141 Farm Families Have Gotten $7,953 In Gov. Farm Loans

The program of the Rural Resettlement Division of the Resettlement Administration is getting well under way in Haywood County.

Of the applications already submitted, 141 farm families have been approved as either standard or emergency cases. A standard case is one which has completed and approved an acceptable farm and home management plan. An emergency case is one temporarily on lists pending completion and approval of farm plans. Just as rapidly as possible emergency cases are made into standard cases.

Requests already made for advances for these families in Haywood County amount to $7,953.70. These funds are not advanced all at one time, but in the most practical manner for the family.

So far the average farm loan in this County has been $138.47, ranging from $45.00 to $433.00. At this date farm and home management plans have been submitted and standard cases for only 15 per cent of the applicants, but a good number is now being completed each week.

One of the most popular requests for loans is for the purchase of work-stock. These loans are usually made for a period of more than one year, while loans for the purchase of seed and fertilizer are to be repaid within a one year period.

As farm families become better acquainted with the program a greatly increased amount of interest is being shown, as evidenced by the rate applications are being made.

8th Annual Father And Son Banquet Held Last Saturday

G. W. Smith, Reporter.

The boys of the Waynesville Vocational Agriculture Department met February 8th with their Dads and celebrated the eighth Father and Son banquet. In spite of the cold weather and snow there was a large crowd; although we were sorry that all the Dads could not be with us. We appreciated the attendance of the visitors, and hope our ninth banquet will bring more next year. The banquet was held in the dining room of the Methodist church, and we want to thank the people of the church for giving us the privilege of using this hall.

The boys were complimented very much on their opening and closing ceremony. Some people who had attended the banquets in the past said this was one of the best we have had.

Mr. J. A. Glazener, County Agent of Transylvania county, was the speaker; although there were many other talks made, Mr. Glazener made a splendid talk, and was complimented by everyone. His subject was on the Conservation of Soil, a topic of which we have been studying and hearing discussed very much in the recent weeks.

Miss Louise Edwards and Mrs. J. C. Patrick and the girls of the Home Economics Department, deserve much credit for preparing and serving the food. We also appreciate Mr. Brown, our teacher, for directing and helping us put on the banquet. He came to us after school started, but we like him and he is making a success of the work.

The following boys were raised to the degree of Future Farmers by reason of their outstanding work as agriculture students: Leonard Leatherwood, Cecil Arrington, J. C. Noland, Sidney Swanger, John Chambers, Davis Galloway, Joe Calhoun, and Wilson Howell.

The honorary degree was conferred upon the following men because of their leadership in the community: Mr. R. T. Messer, Mr. M. H. Bowles, Mr. Jack Messer, Senator Roy Francis, County Agent W. D. Smith, Mr. Henry Francis, Coach C. E. Weathery, Senator Vance Browning, Mr. Glenn A. Boyd, Mr. James Henderson.

Local Train Had A Slight Mishap Sun.

Passengers on the morning train which arrives here about 10:30 from Asheville, were shaken up Sunday morning, when the train ran into the rear of a freight, which had stopped to get up more steam.

The locomotive of the passenger train crashed into the caboose, derailing it and two other cars. The locomotive was damaged to the extent of having to be taken from service.

The heater in the caboose overturned and set the car on fire. It was completely destroyed.

Railway officials said the flagman of the freight failed to warn the oncoming passenger train of the stalled freight.

Locals Down Both Hendersonville Basketball Teams

Waynesville's basketball teams went rampant here Tuesday night, to hand out one of the worst defeats of the year, when the local girls let the Hendersonville girls down with a score of 51 to 5. The visiting girls failed in every department of the game to show familiarity with the ball. Welch scored 24 points and Burress 14 for the Mountaineers.

In the second game, the local boys found the Hendersonville team fast and on their toes, having been beaten by the Hendersonville boys once this season, the Mountaineers kept one point ahead for the first half, then came back to gain a 11-point lead, ending the game 21 to 10.

Riley Messer Hangs Self In Raleigh

Inmate Of State Hospital, Successfully Commits Suicide On Second Attempt

The second suicidal attempt by Messer, 40-year-old inmate of the criminal insane at the State Hospital in Raleigh, ended successfully Saturday morning.

Messer's body was found dangling from the bars of his cell, held by an improvised rope he made by tearing strips from a mattress. Coroner L. M. Waring found in his investigation.

About two months ago, Messer tried suicide by slashing his wrists with the top of a snuff box, said the Coroner. The attempt proved futile and he recovered quickly.

When the corpse was found Saturday at 8:30 a. m. it still was warm, hospital attaches said.

Efforts had been made, after Messer's first suicide try, to thwart further attempts, the prisoner being deprived of all except the most necessary of articles and clothing in his cell.

Messer was committed from Haywood county several years ago, then released, and later recommitted when he became violent, the Coroner was informed. Messer's home was in Cove Creek.

Sheriff J. C. Welch said he carried Messer to the hospital in 1928. The state officials, in communication with local authorities Saturday said that Messer would be buried in Raleigh.
