HAYWOOD CHAPTER U. D. C. HAS APRIL MEETING

The Haywood Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy held the April meeting on Friday afternoon, with Mrs. C. C. White as hostess, and the president, Mrs. O. R. Martin, presiding. The house was arranged in bowls of jonquils and spirea.

During the business session interesting communications were read, among which was a letter from the state president, and another regarding the Bessie Belle Reed fund. The treasurer reported that the total of $4.10 per capita for the nurses fund of the Confederate Women's Home in Fayetteville had been sent, also contributions sent to the Pavillion Memorial and Mrs. Norman G. Randolph fund.

Mrs. James R. Boyd, Jr. was elected a delegate to the district meeting which will be held in Brevard, date to be announced later. Mrs. W. L. McCracken was elected as an alternate.

The paper of the afternoon, "The Life of Job Stewart," was given by Mrs. W. L. McCracken. The first part was devoted to a sketch of the life of this famous Confederate general and the latter section to what he contributed in the War Between the States, to the cause of the South.

Mrs. Will Hyatt gave a most interesting account of the life of Mrs. Job Stewart, and what she gave to the Confederacy.

During the social hour the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr.

Mrs. Hilliard B. Atkins, who has spent sometime with friends in Miami, returned to town on Thursday.

JOINT HOSTESSES GIVE ALL DAY AFFAIR

Mrs. R. Q. McCracken and her daughter, Mrs. Robert L. Cain, entertained with an all day party on Thursday at the home of the former. At noon a luncheon was served from one large table, that was artistically centered with the arrangement of spring flowers. The guests spent the day in hooking a rug and in quilting a quilt.

Among those enjoying the gracious hospitality of the occasion were: Mrs. Clayton Walker, Mrs. Will Medford, Mrs. John M. Queen, Mrs. Homer Platt, Mrs. James R. Boyd, Jr., Mrs. W. L. McCracken, Mrs. W. S. Patterson, Mrs. Felix Alley, Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. J. P. Dicus, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. Ernest Hyatt, Mrs. Charles Ray, Mrs. James Platt, Mrs. P. L. Turbyfill, Mrs. Joe Tate, Mrs. George W. Colby, and Mrs. G. C. Platt.

ATTENDING STATE FEDERATION MEETING IN HIGH POINT

Mrs. S. P. Gay, president of the Woman's Club, and Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., delegate, are attending the State Federation of the Women's Clubs in High Point this week. Mrs. R. N. Barber, who has been visiting her daughter, Miss Mary Ashworth Barber, in Burlington, is also in attendance from the club here.

TO GIVE OPERETTA

An operetta entitled "Molly be Jolly" will be given by students of the Central Elementary School on Thursday, April 16th, at eight o'clock.

Campus Queen

Miss Katherine Cross

Candidates for the title of "queen of agriculture" at Louisiana State university were "crossed up" when Miss Katherine Cross, New Orleans sophomore, was the overwhelming choice of the student body.

COMMUNITY CLUB HAS BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

The Community Club held the regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon in the club rooms on Main street, with the president, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, presiding. The occasion marked the sixteenth anniversary of the founding of the club, which was observed during the afternoon. Spring flowers decorated the assembly room.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," as a compliment to the first president of the organization, Mrs. J. Howell Way, who has a fondness for the old favorite.

Mrs. Noble Garrett, chairman, announced that the annual dress making contest held for the girls of the Township High School would be held on April the 9th, during the chapel period, and that the usual prizes would be given the winners.

It was voted to give $5.00 to the first aid room of the high school, for purchasing supplies. The president announced that an extension course in Southern gardening would be given at Blue Ridge, beginning August 10th and continuing through the 15th.

A vote was taken and favorably acted upon to merge with the Woman's Club, details of which were to be announced at a later date.

Mrs. W. T. Crawford, who had the

MONDAY AFTERNOON CONTRACT CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Mrs. Ben Colkitt was the hostess of the regular fortnightly meeting of the Monday Afternoon Contract Club at her home on Monday. Spring flowers, with yellow predominating, were used with attractive effects to decorate the living room.

Regular members playing were: Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mrs. James M. Long, Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., Mrs. C. C. White, and Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher. Mrs. Alvin Ward was a special guest of the afternoon.

paper of the afternoon, a history of the club, held the attention of her audience, with the keenest interest, as she told of the many accomplishments which she interspersed with many bits of humor. She told of the growth of the club from the old world War Y. W. C. A. board, and the maintenance of a club room for the use of the country women—then the gradual development of the activities of the organization. She related some of the high lights of the country store once staged, which netted for the club $750.00.

Mrs. Robert Stretcher, chairman of music, presented the following program: piano solo by Mrs. Evander Preston, "Nocturne," by Grieg, two vocal solos, "The Brown Bird Singing" and "The Star;" and a violin solo, "The Lament of a Rose," by Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr.

During the social hour the hostesses, Mrs. W. A. Bradley, Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, and Mrs. Felix Stovall served salads, tea, and cakes.

A party composed of Mrs. R. S. Roberson, Miss Margaret Hyatt, and LeRoy Davis spent the week-end in Charleston and vicinity. While there, they visited Magnolia Gardens.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

On Saturday afternoon, little Miss Doretta Joyce Balentine entertained a number of young friends at the home of her parents on the Dellwood Road. The occasion was the third anniversary of her birthday. She was assisted in receiving her guests, by her mother, Mrs. Emmette Balentine.

Following the afternoon amusements in charge of Miss Sarah Jane Walker, and Mrs. Clayton Walker, the children were invited into the dining room, where the Easter motif was carried out at small tables. Each guest was presented an attractive Easter basket. Mrs. Balentine was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. Lowry Ferguson.

The guests were, Peggy Ann Camp, Johnny and Patsy Green, George Dewey Stovall, Jimmie Swift, Joe Dawkins, Howell, Freddie Dicus, Jane and Lowry Ferguson, Jr., Tommy Green, Merrill and Mary Jo Green, Lula Frank Medford, and Davis Balentine.

MISS AVIE NOLAND GIVEN SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Friday evening Miss Avie Noland was tendered a surprise birthday party by the N. Y. L. Club, of which she is a member. The guests arrived ostensibly to take Miss Noland to Canton with them, but when with the birthday cake, with her name inscribed, she soon realized the object of the occasion.

The guests spent the evening knitting and sewing. Among those present were Miss Frances Burgin, Miss Wilma Fincher, Miss Lucy Jones, Miss Lillian Burgin, Miss Elizabeth M. Cracken, Miss Edna Jones, Miss Margaret Burgin, Miss Mattie Moody, and Miss Josephine Platt.

Mrs. W. L. Taylor, of Baltimore, will arrive Thursday to spend two weeks, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoolbred.
