YOUNG WOMAN'S CIRCLE ENJOYS CHRISTMAS TREE

The Young Woman's Circle of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Methodist church enjoyed a Christmas program and a Christmas tree at their regular December meeting which was held on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. Dewey Stovall and Mrs. J. Wilford Ray, hostesses, at the home of the former.

For the occasion the living and sun rooms were decorated in quantities of poinsettias, holly and greenery. A large glittering tree adorned one corner of the room.

Miss Martha Mock had charge of the program which consisted of the following numbers: The Christmas story according to the Scriptures, read by Miss Mock, a vocal solo by Miss Eva Leatherwood, a group of carols by the Stentz quartet, accompanied by Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, a vocal solo by little Mary Ann Massie, and a Christmas reading by Miss Margaret Ashton.

Following the program gifts with very clever verses, characteristic of the guests were presented each one from the tree, which brought forth much merriment when read.

At the close of the program the hostesses served a salad course, which also carried out the Christmas motif. Those enjoying the delightful evening were: Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Mrs. White Mease, Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Mrs. Bobbie Jean True-Jale, Mrs. R. S. True-Jale, Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. W. A.
