C., and told of the progress made each year and of the present day vision of active service that unites the home and school with a cooperative spirit between the teacher and the parent.

She urged that every association place "Our Public School" in their school library. In speaking of the work in North Carolina she stated that at present there were 31,000 members of the P. T. A., but that the goal to which the organization is now aiming is 100,000.

STATE FEDERATION PRESIDENT VISITS COMMUNITY CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the Community Club was held on Monday afternoon in the Club rooms on Main Street, with Mrs. M. G. Stamey, the resident, presiding. More than seventy members and guests were present. Honor guests of the occasion were Mrs. R. H. Latham, of Asheville, president of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. R. N. Barber, district president, and the teachers of the township schools.

During the short business session Miss Alice Quinlan, Chairman of Dramatics stated that the annual reading contest sponsored by the Club for the High School girls would be held on March 7th and that the money to defray the cost of the medal would be made by a sale of cook books which had been edited some years ago by the club. Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan asked the club to defray the expense of the group going from the High School to the Western Carolina Teachers College to enter the contest for the presentation of the best one act play. Motion was made, and favorably acted upon to help with this work. Miss Quinlan will report the exact amount needed at the next meeting.

Mrs. Stamey in well chosen words introduced Mrs. Latham, speaker of the afternoon. In opening her remarks Mrs. Latham first congratulated the members on the Club rooms and expressed pleasure at being present. She brought greetings from Mrs. Howard Etheridge, second vice president of the State Federation who was unable to attend. The speaker told of the board meeting she would attend this week in Raleigh when plans for the state convention would be perfected and of the most interesting board meeting of the General Federation she had recently attended in Washington, D. C. She stated that the president of the General Federation urged that new life be put into the programs and that the meetings be imbued with the study of current problems and that one of the great advantages of club life is the opportunity to touch and study all phases of life.

In her discussions of the conference for the cause and cure of war, to which Mrs. Latham was a delegate she emphasized the fact that were the profits from the war lessened those who had given the subject much thought felt that the dangers would not be so great. She made an appeal to the women in this section to lend their support to the preservation of wild life, stating that we "have stolen the cradle of our wild life from our forests" and stressed the future of this section and the commercial value of conservation.

She asked the Club to invite Dr. W. R. James of Hamlet, who is lecturing free of charge over the state on cancer, under the auspices of the State Board of Health, stating that he would be in Asheville in the near future. She asked that the Club sponsor an open meeting to which all the women of the town would be invited.

In Fashion Now

What is probably good news to the average woman is that dark blue is going to be just as good this spring as it has been for the past several seasons.

This is really good news for most of us because of the fact that dark blue is almost universally becoming and is so practical as well.

By dark blue, we of course include navy blue, long the favorite of the well-dressed woman. Other shades, perhaps not so widely used but just as becoming will be almost as smart.

With these blues, there is a wide variety of accessories that can be used. Nothing is quite as smart, we think, as white, but there are many who like beige, shades of yellow and also pink.

Stocking manufacturers are keeping the fad for blues in mind, it seems, by bringing out new shades of taupe, tan and greys that are especially suited for wear with blue. What is more interesting, however, is the news that a new, sheer dark blue stocking is going to be available for those who select this smart shade for their early Spring or Easter costume.

She also gave a detailed report of the exercises held at the Cherokee Reservation when the picture of Colonel William H. Thomas was presented.

A letter was read from Mrs. Mar-McFayden Ellwood, of Detroit, Mich., who wished to have her membership transferred to the Robert E. Lee Chapter of Detroit, recently organized and is the first in the state of Michigan. A letter was read from Mrs. Woodward asking that the chapter send 10c per capita for the nurses fund at the Old Ladies Home.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell had the paper of the afternoon, her subject being, "The White House of the Confederacy." Adding much to the program were the two violin solos by Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., who was accompanied by Miss Grace Crocker. During the social hour Mrs. Alley was assisted in serving a salad course by her mother, Mrs. Hall.
