MRS. M. H. BOWLES AND MISS ROSALYN RAY GIVE LUNCHEON

On Tuesday Mrs. M. H. Bowles and Miss Rosalyn Ray entertained with a luncheon to honor Mrs. M. J. Payne, of Jacksonville, Fla., popular guest of her sister, Mrs. Carroll Bell.

A color motif of blue and pink prevailed in the appointments and flowers. The guests assembled at eleven o'clock and enjoyed several progressions of contract, and at one o'clock a luncheon was served.

When the scores were totaled, Mrs. S. P. Gay was the winner of the top score, and Mrs. Nancy Keener won the low. Both were presented prizes and the honor guest was given an attractive remembrance of the occasion.

The guest list included Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Mrs. Nancy Keener, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Miss Diana Black, Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., Mrs. W. L. Hardin, Jr., Mrs. Grayden Ferguson, Mrs. R. H. Stretcher, Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mrs. Frank Bell, Mrs. Carroll Bell, and Miss Helen Ray joined the group for luncheon.

DAUGHTER OF FORMER WAYNESVILLE RESIDENT MARRIES

The following account will be of interest to friends and relatives here. The bride's mother is the former Miss Josie Hyatt, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyatt, prominent residents of this section.

"A wedding of outstanding social interest throughout the Carolinas and Virginia was solemnized Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, April 19th, when Miss Elizabeth Benner Burwell and Raymond Auburn Manship, Jr., were united in marriage by Rev. James A. Jones, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Henderson.

"Miss Burwell, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millis Micajah Burwell, is a young lady of many charms, having a host of friends throughout the state. She received her education at Ahoskie High School and Louisville College.

"Mr. Manship is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Manship, of Laurinburg, and a direct descendant of Sir Isaac Newton, the English inventor. Mr. Manship is prominently connected in the two Carolinas, and is now connected with Rose's 5 and 10c Store at North Wilkesboro, N. C."

WEDDING IN SUMMER, S. C. TO-NIGHT OF KEEN INTEREST

A marriage of keen interest to a wide circle of friends of both the bride and groom, will take place at 8:30 this evening in Sumter, S. C., when Miss Mary Kathryn Stubbs becomes the bride of Mr. LeRoy Siler Davis, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Olive H. Stubbs.

The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, and Mr. Davis will have as his best man, his father, Mr. John LeRoy Davis.

Following the ceremony an informal reception will be held, after which the couple will leave by motor for Charleston. From there they will go by boat to New York, where they will visit relatives. They then plan to visit in Massachusetts, from there to Niagara Falls and to Canada and home by way of Lansing, Mich.

D. A. R. OFFICERS INSTALLED AT LAST MEETING

The last meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, before the summer adjournment was held on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Morris as hostess. Mrs. J. Harden Howell, presided over the first part of the meeting, with Mrs. J. F. Abel, newly elected regent, in charge of the latter session.

A letter of regret was read from Mrs. T. A. Berg, of Brevard, district chairman, who could not attend the meeting, stating her disappointment, that notwithstanding she, Mrs. Galloway, nor Mrs. J. S. Silverstein could be present, but that they would visit the chapter in the fall.

Mrs. Howell introduced Sarah Welch, winner of the Ruth Bryan Owen citizenship medal, and Emily Siler, winner of the citizenship medal offered by the chapter.

The following were invited to become members of the chapter: Mrs. Virginia Rotha Kimberly, Miss Hester Ann Withers, Miss Ellen Louise Killian, Miss Louise Stringfield, and Miss Henrietta Love.

An impressive flag day ceremony was conducted by Mrs. E. B. Camp, who gave a paper in which a history of the flag and its usage was presented. Mrs. R. P. Walker read a poem, "The Flag." Two solos were rendered by Miss Ellen Louise Killian, accompanied by Miss Grace Crocker, "In the Garden," and "When I Am Too Old to Dream."

Mrs. Howell, who has so ably served the chapter as regent for the past three years, made a brief speech. The chapter gave her a rising vote of thanks for her splendid work. This was followed by the installation of officers by Mrs. R. P. Walker, the chaplain, as follows: Regent, Mrs. J. F. Abel; vice regent, Mrs. James M. Long; chaplain, Mrs. R. L. Prevost; recording secretary, Mrs. James Killian; registrar, Mrs. R. N. Barber; and librarian, Mrs. W. F. Swift. Mrs. Abel made a brief talk in acceptance of the office of regent, and presented Mrs. Howell, retiring regent with ex-regent's pin. Mrs. Abel appointed the chairmen for the ensuing year.

YOUNG HOSTESS OBSERVES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Little Miss Dolores Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Phillips, celebrated her fourth birthday on Monday afternoon at the home of grandfather, Mr. G. W. Burnett, of Bethel. At noon lunch was served picnic style on the lawn.

The youthful hostess was the recipient of many gifts. Those present were: Eula and Johnnie Burnett, Joan, Hercul and Bruce Singleton, Burr, Harry and Hazel Burnett, Patsy Anne Phillips, Miss Lora Burnett, Miss Donnie Burnett, Mrs. Norman Singleton, Mrs. Lloyd Phillips, and Mr. Bryan Burnett.

Miss Mary Penland McCracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Theodore McCracken, student at Mars Hill college, has received the distinction of making the "First Honor Roll" for the semester ending May 29th. Miss McCracken entered the college after Christmas this year, and has made a splendid record in a few months.

Mr. James Murray, who has been residing here for the past year, has returned from a visit to his relatives in New York City.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. G. D. Green, who has been spending some time in the North, has returned to town. Mrs. Green is a guest at the home of Mrs. Margaret Moody.

Miss Virginia Stowe, of Gaffney, S. C., has returned to her home after spending a fortnight as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gilliland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Braren, of Ormond, Fla., have arrived and will spend the summer in the Garrett apartment on Pigeon street.

Little Miss Theresa Alley is spending this week as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Fred Corn, at her home in Asheville.

Mrs. Bryant Smith, of Canton, is spending several weeks as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Jere Davis.

MARRIAGE OF INTEREST TAKES PLACE IN WEAVERVILLE

The wedding of Miss Ruth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Brown, of Weaverville, to Mr. Ernest Cyril McCracken, prominent Weaverville citizen, took place in Weaverville Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock on the lawn of the Brown home.

An altar, built against a natural background of spruce, was decorated on either side by lattice work entwined with English ivy and pink roses. Tall baskets of lilies stood at either side of the opening of the altar. The Rev. P. L. Elliott, head of the English department of Western Carolina Teachers' college at Cullowhee and close friend of the couple, performed the ceremony.

Miss Carolyn Haynes, of Waynesville, was at the piano and Miss Mildred Aiken played the violin. They played Drida's "Souvenir" before the ceremony. The wedding party came to the altar, to the music of the wedding march from Lohengrin, from the porch and side lawn.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a gown of pink mousseline de sois, made along youthful lines, with a panel of ruffles down the back that fell in a short train, and with a bertha of ruffles. She wore a wide pink hat and pink sandals. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace that had been given to her grandmother on the parental side by her grandfather on the occasion of their golden wedding. The bride carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and swansons.

Miss Frances Brown, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant and was gowned in pale blue organdie made with puffed sleeves and skirt with its fullness falling from the knees. She wore a picture hat of leghorn trimmed with blue flowers. Her bouquet was of mixed garden flowers. The bridegroom had for his best man, Mr. John A. Roagan, Jr.

An informal reception was held after the ceremony with only the 35 wedding guests attending. An ice course, with the ices in the form of bridal slippers, was served while the bride cut the cake, from a table beautifully decorated with pink roses and pink candles. Mrs. Robert Brown and Misses Margaret and Lillian Garrison assisted in serving.

The bride's going away costume was a navy blue sheer dress with matching taffeta coat and blue accessories. She wore a shoulder bouquet detached from her bridal bouquet.

The young couple are very popular, both in their home towns and among their schoolmates at Western Carolina Teachers' college at Cullowhee, where they received their B. S. degree. Mr. McCracken is principal of Central Elementary school here.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. McCracken will be at home at 421 Love Lane, here.
