carry a thrill for the children and will also interest the adults.

The series of meetings will continue until Thursday night, November first. The attendance has been good to date, and people of all denominations are invited to attend.

Undeclared Team From Swannanoa To Play Mountaineers

Three days of hard practice have put the Mountaineers in splendid condition for the game with Swannanoa here Friday afternoon, which is expected to be the hardest game for the local eleven since meeting Asheville the first of the season.

The Swannanoa team is the only undefeated high school team in Western North Carolina, and it is their intention to maintain their record by taking Waynesville down Friday.

The Mountaineers came through the game with Asheville School for boys last Saturday in splendid shape, and were encouraged by their victory of 7-0 over the Asheville boys.

Coach Weatherly is looking forward to having his boys in A-1 condition for the game Friday, realizing that a hard game is expected.
