Redheads Preferred!

Peggy Carper

Students at University of Oregon demonstrated their preference for redheads over blondes and brunets when they selected attractive Miss Peggy Carper as campus queen to reign over the traditional schedule of college May activities.

WEDDING OF INTEREST TAKES PLACE IN MISSOURI

The following account of the marriage of Miss Gladys Miller and Mr. Robert Hardin will be of keen interest to friends and relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Hardin have been the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. W. L. Hardin, during the past week. On Friday they will go to Asheville, where they will reside at the Ambassador Apartments on Pearson Drive.

The marriage of Miss Gladys Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Miller, of 449 Sherwood Drive, Webster Grove, Mo., and Robert Balfour Hardin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lauriston Hardin, of Waynesville, was solemnized on Saturday night, May the 2nd, at the Webster Grove Presbyterian church. The service was read by Rev. David M. Skilling at the altar lighted with 50 candles and thickly festooned with ferns.

The bride given away by her father wore white satin designed princess style. At the high cowl neck the shoulders were shirred down into the sleeves, which tapered below the elbow. A full flounce train fell from the waist. Her tulle veil, forming a cape effect with lace edging was held at each side with orange blossoms and she wore a short blush veil over her face. She carried lilies of the valley and white roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Jeanette Miller, sister of the bride, wore an empire gown of pale yellow mousseline de soie over taffeta. The bodice and shoulders were made of knife pleating which was carried down into the top of the full skirt. Her flowers were spring blossoms accentuating shades of yellow.

The bridesmaids were Miss Jean Blackmer, Miss Margaret Ray, of Waynesville, N. C., Miss Catherine Taylor, and Miss Virginia Koken, Mrs. Lucian Miller, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Their dresses in tones of peach were fastened like Miss Miller's and they wore garlands in their hair. Their bouquets were spring flowers.

Little Nancy Miller, niece of the bride, as flower girl, wore light blue organdie, and scattered rose petals. The bride's mother wore a gown of deep turquoise crepe with corsage of gardenias, and Mrs. Hardin was in pink lace with similar flowers.

Mrs. Charles Miller, of Asheville, was the best man and the following served as groomsmen, Lucian Miller and Henry Miller, brothers of the bride, Lawrence Miller, her uncle, Robert Oberimer and James Miller.

The families and bridal party were entertained at a reception after which the couple departed for Asheville. Mrs. Hardin attended Lenox Hall and Washington University, where she pledged Pi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Hardin is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and is superintendent of the CCC camp F-18 at Barnardsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan and young daughter, Linda, were the guests for several days during the week of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bushnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Noyes Long and small son, of Old Hickory, Tenn., arrived on Friday for a visit to Mrs. W. L. Hardin. Mr. Long has returned, but Mrs. Long and son will be the guests of her mother for a fortnight.

Mrs. Marguerite Barron has gone to Philadelphia, where she will spend sometime as the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Hamilton.
