

The Human Side O' Life

AS SEEN AND TOLD

By Uncle Abe—"hizself"

AS A GENERAL ROOL, I've seen a lot of things...

Andrews made a farmer, he's goin' to try the air; Mary's already teachin' skool...

if, but I jist no I coodn't eat the bred that painted nales had made with a good stummick—no sir-ee!

BIG GIRLS—AN' LITTLE CLOZE Well, Mr. Editor, it's a delicate matter I'm a-bout to mens-hun now, but Unkle Abe's modesty has bin shockt so much of late I'm a-goin' to say sump'm about it...

Unkle Abe don't object to the wimmen fokes a-pullin' off thur cloze—if rhy'de put em back on when they git up, an' go out on the streets...

I belevee in everybody a-wearin' cloze; an' if we see fit an' papper to put cloze on the little innercem gurl baby soon as it's born, why duz public taste an' rools of decency allow these big grown up gurl babies to strip em off?

When Unkle Abe wuz a-growin' up ever body wore cloze...

Any way, I think it's a false standard of propriety that makes the men dress up an' let's the gals go bare.

An' here's notis to Shurf Welch, Chief Stringfield an' all... Unkle Abe is a-goin' to try to stand it a leetle longer an' if sumbody don't start a Noodlist Kolony fer the men then me an' Shurf Lowe, Doc Lee, Grady Boyd, Bob Welch, Squar Ball, Lee Tranham, an' Jim Long air goin' to start one of our oan.

If you're goin' to make ol' Adam dress, An' let Miss Eve go bare, 'Twill git so-cyaty in a mess— Anyway, it's not quite fair.

Less all pull off, men, 'neath ever flag, Brown, black, Gentile an' Jew; The young an' old, the tall an' stout, The fair—an' the ugly too.

Then lean ol' men, like Unkle Abe, Will feel quite free, at ease— Less strip off, men, thro away our duds, An' do as we dam—pleeze!

An' to Mrs. J. P. Dotson, Lowry Lee, Fuller Robinson, and Jim Williams (the latter of New Jersey) Unkle Abe will say he's glad you enjoy this kolyum so much, an' the Mountaineer in genaral—so is the Editor. That's all fer this time. Yores truly, UNKLE ABE.

Obituary

RESOLUTION of Respect to the Memory of the Late Richard Ennis Sentelle, by the Haywood Bar Association.

WHEREAS, death again has knocked at the door of our Association and from our number summoned one of our members to appear and answer before the Divine Tribunal, not made of hand, eternal in the Heavens. We may be sure that the Recording Angel had the name of Richard Ennis Sentelle, Jr., written down as one who served and loved his fellow man.

Mr. Sentelle was born and raised among the hills of Haywood County, a son of the Honorable R. E. Sentelle, and a grandson of Prof. R. A. Sentelle. Mr. Sentelle was well educated, a graduate of Wake Forest College, was well read in law. He was thoughtful and considerate of others; but above all, he was a man of inflexible character, honest, true and loyal.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: The Haywood Bar Association, of which Richard Ennis Sentelle, Jr., was a member, appreciates his memory, cherishes his fellowship, and deprecates his passing. He was an honor to it. His death leaves it the poorer by his absence but richer in ethical conceptions because of the high standards he maintained and advocated while a member of it.

That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Records of the Superior Court of Haywood County, that a copy be sent to his family, and that a copy be published in the local paper. Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Haywood County Bar Association.

T. L. GREEN, WILLIAM T. HANNAH, GROVER C. DAVIS, Committee.

A good throat gargle can be made from one teaspoon each of salt, soda, and sugar in a pint of water. Thinly sliced tomatoes make a big improvement to the ordinary peanut butter sandwiches.
