State's General Fund Paralysis Cases In Red Over Million

RALEIGH.—Though the state of North Carolina had a cash balance of $16,762,488.11 on June 1, the general fund was in "the red" by $1,794,118.40, it was shown recently in the monthly statement of the auditor and treasurer.

The highway fund had a balance June 1 of $17,515,919.36.

General fund receipts for 11 months of the fiscal year were shown to be $40,126,045.16 but an overdraft last July 1 of $2,601,372.28 plus expenditures of $39,318,791.28 threw it off balance.

The highway and special funds have received $64,252,623.61 this fiscal year which left the big balance after expenditures of $58,916,268.46 and addition of a balance of $12,176,564.21 which existed last July 1.

The state debt June 1 was listed at $170,598,000.

Estimate 340,000 Saw Rhododendron Festival

ASHEVILLE.—More than 340,000 persons were spectators or participated in the 12 major events of the eighth annual Rhododendron festival which came to a close here Friday night with the Mardi Gras events.

This estimate of attendance was decided upon at the Chamber of Commerce today following a conference between parade chairman, Chamber officials, marshals and others who attended every event. The figures also coincide, as far as parades are concerned, to estimates made by motorcycle patrolmen who were on duty all week.

Indicted For Threatening To Bomb White House

WASHINGTON.—Ira Bashin, who was graduated from West Point two years ago, was indicted today by a District of Columbia grand jury for threatening to bomb the White House.

The former army officer, who is now serving time in the District jail for disorderly conduct, has been pronounced insane by alienists. His indictment, the first one here for making threats against the President, presumably was returned to facilitate his commitment to St. Elizabeth's hospital.

Secret service operatives turned the case over to the United States attorney after Bashin wrote the following letter to President Roosevelt last May 30:

"I, West Point grad, June, 1933, will bomb your quarters. I have been seeking job. Am desperate. Will commit desperate deed to secure economic security. "P. S. Notify newspapers."

Household Hints

If you haven't trays for flower pots, cut pieces from inner-tubes, scalloping or painting edges. These protect varnish or cover.

If oranges are put in the oven before peeling, the thick white skin comes off with the outer skin. If lemons are heated before squeezing much more juice may be extracted.

To remove mildew, wet stains with peroxide, pour boiling water over and repeat until stains disappear.

To remove varnish or paint from window panes, rub with steel wool wet in hot vinegar or soap suds.

If chickens that are picked and singed immediately after being killed are washed with a cloth in warm water to which quite a little soda has been added, seldom a pin feather remains. Rinse afterwards in clear or salt water.

To make house plants bloom dissolve three tablespoons Epsom salts in one gallon of water, let stand one day, then water the plants two or three times a week with solution.

Isn't It So? —By— POLK DANIELS

An eye witness will occasionally lie about it as much as the fellow who didn't see it but claims he did.

Lots of folks lie about their kin. If they don't brag on them and flatter them they abuse them and exaggerate their faults.

When a girl loses confidence in a boy, she almost invariably at once hunts up another to place her trust in.

If you have to try hard to be agreeable, you seldom are.

Making love to a woman when you don't mean it is one of the surest ways of making trouble later on. So many girls and women there are who can't tell when a man is joking.

A little man trying to look important is as funny as a big man wearing a little narrow-brimmed hat.

A girl who persistently makes eyes at other girls' sweeties will when she gets older, flirt with other women's husbands.

Notwithstanding the onward march of civilization, one form of torture has come down with us from the dark ages: The one-sided love-affair.

With so many government inspectors snooping about, it is rather easy for imposters to pull their stuff. In Nashville a bandit armed with a fake search warrant gained admission to two homes and robbed them of several hundred dollars.

U. S. Constitution May Receive A New Home

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Amid all the talk about the Constitution and whether it should be changed, Government officials are considering whether to move the original document itself to a new home.

The question is: Should the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence remain in the Library of Congress or be enshrined in the new National Archives Building when it is completed next fall?

Nine new cases were listed by the State Board of Health today to give a total of 134 in exactly five and one-half months and exceed by one case the previous high total for any calendar year since the disease became reportable in 1917. The previous high was 133 in 1929.

With doctors admitting they know little about the disease—poliomyelitis—warning, were reiterated to keep children away from crowds and public places and steps were under way for a vaccine preventive experiment in Guilford county.

Eighty-five per cent of the cases reported through Thursday occurred in children under 10 years of age, health department statistics show, and only five cases reported since May 1 have afflicted persons over 20 years of age.

Whiskey Still An Issue In State

RALEIGH.—A week before scheduled liquor elections in Wilson and Edgecombe counties, whiskey, the cause of more than one political—and probably physical as well—headache during the 1935 General Assembly still remains one of the major subjects for discussion in North Carolina.

Unless stopped by court order, voters of Wilson and Edgecombe counties will go to the polls Saturday, June 22, to decide whether or not county-controlled legal liquor stores shall be set up. The counties are two of the 18 authorized by the last Legislature to hold special liquor elections.

Organized drys have asserted that efforts will be made in each of the 18 counties—New Hanover, Pasquotank, Wilson, Edgecombe, Franklin, Moore, Rockingham, Greene, Pitt, Carteret, Onslow, Craven, Lenoir, Beaufort, Martin, Halifax, Vance, and Warren—to prevent the holding of the special elections and court action—have already been instituted in New Hanover, Greene and Franklin counties.
