

Summary Of Farm Program Is Given

To date, 39 farms have been approved for community demonstration farms and probably eight or ten more applications are out that have not been completed. Those who have not submitted applications that have not been approved should get in touch with their committee as soon as possible in order to get all phosphate furnished by the TVA out on grass by March. All applications are required to be passed on by the community or township committee before further approval can be made through the county agent's office.

On the 39 demonstration farms, 176 1/2 tons of phosphate and 220 tons of lime have been distributed.

We have one-half car of lime still in hand that can be purchased for $2.50 per ton by any farmer who wishes to do so. If several farmers will go in together and get a car of lime it can be purchased for only $2.29 per ton. If you are interested in getting this lime, get in touch with the county agent's office.

R. H. CROUSE,
Assistant County Agent.

SLIPPED HIS MIND

"I married somebody in your town five years ago. Now I want to get a divorce and I can't recall her name. All I know about it is that the marriage license number is 53,322."

Hospital News

Mrs. Robert Snyder remains about the same at the Haywood County Hospital. She was seriously injured by gun wounds several weeks ago.

Bill Bryson, of Balsam, who lost an arm on the railroad, is improving.

John Caldwell, of Maggie, is improving after undergoing an operation.

Mrs. Topsy Brown, is improving after an operation.

Miss Heanette Harkins, Canton, has improved after undergoing treatment at the hospital.

Miss Pearl Leatherwood, of Waynesville, had an operation recently and is improving.

Miss Lou Walker, of Waynesville, is better.

Miss Lucama McClure, of Waynesville, is improving.

Charlie Edwards, Waynesville, is much better. He underwent treatment.

Miss Moody Parker, Canton, underwent an operation for a ruptured appendix, and is much improved.

W. M. Brendle, of Candler, recently had an operation, and is much better.

Enmett Burgess, of Cruso, has gone home after receiving treatment for head injuries recently received.

Howard Stevenson, of Waynesville, is in a serious condition with a leg injury.

Charlie Carver and Herman Fowler were admitted this week for treatment for cuts and bruises they sustained when their truck over turned on the SoCo Gap Road. Fowler suffered a broken nose and bruises. Carver was also painfully injured.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Greenatch, of Waynesville, a daughter.

Tuesday afternoon there were 45 patients at the Haywood County Hospital.

During the past few weeks the following nurses have been added to the staff at the hospital: Miss Eula Coleman, Miss Ruby Bowles, and Miss Mildred Kirk. They take the places of the following, who recently resigned because of their health: Mrs. Gilbert Reeves, Mrs. Ted Cole and Mrs. Ida Miller.

Received last week by the County Clerk of Oakland, Calif., from Russell E. Giard, 28 year old Los Angeles broker. The clerk obliged by informing Giard that he had married Pauline Fountaine, of San Francisco.

TO MEMBERS OF THE DOLE
They say the dole has ended, fokes—
"Doc Turpin's about sold out;
An' if we find this is a fact
You'll haff to "do about."

Two years you've bin upon the dole—
You've hardly workt at all.
An' like the caff, weened from the tit,
I guess you're shore to bawl.

Since most of you air weakly like,
At first I'de take it easy—
We no, of korce, you want to work,
So fokes won't think you lazy.

You mou't begin by countin' holes
Out in the cow barn shed;
Or, better still by dustin' socks
When all have gone to bed.

Then you cood plant sum Xmas cotn,
Put sick kittens "on the spot,"
Or run down a mother snae an' pups
An' deehorn the whole darn lot.

When this is done, go dig red worms—
If it won't hurt ye to stoop;
Put on the pot, then skin the worms
An' make sum red worm soap.

Go jine the kindergarten class
An' help jay hide an' peep,
Dig butter flies from 8:00 till 4:00
Then sing the hens to sleep.

"Don't like this work?" well then see me;
I'll need ten men rite soon.
To dry a swamp out near my house—
You're to ditch it with a spoon.

Now, you who've lived on hand-me-
outs,
This work will help you sobe;
Don't laff an' call this foolish stuff—
Or I mou't call ye Dole.

MODERN KOLD METHOD

A boy came to Waynesville, lookt into a Bewty parlor an' saw a woman havin' her hair dride. At the supper table that nite he ast: "Pa, what kind of a place is that at Waynesville on Main St? I saw a woman a-suttin' back in that, an' she had a thing that lookt like a German helmet over her head, an' it lookt like the best wuz a-comin' out of it. Wuz she a-bakin' her head, or sump'n?"

"No, I think that's whir they kyore colds," replide the father.

NUFF TO MAKE HIM SCRATCH

A certain Waynesville lad wuz sent to the drug store for paragonic. On the way he forgot the name, but went on anyway, thinkin' I suppose that he woud remember it. But he didn't. "It's 'orie' sump'n," the boy tride to explain.

"Bout what's the price?" ast the drugrist.

"Ten or fifteen cents, if ye don't want nutch," the boy replide, . . . an' it's got 'orie' in it."

When the boy returned home to find out the name, he wuz ast what the drug store man sed an' did.

"Nuthin' nutch, he jist sed there an' scratched his head," sed the boy.

A CLOCE CALL

When Bill Harris, brawt in the delayed P. W. A. checks for the "swin" room here, the mistake he made wuz in comin' in at the front door; he arter a come in at the rear door an' with an armed guard, at that. As it wuz, them wimmen strip Bill of his coat an' one punt bag before he could get in an' bar the door.

There's a certain bizness man here in town, Mr. Edlin, who kaint man-

Manless Wedding Given By Lake PTA

The manless wedding, given by the ladies of the Jananiska Parent-Teachers' Association, in the school auditorium on November 27th, was well attended and enjoyed by all. "The Silly Sisters," played by Mrs. Ed Glavich, the president, brought gales of laughter. This is the first of a series of entertainments planned with the purpose of giving the patrons more interest and providing more social activities.

The next meeting will be held on December 13th with a well planned program. All members are urged to be present.

SCHOOLMASTERS CLUB TO MEET IN BETHEL

The Haywood County Schoolmasters' Club will meet at the Bethel High school on Monday evening, December 16th. Supper will be served at 7:30. President C. E. Weatherly will preside. Mr. Jack Messer, county superintendent of education, will have charge of the program.

CHEVROLET

Mr. Chevrolet Owner,

Unless your car is properly serviced you aren't getting the Performance that was intended by the Chevrolet Motor Company.

Naturally we are in a better position to service that car than someone else who is not vitally interested.

With special tools and factory trained Chevrolet mechanics we are prepared to render you that service at reasonable cost.
