OPERETTA TO BE GIVEN AT TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL

The Lucky Jade, a musical comedy in two acts by Harrison and Wilson, will be given by the high school Glee Club in the high school auditorium, March 22, at eight P. M. and there will be a special matinee for school children, Thursday afternoon at 2:15. The music of this operetta is bright and sparkling, in many of the numbers one can imagine he is listening to the beautiful, lilting melodies of Romberg, Harbach or even Victor Herbert, and long after the show is over he'll find himself humming the lovely strains of "Southern Moon," "Back Again to Old Virginia," "You're Here and I'm Here," and "Down in Dixie."

There is a very interesting plot which is well connected all the way through, and it is built around the story of an idol from darkest Africa. The ear is in possession of Mammy Liza who is a family servant of the Courtneys, one of the eastern shore where romance, mystery, sparkling comedy and young life abound at the Beeches.

You will love Mammy Liza, whose main reason for living is to take care of her "daddy" Mary Ann, whom she has nursed from babyhood. There will be a number of specialty acts, novelties that everybody will enjoy. The Lucky Jade is really one of the most ambitious musical shows that the high school Glee Club has ever put on, and one that the public will want to see for its own entertainment as well as to help the glee club, for the proceeds will go in its entirety toward financing the trip to Greensboro next month where it will sing in the state high school music festival, in which the best high schools of the state have been taking part for sixteen years. This will be the first time that this high school has sent the glee club.
