MARRIAGE OF LOCAL COUPLE TAKES PLACE IN ATLANTA

Cordial interest attends the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kitchen, of Mills River, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kitchen, to Mr. John Cuddeback. The wedding took place on Saturday afternoon in the Central Presbyterian church of Atlanta, Ga., with a small group of friends in attendance. Rev. Richard Owen Flinn, pastor of the church, pronounced the marriage vows.

Miss Kitchen has been residing in Waynesville for the past eighteen months, and has made many friends here during that time. She is the laboratory technician of the Health Unit of which Haywood county is a part. She received her training at the Jefferson College Hospital, of Philadelphia.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cuddeback, of West Pittston, Penn. He has been living here for the past three years, and holds a position with the England-Walton Company, of Hazelwood.

Following a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Cuddeback will be at home to their friends on Pigeon street.
