MRS. ABEL HOSTESS OF THE D. A. R. CHAPTER

Members of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held the initial meeting of the fall on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. F. Abel at her home on Love Lane. Quantities of flowers adorned the living rooms. Mrs. Abel was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. Robert Osborne, of Tampa, Fla.

The following newly elected officers are serving the chapter this year: Mrs. Abel, regent, Mrs. James M. Long, vice regent, Mrs. James W. Killian, treasurer, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, chaplain, Mrs. S. H. Bushnell, secretary, and Mrs. W. F. Swift, librarian.

Various communications from the state regent, Mrs. W. H. Bell, outlining plans for the coming year, with a list of the prizes being offered were read.

A letter was read from Mrs. T. A. Berg, district president, of Brevard, announcing the district meeting that would be held in Asheville on the 29th of September, asking that the members be prepared to take part in a round table discussion. The regent appointed Miss Haseltine Swift as a page at the meeting.

A motion was made to send $5.00 to the North Carolina Room in Memorial Hall, as a result of a request for a donation on some needed furnishings. Mrs. Leon Killian, chairman for Crossnore, stated she had recently sent two bags, and urged the members to make other gifts.

A discussion was held regarding the advisability of the chapter adopting a boy at Crossnore, as has been requested for each chapter as a requirement of a certain standard. A motion was made to buy clothes for a boy, but further action was deferred until a later meeting.

Mrs. Swift stated that two new lineage books had been received, and had been placed in the D. A. R. section of the Waynesville Public Library. The secretary read the minutes of the recent state executive board held in Charlotte.

Mrs. Robert Osborne reviewed the magazine, which is of particular interest this month to North Carolinians. Fourteen copies of the magazine were distributed among the members by the magazine chapter chairman, Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt, who is urging all members to subscribe.

Following adjournment the guests were invited into the dining room which was lovely in its motif of red, white and blue. Mrs. S. H. Bushnell poured from a lace covered table centered with an arrangement of flowers in the patriotic colors. Tea, cakes, and sandwiches were served.

Guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. Maria Mitchell, Mrs. Robert Osborne, and Mrs. R. L. Gilliam, guest of her sister, Mrs. R. N. Barber.

WEDDING TAKES PLACE IN CLAYTON, GA.

Of interest to friends and relatives in this section is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Joan Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Phillips and Mr. Kenneth Stahl, which was solemnized at Clayton, Ga., on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 20th, at six o'clock.

Miss Phillips is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School in the class of 1936, and was a prominent member of the basketball team. Mr. Stahl is also a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School, of the class of 1931. He is the son of Mr. F. A. Stahl. At present he holds a position with the Smith Drug Store.

Today Mr. and Mrs. Stahl leave for a wedding trip to points in the eastern part of the state, after which they will return to Waynesville, where they will make their home with the groom's father.

Ruth Chappell of Hamilton, Ontario, now a student of drama in New York, was selected as the prettiest daughter of foreign-born residents of Canada and United States in a poll taken by the Foreign Press association.

WEDDING TAKES PLACE IN GREENVILLE, S. C.

Mrs. Elizabeth Painter announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Helen Louise, to Mr. J. D. Frady, Jr. The wedding took place in Greenville, S. C., on September 20th. They were accompanied by Miss Alma Jones, of Lake Junaluska, and the bride's brother, Mr. Charles Painter.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Painter, of Waynesville, who formerly resided in Edgefield, S. C. Mrs. Frady was educated in the Edgefield schools, and is a graduate of the high school of that city. For her marriage she wore a full suit of blue, with harmonizing accessories.

Mr. Frady is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. James Frady, of Waynesville. He received his education in the local schools and the Asheville Farm School. He is now connected with the Orange Crush Bottling Company, of Asheville.

After a wedding trip in the South, the couple will be at home to their friends in West Asheville.

WAYNESVILLE MUSIC CLUB TO RESUME MEETINGS

The Waynesville Music Club will hold the first meeting of the fall season with Miss Nancy Killian and Miss Ida Jean Brown, as associate hostesses, at the home of the former, on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, president, will preside and Mrs. Thomas Sparlock will have charge of the program.

N. Y. L. CLUB MEETS WITH MISS AVIE NOLAND

On Friday evening Miss Avie Noland was hostess to the members of the N. Y. L. Club, on the occasion of the regular meeting. The house was arranged in fall flowers, with yellow predominating. The evening was featured by sewing and knitting.

The guest list included: Miss Lillian Burgin, Miss Edna Jones, Miss Mildred McCracken, Miss Frances Buggin, Miss Elizabeth McCracken, Miss Kathryn Queen, Miss Lucy Jones, Miss Margaret Burgin, Miss Virginia Limer, Miss Elizabeth Francis, Miss Josephine Plott, and Miss Frankie Noland.

Mr. Frank Therrell, of Scottsboro, Ala., joined his family for a short stay at the home of Mrs. J. Howell Way. On Sunday he was accompanied by Mrs. Therrell and two small sons, Frank, Jr., and Ashton, to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown back, who have occupied the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gwyn for the past three months, left on Tuesday for Bryn Mawr, Penn., where they will spend a few weeks, before going to their home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Fatio Dunham and young son, who were the guests of the former's brother, Mr. Donald Dunham, at the Dunham House, have returned to their home in Miami Beach, Florida.

Mrs. John M. Queen, who has been visiting in Washington, D. C., returned home this week.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENJOYS INTERESTING PROGRAM

The first meeting of the club year 1936-37 of the Woman's Club was held on Thursday afternoon in the assembly room of the American Legion Home on Depot street. In the absence of the president, Mrs. S. P. Gay, the vice president, Mrs. Ben Colkitt, presided. The room was decorated with tall vases of gladioli. The program was of unusual interest.

Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick introduced Mrs. Caroline Miller, well known writer, who is spending her third season in Waynesville. Mrs. Miller spoke of the reasons for her return visits, and of the consideration and friendliness she had received here. She prefaced her remarks with a humorous experience relative to her first introduction to the town.

At this time Mrs. Tom Sparlock sang three numbers, "Her Portrait," "Death and the Maiden," and "Courage," by Schubert. She was accompanied by Mrs. Evander Preston.

Mrs. H. W. Baucom then introduced Mr. Clyde H. Ray, Jr., who spoke on "The Care of Cut Flowers," giving many methods of keeping flowers fresh for use in the home.

Mr. J. B. Ivey, of Charlotte and Lake Junaluska, was presented to the club by Mrs. Baucom. Mr. Ivey, one of the outstanding gardeners in the state, is the advisor of the Garden Department of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. He addressed the group on "Flower Shows."

He paid high tribute to the shows held by the local clubs. He spoke of the climate and soil of this section as contributing factors in the development of gardens, urging that the club sponsor a community garden in the town. He stated that he would contribute to the garden 50 rose bushes and 25 peony plants. He urged the growing of dahlias, making the members an offer of five of his best varieties at 10 cents each, as a means of helping toward the more wide spread cultivation of dahlias.

Mrs. Grover C. Davis stated that Mrs. Charles R. Thomas had offered certain parts of her property to the community for beautification purposes.

Various reports concerning summer activities were given by the chairman, Mrs. James W. Killian, chairman of the American Home, gave a report of the Quilt Show. Mrs. Rufus Siler, in the absence of the chairman, gave the report of the two Flower Shows held this summer, stating that many new exhibits were noted at both. Mrs. W. T. Lee, Jr., chairman of the ways and means committee, reported that $81.35 had been realized from the two square dances and the card party given during the summer.

Mrs. H. W. Baucom in behalf of Mrs. Ben Colkitt presented the report of the literature committee, giving out the year books. Mrs. M. G. Stamey announced that the cook books being compiled as a last project of the Community Club before the combining of the two clubs would be on sale during the coming week.

Mrs. H. W. Baucom was elected as a delegate to the district meeting to be held in Sylva on Oct. 3rd, and Mrs. Jerry Colkitt was elected as an alternate.

After adjournment punch, sandwiches and cakes were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Miss Mary Stringfield, and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn.

Miss Patsy Hill, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Charles R. Thomas, has returned to New York City for the winter.

Mrs. Charles E. Ray had as her guest during the week, her sister, Mrs. Ed Rhinehart, of Asheville, the former Miss Daisy Shelton, of Waynesville.

MRS. JAMES W. KILLIAN GIVES CONTRACT PARTY

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the contract party given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. James W. Killian. For the occasion the house was arranged in quantities of fall flowers in shades of yellow and blue. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. J. Wilford Ray in receiving and serving.

When the scores were totaled, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn was found to hold the top score, with Mrs. J. P. Dicus winning the second high and Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Jr., making the low. All three were presented attractive prizes.
