YOUNG HOSTESS GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY TUESDAY

On Tuesday afternoon little Miss Carmichael Hannah entertained a group of her friends with a party in observance of her birthday anniversary. She was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. William Hannah. The house and all party details were carried out by the bride's parents.

After many games and various contests the guests were invited into the dining room for ices and cakes. The table was centered with a birthday cake, and at either end were lighted Jack O'Lanterns. Each place was marked by an attractive favor.

The guest list was composed of the following: Marguerite Way, Patsy Gwyn, May Ann Maize, Betsy Harlin, Martha May and Jane Wyche, Nancy Keener, Nancy Jones, Dorothy Carver, Charles Burr Way, Don Hyatt, Paul Harlin, III, Ellis Keener, Joe Howell, Billy Hannah, Edmund Hannah, and Walter Talbott, of Raleigh. Among the grown up friends of the young hostess present were Mrs. H.W. Baucum, Mrs. N.F. Lancaster, Mrs. Jack Way, Miss Daisy Boyd, and Miss Bernice McElhannon.

Miss Frances Robeson, Mr. E. J. Robeson, Mrs. Haseltine Swift, and Miss Emily Siler attended the football game in Asheville on Friday between Greensboro and Asheville. Young Garland Robeson, of Greensboro, who is a member of the team of that place, is the grandson of Mr. Robeson.

WEDDING OF INTEREST TAKES PLACE IN CANTON

CANTON.—A marriage of wide interest here was that Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock of Miss Sarah Louise Hill, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wade C. Hill, of Canton, to Mr. David Francis Felmet, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David B. Felmet, of Waynesville. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents.

White chrysanthemums were used for decorating the entire lower floor of the home. Ferns banked around the fireplace formed an altar and were interspersed with tall candelabra holding white candles.

Preceding the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. A.V. Joyner, Mrs. Weaver Sorrell played "Traumerei" and Mr. Paul Craig, of Asheville, sang "Beloved, It Is Morn," and "I Love You Truly." The vows were spoken to the soft strains of Liszt's "Liebestraum."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Jack Felmet, as best man. The bride was lovely in the gown worn by her aunt, Mrs. Ralph W. Howell, of Asheville, at her wedding. It was of ivory satin made with court train and tight fitting sleeves, and trimmed with rose point lace. The tulle veil was held close to the head with a spray of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and swansons.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held. Miss Ruth Fagan, Mrs. L. H. Hartshorn, Mrs. Agnes Pless, and Mrs. Ralph W. Howell, of Asheville, assisted in the reception. Mrs. Hill, mother of the bride, was given a shoulder bouquet of Columbia roses.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Felmet left for a wedding trip to the North. The bride was graduated from Meredith college in Raleigh. Since completing her education she has been ladies' secretary of the Champion Y. M. C. A. in Canton.

MRS. PREVOST AND MRS. HYATT GIVE CONTRACT PARTY

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. R. L. Prevost and Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt were joint hostesses of an enjoyable affair, given at the home of the former. For the occasion the house was arranged in quantities of yellow and white chrysanthemums, and the Halloween motif was accentuated in all the party accessories.

When the cards were put away, winners of both the low and high score were awarded prizes, and the draw was made for the consolation.

Those enjoying the gracious hospitality were: Mrs. J. F. Abel, Mrs. Rita L. Allen, Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Grady Boyd, Mrs. Maria Boyd, Mrs. J. W. Sawyer, Mrs. John N. Scarborough, Mrs. C. N. Sisk, Mrs. George Kuntz, Mrs. James M. Long, Mrs. Jack Way, Mrs. N. M. Medford, Mrs. Ethel Craig, Mrs. J. Harbin Howell, Mrs. James Killian, Miss Nancy Killian, Mrs. W. F. WEDDING OF LOCAL INTEREST TAKES PLACE AT HIGH POINT

The following account of the marriage of Miss Hayes and Mr. Bulla from the Enterprise of High Point, N. C., will be of interest to friends here:

"Beautiful in its simplicity was the marriage of Miss May Hayes to Darrell Bulla which was solemnized Saturday, October 1, at nine-thirty o'clock in the morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Clay Madison, pastor of the First Methodist Protestant church at the home of the bride's parents on Johnson street in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends.

The home was artistically decorated with gladioli, fern, ivy and tulle. Vows were spoken beneath an archway banked with ivy and marked at either side by a large basket of gladioli.

Preceding the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Dan Smith, who played "Romance," by Rubenstein and Clarence Schultze who sang "Because," by d'Hardelot. The couple entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus and during the ceremony Mr. Smith played softly "Ave Maria," by Schubert. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as a recessional.

The bride wore a lovely ensemble of best root wool trimmed in mink with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and lilies of the valley and her only ornament was a bracelet, the wedding ornament of her grandmother 51 years ago and her mother, 26 years ago.

Mrs. Bulla is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Hayes, who have been residents of this city for several years, after moving here from Waynesville. She received her education at the local high school and at High Point College, studying voice in addition. She is a member of the Wesley Memorial choir.

Mr. Bulla is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bulla of this city. He was educated at High Point College and is now connected in business with Ray Manufacturing Company.

The couple left after the ceremony for a short motor trip after which they will be at home in the city.
