President Puts New Farm Cost At Half Billion

Will Take That Yearly, He Esti mates, Likely To Be Presented Daily Now

WASHINGTON .- President Roose selt estimated officially for the first me this week that the new farm program would cost about $500,000,000

He said the tax bill necessary to over this sum was not yet completed out from other sources it was learned that the bill will probably be sub-lited this week. Representative Robert L. Doughton (D) of North Carolina, chairman of House Ways and Means, and Representative Wi um B. Bankhead of Alabama, Demperatic floor leader, after a confer. ence with the President, confirmed program.

Meantime, another financial probom has arisen to plague the Admin stration, although it had been anallocated to the Works Progress Ad ministration to take care of needy mployed up to July 1, 1936, who the next year's appropriation will be stallable. To meet the need, it is proposed to transfer from many othe government departments previous al ment, the President said, would have to contribute to this hat passing for he benefit of WPA.

DOROTHY LUCILE FRANCIS

On the morning of January 28, God, in his infinite wisdom, saw fit to transplant to His heavenly garden a beautiful flower by removing from our midst the soul of Dorothy Lucile

Dorothy had brought happiness and anshine to her home and community for almost eleven years. She was loved by all who knew her and was the idol of her playmates. She was loyal to her Sunday school which she attended regularly. By her pleasing mile she brought joy to all with whom do came in contact.

Though she will be most keenly missed by her parents and brothers, the will be missed by all who knew her. Her place can never be filled in the the hearts of those who loved her

"A bud has been plucked from our garden. And planted on yonder shore;

And bloom forever more. "As pure as the snows of winter, As fresh as the lillies of May, sweet as the roses of summer, As bright as an autumn day. We weep because of her going,

And our hearts are filled with pain; But in spite of all our sorrow, It is Dorothy's eternal gain. -Contributed by a friend.

DOYLE ALLEY

WHEREAS divine providence has beloved brother, Doyle D. Alley, from his life into life eternal and in his passing we have lost a distinguished and able lawyer and the state a usewath is shrouded in mystery. We soon of his professional career and at beginning of his greatest usefuless to his family and his state, that he should be so suddenly changed. the the language of one of America's greatest lawyers:

"He had not passed on life's highway the stone that marks the highest point, but being weary for a moment he lay down by the wayside and, using his burden for a pillow, fell into that ireamless sleep that kisses down his exclids still."

'Yet after all it may be best, just the happiest, sunniest hour of all e voyage while eager winds are sissing each sail, to dash against the useen rock and in an instant hear he billows roar above the sunken

Therefore, all we can do is to pause and shed a tear in loving tribute to is memory and abide in the faith that God does all things well; take a firmer hold upon those things he held moble and aspire to the lofty ideals of the profession he practiced and eved; and express to his family our sympathy and extend a helping hand. BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Haywood County Bar Asociation request this Honorable Court to recess in memory of our deceased brother; and that the Bar Associaion meet to the end that the members hereof may express their sym-Dathy and pay tribute to its former member. Be it further resolved, that copy hereof be presented to the into the minutes and that a copy be transmitted to the Secretary of the absociation to the family and a copy HAYWOOD COUNTY BAR ASSO-

The victim, A. H. Griffin, 50, of Knoxville, was killed by a huge circle projecting from a cliff, when he stuck his head out of the cab window to look for a semaphore signal.

The tragedy occurred about three quarters of a mile this side of the Buncombe-Madison county line, and Mr. Griffin's cap, found beside the track a few feet away from the jaggestump of the broken jeicle gave mute evidence of how he was killed. He made no sound when the huge arm of ice crushed his skull, and Engineer W. J. Ford of Knoxville, dinot see the fatal accident. He was looking out his own window on the other side of the cab.

The train rolled a few hundred yardfarther and Mr. Ford shouted at the fireman: "Lank for the signal!"

There was no answer and Mr. Ford turned to discover the fireman had lumped over, his skull cave in! They found the cap and the shattered fragments of the great wiele back where the tragedy had occurred. The train went on to Marshall where
