

SOCIETY :- CLUBS :- PERSONALS

PHONE 137

MRS. T. L. GWYN, Editor

PHONE 137

WEDDING OF COUPLE AT BETH-EL OF INTEREST IN COUNTY

The marriage of Miss Jincy Owen to Mr. Ernest Messer was recently announced. The ceremony was performed on Saturday, January 11, by the Rev. V. A. Holcombe, pastor of the First Baptist church at Statesville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Owen, of Canton. She attended Mars Hill College and graduated from the North Carolina College for Women in 1934. She was at W. C. T. C. during 1934-35, and is at present teaching in the Bethel school.

Mr. Messer, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Messer, of this county, is coaching and teaching in Bethel High school. He was graduated from Carson Newman College, Jefferson City, Tennessee, in 1935.

The couple will make their home at Bethel for the next few months.

ATTENDED WEDDING IN ASHEVILLE AT NOON SUNDAY

Among those from Waynesville attending the marriage on Sunday at noon at the Haywood Street Methodist church in Asheville, of Miss Edna Mae Lively to Mr. Frank Rhinehart, were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shelton, the former the uncle of the groom, Mrs. Charles E. Ray, an aunt, and Mr. Charles E. Ray, Jr.

Mr. Rhinehart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Rhinehart, of Asheville, who formerly resided in Waynesville. Mrs. Rhinehart was before her marriage Miss Daisy Shelton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Shelton. A wide circle of friends and relatives in Haywood county will be interested in the announcement of the marriage.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, who have been the guests of various friends during the past two weeks, while their house has been repaired, following the damage done by fire, returned this week to their home.

HAYWOOD CHAPTER MET WITH MRS. F. E. ALLEY, JR., FRIDAY

On Friday afternoon Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., was at home to the members of the Haywood Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, on the occasion of the regular February meeting, the vice president, Mrs. Noble Garrett, president, presided.

During the business session notes of appreciation were read from the Old Soldiers' Home in Raleigh, and the home for Confederate women at Fayetteville, thanking the chapter for the checks sent at Christmas.

Plans were made to send quilt scraps to the home at Fayetteville. As a committee to draw resolutions on the death of the late Mrs. Hassie Brown Killian, beloved and honorary member of the chapter, Mrs. Will Hyatt, Miss Margaret Stringfield and Mrs. John M. Queen were appointed.

Mrs. Noble Garrett had the paper of the afternoon, "The Work of Our State Organization." She reviewed the accomplishments of the chapters of the state, and outlined in detail the financial obligations and other goals set for the Haywood Chapter for the coming year.

During the social hour Mrs. Alley was assisted by Miss Robena Miller in serving.

MRS. R. L. PREVOST ENTERTAINS CONTRACT CLUB THIS WEEK

On Monday afternoon Mrs. R. L. Prevost entertained the members of the Monday Afternoon Contract Club at her home on the Balsam Road. Several spirited progressions were enjoyed.

Members present were: Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. James M. Long, Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., and Mrs. C. C. White. Special guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Hugh Massie, and Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, with Mrs. W. B. Evans, guest of her daughter, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, joining the group for tea.

Popular Visitor Weds

Miss Sallie Williams whose marriage to Mr. Herbert Steddy took place in Savannah, Ga., on Saturday, February the 1st.

COMMUNITY CLUB HAS FEBRUARY MEETING

The February meeting of the Community Club was held on Wednesday afternoon in the club rooms on Main street, with a large number of members present. Mrs. M. G. Stamey, president, presided.

The club was fortunate in having as the guest speaker, Dr. W. R. Wunsch, of the Black Mountain College, who addressed the group on "Education," with his remarks centering around the problems of education of today, as applied to the teaching of the art of living. He spoke of how a person spent leisure time as the greatest test of character.

He told of the establishment of the Black Mountain College, which is more or less a pioneer in new methods of teaching. He stressed the point of the ideals of living in a community and the personal responsibility taught each pupil, regarding the group. Reality is the student and not the course of study was brought out, and the fact that many non-essentials in life often direct the essentials. Teaching must not be confined to the classroom, but applied to living to vitalize its meaning, was his theory. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. M. G. Stamey.

Mrs. Ben Colkitt, chairman of finance, announced that a benefit party would be given at the Waynesville Country Club, on the evening of February the 13th, and urged that all members make up a table.

The president stated that several donations had been made to the fund being raised by the clubs of the county to defray the expense of operating for two underprivileged children.

Members were asked to write the senators regarding the application of WPA funds toward financing the nursery schools. Mrs. Ernest H. Hyatt donated a new grate to the club rooms.

Several communications were read from various state officials of the federation, which were followed by discussions.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses, Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt, Mrs. Harry Rotha, and Mrs. L. N. Dyer, served coffee, sandwiches, and cake.

Mr. Joe Sloan, Mr. Billie Priddy and Mr. James Rose spent Sunday in Greenville, S. C., where they were the guests of friends.

Mr. Ben Colkitt is spending several days in High Point this week or next.

Mrs. W. H. Luther returned on Sunday from Savannah, Ga., where she was called on account of the death of a cousin.

Miss Margaret Burgin had as her guest over the week-end Miss Lena Allison, of Brevard.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Russ had as their guests on Thursday Mrs. Foster Bennett, Miss Myrtle Bennett, and Mrs. Roy Tillotson and two children.

Gloriously New

Distinctly 1936

Smartly Becoming

Fetchingly Sweet

Sophisticated but

Subdued

Marvelous Values at Moderate Prices

THUS . . .

You have described the new spring clothes being received daily by our Ready-To-Wear Department. Make your selections now. Let us lay them away while you pay as convenient.

Nelly Don

Nelly Don rides high again this spring. As always, the very best in cottons. Smart Nelda Crepes. Gorgeous colors. Expert detailing. Attractive prices.

Suits and Coats

Suits are modish. Sport patterns and sport coats are in demand. Fresh from New York's smartest tailors, we have the very latest. Let us show you some finger-tip sport coats at $5.95. Just Received.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT—

You can buy at home—the very smartest in Ready-To-Wear. Fifth Avenue merchandise is found at—

C. E. RAY'S SONS

BACK FROM MARKET

Through all the ice and snow we have brought thousands of dollars worth of new spring merchandise for your approval. We will be delighted to have you come in and see all these new goods.

New Jigger Coats in Beautiful Plaids at 5.95

Gad About Coats With Finger Tip Coats at 9.95

The loveliest Print Silk Dresses with navy and pastel back ground. At Prices You Can Afford To Pay.

$3.95 $4.95

$5.95 $7.95

New Eighty Square Prints, Desert Cloth and Wash Silks

We are really very springy here and if you will come in, we believe you will agree That Spring Has Come To This Store

Massie's Dept. Store

"A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE"

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY HOLDS MEETING MONDAY

On Monday afternoon the American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of the president, Mrs. E. B. Camp, with Mrs. Marion Hyatt and her mother, Mrs. C. A. Barr, as associate hostesses.

After the usual opening ceremony, various matters were taken up. Mrs. George Platt, hospital chairman, reported that she had sent postal cards to each of the patients assigned to the auxiliary at Oteen, and she read a note of thanks from the Ward Daddy.

A motion was made to send each of the men a valentine with the customary package of cigarettes for February. Various communications from state officials were read.

During the social hour the hostesses served a salad course with the valentine motif. The president announced that Mrs. Ida V. Brown and Miss Ida Jean Brown would be the hostesses for the next meeting.

THE N. Y. L. CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING

On Friday evening Miss Avie Noland was the hostess of the regular fortnightly meeting of the N. Y. L. Club, at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. H. Camp. Sewing and knitting were enjoyed during the evening.

Those present for the evening were: Miss Wilda Fincher, Miss Margaret Burgin, Miss Mildred McCracken, Miss Frances Burgin, Miss Josephine Platt, Miss Lillian Burgin, Miss Martha McCracken, and Miss Lucy Jones. Miss Noland was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Camp, in serving.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD FEBRUARY MEETING

The February meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Thursday afternoon, February the 20th, at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John N. Shoolbred, with Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., as associate hostess. Mrs. S. P. Gay, president, will preside. Special guests of the afternoon will be Mrs. H. T. Hunter and Mrs. Charles Gulley, of Cullowhee, and Mrs. Grover C. Wilkes, of Sylva.

A short memorial service will be held in honor of the late Mrs. D. M. Killian, honorary president of the organization.

A musical program will be presented by Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr. Mrs. William Hannah will review "We Are On Our Way," by President Roosevelt.

BENEFIT PARTY TO BE GIVEN AT WAYNESVILLE COUNTRY CLUB

Tonight the Community Club will give a benefit party at the Waynesville Country Club. Attractive prizes will be offered. Those wishing to make reservations are asked to call Mrs. James M. Long at the club.

Miss Victoria Bell, field supervisor of the western district for the state welfare department, was the guest the first of the week of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bell.

Miss Anne Albright, dean of women of the Western Carolina Teachers College, spent Tuesday in town as the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. M. Beatty.

announcing---

AN EXCLUSIVE SHOP FOR LADIES

featuring

EXCLUSIVE STYLES AND MATERIALS

—IN—

Dress—

Coats—

Suits—

Hats—

All Moderately Priced—Shipments Arriving Daily

WATCH THIS PAPER FOR FORMAL OPENING SOON

The

Fashion Shoppe

In The Lobby Of The Personality Beauty Shop

Mrs. Jack Messer, owner

Josephine Davis, manager