

Go to Church Sunday

MIDNIGHT CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE IN GRACE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The regular Christmas Communion in Grace Church in the Mountains, will begin at 11:15 p. m. Monday mid-night to usher in the Birth Day of the Holy Child, born in the manger at Bethlehem, because there was no room for Him in the inn. Everybody is most cordially invited to attend this impressive devotional service, and to partake of the Birth-Day Feast of the Holy Communion.

mas music and a beautiful Christmas program. You are cordially invited to all these services.

WAYNESVILLE METHODIST

Paul Hardin Jr., Pastor.
Christmas will be our theme at all services Sunday. There will be special Christmas music at the 11 o'clock hour with a Christmas message from the pastor. At 5 in the afternoon the young people will present a play entitled, "Where Lies The Child?" They will be assisted by the choir.

The church school assemblies at 9:45. Mr. Hugh Sloan, superintendent.
In memory of the birth of the Christ Child—good news to all men—come to church Sunday.

THE WAYNESVILLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. H. W. Bannam, Pastor.
Last Sunday was a good day for our church. The attendance was good and the offering showed that the special committee had been busy. The offering was $344.67, and this brings the amount due by Jan. 1st to about $500 and the committee feel that by co-operation we will meet the amount.

Regular services Sunday morning at 11. At 7:00 our choir with the assistance of other choir members will give a Christmas Cantata.
