INSTRUMENT USED TO MEASURE LIGHT OF STARS

An instrument so sensitive it will detect the light of a candle 3,000 miles away is being used by Dr. Albert E. Whitford to measure the light of stars. The stars he has used the instrument on thus far are billions of miles away and are not visible to the eye.

WOMAN BREAKS ALTITUDE RECORD

Maryse Hilsz, Frenchwoman, broke both the French men's and the women's world altitude records last week when she ascended 46,947 feet. The former record was held by Nela Negromme, Italian woman, who climbed 39,510 in 1935.

99 YEAR OLD VETERAN WEDS

Charles Jeanette, 99 year old Civil War veteran of Old Forge, New York, married Mrs. Ella Blanche Manning, 54 year old widow, last Sunday. This was his third wedding.

FISH CATCHES CHICKEN

Will McMillan, farmer of Midville, Ga., caught the fish that caught his chicken. Mr. McMillan reported that the chicken, a small broiler, was drinking water at the edge of the McMillan pond when an eight pound trout flung itself out of the water and seized the chicken. McMillan caught the fish as it floundered in the shallow water. He exhibited the fish to prove the story.

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE ROOSEVELT AND GARNER

The Democratic convention held in Philadelphia last week adjourned Saturday night after nominating Roosevelt and Garner as the Democratic standard bearers in the fall election.

The highlights of the convention were: Tuesday, Al Smith and three colleagues served notice that they are "taking a walk;" Wednesday, Senator Barkley delivered keynote address; Thursday, the 104 year old rule requiring vote of at least two-thirds of the delegates in order to nominate a candidate for President was abolished; Friday, adoption of a platform calling for continuation of most of the New Deal policies and advocating reduction of government expenditures and, if necessary, amendment of constitution, so as to admit the New Deal; Friday and Saturday, nomination of Roosevelt and Garner; Saturday, the nominees are notified and make acceptance speeches.

Landon and Peggy Landon, older daughter; seated Mrs. Theodore Cobb, mother of Mrs. Landon, holding John Cobb Landon; John Landon, the governor's father, holding Nancy Jo Landon.

Ohioan Marks 111th Birthday

John H. Davis and his 110th grandchild

Instead of offering a formula for longevity, John H. Davis celebrated his 111th birthday at his home near Washington Court House, O., by playing cards for three hours, greeting relatives and friends and telling pioneer stories to several of his 100 grandchildren. Davis is pictured here with Joe Francis Hansford of Wilmington, O., his 100th grandchild. He reads without glasses and has voted in every presidential election since 1846.

HEAT RECORD BROKEN

Two were dead from heat and several others were in serious condition in the deep south this week as heat records were broken in several states. Hottest places in the South were Atlanta with 99 degrees, Birmingham, Ala., 100, Macon, Ga., 101.

The temperature ranged from 99 degrees in Atlanta, Ga., to 103 in Columbia, S. C.

Portions of northern Vermont were covered with snow Tuesday.

SELASSIE ADDRESSES LEAGUE

Haile Selassie, the emperor without an empire, addressed the League of Nations Tuesday amid boos and cheers. Cursing and fighting occurred in the galleries, and police had to be called to take the disturbers out.

Selassie said he "could not believe that fifty-two nations . . . could be defeated by a single aggressor." Other notable statements were: "You deserted us to Italy," and "God and history will remember your judgment."

SLOT MACHINES OUTLAWED

The State Supreme Court, in an opinion handed down Tuesday, upheld the conviction of James Humphries, of Cumberland county, for the possession of a slot machine, which was prohibited by laws passed by the 1935 General Assembly. The court split three to two on the case.

NORTH CAROLINA GETS $3,220,000

North Carolina will get $3,220,000 of the WPA funds that are to be distributed soon. One-fourth of the $1,425,000,000 appropriated is to be distributed to the states as soon as possible.

SIX DIE IN NORTH CAROLINA

Six violent deaths occurred in North Carolina, over the week-end. The "torch killing" of an invalid mother by her 35-year-old daughter headed the list.

Two persons were killed in automobile crashes, two died by gunfire, one reportedly a suicide, one was killed when an automobile knocked her off her horse.

LEHMAN TO RUN AGAIN

Governor Herbert Lehman, of New York, has announced that for the third time he will seek to become governor of New York. Lehman made this decision after President Roosevelt made a personal request that he run again and carry on the program of social security in New York.

GATE BUILT BY SOLOMON FOUND

An ancient gate built by King Solomon for the city of Megiddo, the stronghold of Armageddon battlefield for 2,500 years, has been found in Palestine. This Old Testament battlefield was also the scene of operations when the British broke the Turkish front in 1918. The gate was found by the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago.

Lady Took Cardui

When Weak, Nervous

"I can't say enough for Cardui if I talked all day," enthusiastically writes Mrs. L. H. Caldwell, of Statesville, N. C. "I have used Cardui at intervals for twenty-five years," she adds. "My trouble in the beginning was weakness and nervousness. I read of Cardui in a newspaper and decided right then to try it. It seemed before I had taken half a bottle of Cardui I was stronger and was soon up and around."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Personals

Mrs. Charles E. Ray had as her guests over the week-end her sister, Mrs. Ed Rhinehart and daughter, of Asheville.

Major John B. Martin, of the U. S. A., and Mrs. Martin and two sons, were the guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Martin. They were en route to their home in Peoria, Ill., where the former is now stationed, after visiting Mrs. Martin's relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Mary Martin Lynch, of Wilkesboro, N. C., was the guest over the week-end of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Martin.
