Mrs. D. M. Killian and Miss Nancy Killian were among those who motored to Asheville during the week.

MRS. JONES GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY

On Friday evening Mrs. Sam Jones was given a surprise party by her young daughters, Katherine and Thelma Ann, who in spite of their age proved themselves very gracious and able hostesses. The affair was in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Jones, who did not know of the party arrangements until the guests began to arrive.

The evening's entertainment was featured by games after which the honor guest opened the many interesting packages brought by the guests. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Miss Vera Price and Miss Vera Hosack.

Those present for the occasion were: Mrs. Edna McGee, Miss James R. Smith, Mrs. Ellen McRorie, Mrs. Fuller Robinson, Mrs. Grace Curtis, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. J. M. Palmer, Mrs. Cody Platt, Mrs. George Coble, Mrs. John M. Queen, Mrs. V. C. Nook, Mrs. Theodore McCracken, Mrs. Joseph Limer, Mrs. Buntwell, Mrs. W. L. McCracken, Mrs. Homer Platt, Mrs. M. Hosack, Mrs. W. S. Patterson, and Mrs. H. W. Bacon.

Special guests of the afternoon will be Mrs. R. H. Latham, president of the State Federation, Mrs. Howard Eberidge, second vice president, of Asheville, and Mrs. Charles Guiley, state chairman of music, of Cullowhee.

In Fashion Now

Are you simply "fed to death" of all your winter clothes and get not quite ready to make your selection for spring? So many of us are at just that stage and don't know quite what to do about it.

We would suggest a wind washing trip down the main business thoroughfares with the eyes open especially to those things which would help brighten up our winter wardrobe.

For very little you could pick up a bright printed silk that would work wonders under that dark coat or gown. If you can wear stripes, they come in a variety of attractive, bright-colored stripes of very reasonable prices to be had at most smart shops.

Then, go to your favorite milliners and there select a new hat that will go well with the dress selected and also the accessories you will wear. It is so remarkable what a new hat can do in re-making our ensemble and our feelings.

Finally, we would suggest a visit to your favorite shoe store where you should select something new in the line of footwear. The shoes for this season are very attractive and reasonably priced. With a new dress, new hat and new slippers, your spirits are bound to be renewed and the days before warmer weather sets in for you may be made more enjoyable.

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

Have you ever thought about how many ways you can fix crabmeat? It may start off a tasty breakfast omelet, reappear in many luncheon dishes, emerge in a delightful variety of afternoon tea dances, grace the most formal dinner, and even pop up at supper. Try these recipes, because they spur your imagination to create your own ones of your own.

Crabmeat Omelet: 1 can crabmeat, 4 eggs, 4 tablespoons milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon butter.

Beat eggs slightly, just enough to blend the yolks and whites, and milk, salt and pepper. Beat omelet in frying pan, then add egg mixture. As this cooks, lift the cooked portion with a spatula, letting the uncooked portion rise underneath. Continue until the whole omelet is of creamy consistency. Cover with six pieces of baked crabmeat so that omelet can brown. Fold and serve in hot platter. Sprinkle with parsley finely chopped.

Crabmeat and Curry: 1 can crabmeat, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion, 2 1/2 tablespoons curry powder, 1 cup chicken broth, 3 tablespoons flour, Seasoning. Cook onion in butter for three minutes. Add flour mixed with curry powder, and chicken stock. Bring to boiling point and add crabmeat. Season to taste.

Crabmeat and Corn: 1 can crabmeat, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 onion, chopped, 1 cayenne pepper, 2 green peppers, chopped, 1 egg yolk, 1 can corn. Toast or crackers. Cook onion in butter until soft. Add can of corn, salt, milk and pepper. When mixture is hot, add crabmeat, then beaten egg yolk. Cook until thick. Serve on toast or crackers.

Supper Dish: 2 cans crabmeat, 1 small can mushrooms, 2 cups white sauce, 1/2 lb. grated cheese, Salt and pepper, 1 uncooked pie crust, cracker crumbs and butter.

Make white sauce in double boiler, blend cheese into sauce, stirring in 1/2 amount. Add celery, salt and chopped green pepper. Then, add the 1/2 lb. crabmeat and sliced mushrooms. Season to taste. Cook. Pour this mixture into a deep baking dish which has been lined with the pie crust. Cover top with cracker crumbs and dot with butter in oven 375 degrees until brown. Serve hot.

Crab Cocktail: 1 can crabmeat, 3 tablespoons catsup, 2 tablespoons horseradish, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, salt. Mix catsup, horseradish, lemon juice, Worcestershire sauce and onion with salt to taste. Chill thoroughly. Place crabmeat and add to sauce. Serve in chilled cocktail glasses.

Miss Bertha Tuttle left on Friday for a visit of several days to friends in Lenoir.

CONTRACT PARTY GIVEN AT HILLCREST

A delightful affair given on Friday afternoon was the contract party at Hillcrest of which Mrs. Maria Mitchell and Mrs. Margaret Marshall were joint hostesses. MRS. R. L. PREVOST HOSTESS TO D. A. R. CHAPTER

The Douglas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held the February meeting with Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mrs. J. Harden Howell, the regent, presided.

After the reports of various chairmen letters were read and important announcements made. Mrs. W. F. Swift, chairman of patriotic education, stated that the annual declamation contest held for the high school boys would be at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 22nd of February, and that the contestants were showing the usual interest.

A letter was read from Miss Louise Beville thanking the chapter for the D. A. R. marker placed on the grave of her mother, the late Miss Anna McIntosh Beville, member of the chapter. Mrs. Oliver Shelton, chairman for Crossnore, announced that two bags of clothing had been sent from Waynesville, and Mrs. H. B. Seibert, chairman for Canton, stated that she also had sent two bags from Canton.

Notes of appreciation were read from Mrs. J. W. Reed, Mrs. Jere Davis and Mrs. W. B. Matthews for flowers sent to them during recent illness. Invitations were read from the 7th district inviting the members to attend the state conference to be held in Goldsboro on the 5, 6, and 7 of March and also one from the state regent, Mrs. W. H. Belk, of Charlotte, urging the chapter to send representatives to the meeting. A letter was read from Mrs. O. H. Meyer, state magazine chairman of Hendersonville, asking the members to take advantage of the present subscription offer. Mrs. Dunlap, state genealogist, asked that the members collect dates from old cemeteries.

The regent introduced Miss Anne Peck, of Lake Junaluska, who has been elected by the high school to represent the local chapter in the Ruth Bryan Owen citizenship contest. Mrs. Howell stated that she had been selected by virtue of scholarship, character, honesty and citizenship. She was given the hearty endorsement of the members. Mrs. Howell stated that she had read the constitution of the United States and had met all other requirements.

Mrs. R. P. Walker had the paper of the afternoon, her subject being a history and a resume of the Declaration of Independence. In a most interesting manner Mrs. Walker told of the conception of this great document. Mrs. Thad Howell reviewed the national magazine, giving in full the message of the president general. Special guests of the afternoon were two new members: Mrs. Will Chambers, Mrs. Tweed, and Mrs. Frank Welch, Mrs. Charles E. Ray, Mrs. Grady Boyd, Mrs. D. M. Killian, Mrs. Evans, of West Chester, Penn., Mrs. Ralph Prevost, and Mrs. Jerry Colkitt.
