NEAL-TROTTER WEDDING TAKES PLACE ON SATURDAY EVENING

Marked by exceptional beauty was the marriage of Miss Martha Neal to Mr. James Fischer Trotter, of Reidsville, which took place Saturday evening at eight o'clock, on October the 19th, in the First Presbyterian church, with Dr. Robert P. Walker, pastor, pronouncing the marriage vows.

For the occasion the altar of the church was banked with tall hemlocks, in front of which were arranged floor candelabra with numerous lighted tapers, and on either side were silver floor vases holding large white chrysanthemums, with ferns interspersed at intervals among the arrangement.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Grace Crocker, organist, rendered "Antique d'Amour," from the Bridal Suite by Pruette, followed by "Ich Liebe Dich," by Grieg. Miss Crocker wore black satin and her flowers were pink roses. Miss Ellen Louise Killian in wine velvet with corsage of yellow roses, sang, "At Dawning," by Goldman. She was followed by Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., violinist, in green satin with corsage of yellow roses, who played "Liebestrom," by Liszt and "Ave Maria," by Schubert. During the ceremony Mrs. Barber and Miss Crocker softly rendered "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond. A closing prayer to the ceremony, Miss Killian sang "Oh Perfect Love," by Barnby. The march from Lohengrin was used as the professional and that of Mendelssohn as the recessional.

Serving as ushers were Mr. Sam H. Bushnell, Jr., of Waynesville, Mr. Guy Carr, of Johnson City, Tenn., Mr. William Young and Mr. Claude Burton, both of Reidsville. They were followed by the groomsmen and maids alternating. Leading were Mr. Ashby Pumphill and Mr. Charles Neal, of Winston-Salem. Next came Miss Jewel Hips and Miss Jane Williams, of Wilmington, in velvet gowns of rich mandarin orange, with rhinestone trimmings, fashioned with draped effect in back that ended in train, and carrying bronze chrysanthemums with autumn leaves tied with matching and gold ribbons. They, as well as the other maids, wore gold sandals and on their hair bandeaux of gold cloth trimmed in tiny gold flowers and foliage, gifts of the bride.

Mr. John Davis and Mr. C. G. Hill, of Winston-Salem, were followed by Miss Adele King, of Leaksville, and Miss Anna Scott, of Winston-Salem, wearing gowns of honeysuckle velvet, fashioned as those of the other maids carrying yellow chrysanthemums, tied with gold and yellow ribbons. Next came Mr. Caldwell Roan and Mr. Ben Trotter, also of Winston-Salem.

Miss Adelaide Trotter, also of Winston-Salem, second maid of honor, wore jade blue velvet, modeled in draped effect with crushed girdle and rhinestone trimmings. Miss Mary Adams Ward, of Asheville, first maid of honor, wore a handsome gown of marigold velvet, in princess model, with high standing collar of the same material. Her flowers were bronze chrysanthemum, and autumn leaves tied with matching and gold ribbons. The small ring bearer, Master Wilson Trotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Trotter, of Reidsville, carried the ring on a satin pillow.

The bride was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, his father, Mr. Henry Lee Trotter, of Winston-Salem, and was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. James B. Neal. Her gown was of heavy lustrous ivory satin, fashioned with cowl neck line, finger tip tunic and a long graceful train. The sleeves were long and trimmed in tiny satin covered buttons. Her veil was of imported lace over tulle. A soft fold of the tulle finished the front of the cap, while the back and sides were arranged with orange blossoms. Her flowers were white roses and lilies of the valley, tied with lace ribbon.

Mrs. Trotter is the daughter of Mrs. S. T. Neal and the late Stephen Turner Neal. She attended the Waynesville High School and in June was graduated from Salem College. She is a popular member of the younger set and has been accorded many courtesies since the announcement of her engagement. For her going away the bride donned a smart green sport dress of duvetyne, with brown accessories, and a kid skin coat.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Trotter, of Winston-Salem. He is a graduate of the Augusta Military Academy. He holds a position with the American Tobacco Company and is located in Reidsville, where the young couple will reside, following their honeymoon.

Immediately after the ceremony at the church the bride's mother entertained the bridal party, out of town guests, members of the family and intimate friends with an informal reception at the home of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Ward, Miss Mary Stringfield, and Mrs. Francis Massie, received the guests in the hall. At the entrance to the living room, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan received. Here the bridal party with Mrs. S. T. Neal, wearing white lace with corsage of orchids, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Trotter, the latter wearing a gown of purple velvet, also with corsage of orchids, received.

In the gift room Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, Mrs. Syda Ray, and Mrs. R. Lowry Lee, greeted the guests, while Miss Hester Ann Withers and Miss Tillie Rotha had charge of the bride's book. In the dining room serving were Miss Elizabeth Ray, Miss Alice Stringfield, Miss Louise Stringfield, Miss Lousie Thackston, and Miss Rosalyn Ray.
