

The Human Side O' Life

AS SEEN — AND TOLD

By Uncle Abe—"hizself"

Howdy folks! Well, befor I forget, I want to say that Horace Belle is the 4th to urn a copy of Uncle Abe's Dictionary. Horace says he enjoys "The Human Side"
and sometimes clips a piece of it for his scrap-book. Uncle Abe kon-fesses this is smart of a kompli-ment. H. N. haz a purty fine
copy of yoomer.

Sometimes a man is a yoomerist cause he's bound so, then agin he wuz in one cause he kaint help it.
Now N. O. Garrett seems to think Uncle Abe belongs to the kaint-
help class.

Wayway here's how the Winston-Salem Journal puts it:

Vote for O. S. Rhymer for own Alderman. I promise to ve you my best.

FOR ALDERMAN
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for member of the board of aldermen. Any support
ard me will be appreciated.

DR. W. H. LINER

"Troo yoomer springs from the well of sufferin' an' Ekperience." (Yes sir-ee) "Why not a monumint to thoos klever an' hole-sole fellers who make us laff." (That's me) "Yoomer is a subtle quality an' one who is adept at bringin' it to the fore is not many degreaze removed from an Artist." (Gloary be!)

Mr. Ed., had you notist that our State Legislaher moves 'bout as fast as a catapillar steam shuvel?
That chickadee law was a grate peece of Legislahun. Took em 2 days to git it thru, then one member got up an' told the othurs of the (August) boddy that he'd found out
jis what kind of a burd the chickadee is—a plain ol' tomkit. Sed he didn't no he wuz a votin' to make a darnd tomkit the State burd.
Whirupon they wuz all surprized to find out what they'd done, an' set about to repeel the chickadee (ne tom-kit) law . . . an' that took anuther
day.

Well, Uncle Abe us'to have a little ambishun to go to the Legislaher—
but not now! Why, our Haywood Co. Legislaher wud a done better than that, espeshly on a chickadee law.

Uncle Abe went fishin' on All Fools'
Day—
An' it proved to my "lucker;"
Wuzn't meny fish that fooled with me—
But how I fooled them "lucker!"

Son—"Daddy, what air they tearin'
down all the ol' corner houses in Waynesville fur?"
Dad—"To make more room fur
fillin' stashuns, I 'spose."

It is sed that drunk men an' chil-durn allus tell the truth. That bein' the case, our town orter be full of truth, on Saturdays espeshly. One man who wuz purty full last Sat.
like to a fell into a barril.
He wuz a-tryin' to set on the edge of an empty barril an' if he hadn't a cawt he'd be a gone in shore. Then I hieered 2 more "tite" fellers argyin'
about a rooster, an'—oh ad infunny-
tum.

Legislature Observations

—by—
ORAL L. YATES

Very little of importance has happened in the Legislature for the past week. It seemed that everyone was waiting for the Senate Finance committee to report the revenue bill back to the floor of the Senate.

Only two bills from Haywood county were introduced or became a law: House bill 843, extending the time for the foreclosure of taxes was ratified Friday and became a law, and House bill 947, repealing the absentee ballot law for Haywood county, passed the lower house this week and will be considered by the Senate in the next few days.

Representative Peterson, of Mitchell county, introduced a bill to substitute lethal gas for the electric chair, as a means of ending convicted persons' lives at the State prison. The gas bill passed the second and third readings in the House Wednesday. It appears that the Senate will follow suit and that the electric chair, which has taken 150 lives in 25 years, is now the one that is doomed.

The Senate passed another important bill this week when it voted to increase the highway patrol of the state from 67 to 121 men. It also set up a radio communication system for the officers. This measure is now awaiting action in the House.

Interesting legislative "scraps" are held most every night down at the "Little Capitol"—the Sir Walter Hotel—when Senator Brock Hurley of Montgomery, Senator Rivers Johnson of Duplin and Senator Paul Grady of Johnson get together for a few old-fashioned songs.

It is further ordered that said Registrar proceed to open the books for the registration of voters, as provided by law, and that said Registrar and judges conduct and hold said election on the day hereinafter set forth, as provided by law.

The Wake County Young Democratic Club is preparing to extend a hearty invitation to the Executive committee of the North Carolina Young Democratic Club to hold their 1935 Young Democratic State convention here in Raleigh. The only trouble with the Wake club is that too many of its members want to be State president of the organization, to succeed Doyle Alley.

Frank Miller, member of the State Highway Commission from Haywood county, was in Raleigh the past week, on business.

NOTICE TO MASONS

There will be a special communication of Waynesville lodge No. 259 A. F. & A. M. Friday night, April 12, 1935, at 8 p. m. Entered Apprentice degree.
Please attend.
