

The Human Side O' Life

AS SEEN

AND TOLD

By Uncle Abe—"hizself"

Sum fokes call me preacher—
But that is not my name;
Sum call me judge an' others squat,
I anser jist the same.

But sence I've plum quit preachin',
An' quit my judgin' too, Ye mou; jist call me Unkie Abe—That suits, an' it will do.

Well, Mr. Editor, Unkie Abe is not a-goin' to change Seegyars any more jist to pleeze fokes. . . I changed from two-fers to 3 fer a dime an' they wuz still worse. . . Well, confound it—whoose a-smokin' the Seegyars eny way devoted homemaker and has been active in church and social work.

Georgia Governor To Work Against FDR's Nomination

ATLANTA—Governor Eugene Talmadge said he planned a series of speeches in the north this fall to "prevent the nomination of President Roosevelt."

On his return from Jacksonville where he visited the Georgia national guard now in annual encampment, the governor was asked about reports that he had said there he planned to seek the democratic nomination for President and would open his campaign in Illinois in September.
"I didn't say that," the governor

I think I understand why men go crazy about women. But no one has yet been able to tell me why women go crazy about men.

Not all young girls who mysteriously disappear are foully made away with. Some of them get married to bosky hussies who make them stay at home and behave themselves.

Big thieves, robbers and embaz-zlers apparently seldom appear. The conscience fund grows by small contributions.

When a 15-year-old girl gets a letter out of the post office, she almost invariably stops right there and reads it where every body can see her. When a 15-year-old boy receives a letter he hurriedly slips it in his pocket and sneaks away out of sight to read it.

I can understand why a drowning man would grasp at a bale of hay, but the old adage says he'll grasp a straw. I doubt if he could even see a straw, if he were struggling in the water.

Panama Once Richest City

Panama was once the richest city in America. Next to Colihogena it was the most strongly fortified, the walls in places being 60 feet wide and 30 feet high. When Henry Morgan sacked and burned Panama he carried away 175 mule loads of plunder.

Acquiring the Name Erin

Ireland got the name of Erin from Queen Eir, wife of Connors, a monarch of the dim past. She is buried under the stone known as All Na-Moeran, in a suburb of Dublin called Cisneach.

Fair Warning!

Having heretofore been ordered by the board of County Commissioners to advertise on the first of August, and sell on the first Monday in September all delinquent 1934 taxes, I hereby warn all those who have not paid that this order will be carried out without reservation.

The list will be made up and completed on July 31st, and all who have not paid by that date will be included in the advertising.

Considerable added expense will be added to property owners who are advertised. This unnecessary expense can be saved if you will pay up NOW.

Those owing taxes for years prior to 1934 are hereby notified that suits will be started unless payment is made immediately.

This is a fair and final warning.
