JOINT HOSTESSES GIVE LARGE CONTRACT PARTIES

Two outstanding affairs of the week were the contract parties given on Thursday and Friday afternoons by Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson and Mrs. George Bischoff at Oak Park. For the occasion the spacious living rooms were elaborately decorated in autumn leaves in brilliant shades of red and yellow, with the Halloween motif accentuated in all the party appointments.

When the scores were totaled on Thursday Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., was the fortunate winner of the top score, and Mrs. Jerry Colkitt made the low. When the cards were put away the tables were centered with a small pumpkin and other Halloween features for the serving of the salad and accessories.

The guest list on Thursday included, Mrs. J. P. Deus, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, Mrs. J. F. Abel, Mrs. Hugh Abel, Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., Mrs. C. N. Sisk, Mrs. Grady Boyd, Mrs. J. C. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. James W. Killian, Mrs. Woodson Jones, Mrs. Jack Way, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, Mrs. Ernest Hyatt.

Mrs. James W. Reed, Mrs. N. M. Medford, Mrs. C. C. White, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, Mrs. Ernest Withers, Mrs. Henry Davis, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Harry Rotha, Miss Alice Quinlan. Coming in at the tea hour were Mrs. Jarvis Coman, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. Arthur Ledbetter, Mrs. J. C. Murphy, Miss Louise Edwards, Miss Edna McKay, and Mrs. John Williams, of Atlanta.

On Friday Miss Mary Stringfield was the winner of the top score and Mrs. Felix Stovall was awarded the low score prize. The guests were: Mrs. Ralph Prevost, Mrs. Whitner Prevost, Mrs. W. T. Huff, Mrs. N. F. Lancaster, Mrs. R. N. Barber, Jr., Mrs. J. Wilford Ray, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. Robert Hardin, Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Jr., Mrs. LeRoy Davis, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Jewel Hipps, Miss Ellen Louise Killian.

Miss Mary Stringfield, Mrs. Debra Liner, Mrs. Dan Watkins, Mrs. Francis Massie, Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Miss Tillie Rotha, Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Mrs. S. P. Coming in for tea were: Mrs. Dewey Stovall, Mrs. Josephine Coman Ferguson, Miss Margaret Hyatt, Mrs. James Coman, of Winston-Salem, and Miss Bobby Jean Truesdale.

SQUARE DANCE GIVEN AT DELLWOOD CAMP

On Thursday evening a group of friends motored to Camp Dellwood where they enjoyed a square dance. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Felix Stovall, Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Coin, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins, Mrs. Josephine Coman Ferguson, Mr. Newton Cook, Mrs. Nancy Keener, Miss Gertrude Plott, Mrs. L. E. Perry, and Mr. Charles E. Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell had as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Martin and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Martin, Jr., and small daughter, Lida, of Lenoir.

EIGHTEENTH DISTRICT MEETING OF AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The eighteenth district of the American Legion Auxiliary held the annual meeting on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in the assembly room of the American Legion Home on Depot street, with Mrs. J. Harden Howell, eighteenth district committee woman, presiding. Representatives from the following units attended: Asheville, Black Mountain, Burnsville, Canton, Marion, and Oteen, with the local unit as hostess.

The principal address of the afternoon was made by Mrs. C. F. Andrews, of Charlotte, North Carolina Departmental president, who was introduced by Mrs. J. B. Payne, of Canton. Mrs. Andrews made a touching talk, outlining the work for the auxiliaries for the coming year. She urged that each unit concentrate on national defense, child welfare, rehabilitation. She also stressed the importance of increasing the membership this year.

The opening ceremonies included: invocation by Dr. K. S. Truesdale, pastor of the First Methodist church; advance of the colors by Miss Ida Jean Brown and Mrs. M. C. Green; pledge of allegiance to the flag led by Mrs. R. G. Liner, president of the Oteen unit, and assembly singing of the national anthem led by Miss Nancy Killian, of the local unit.

Other features of the program were: an address of welcome by Mrs. T. Guy Massie, second vice president of the hostess unit, in behalf of the president, Mrs. E. B. Camp, who was detained at home by illness. Major J. Harden Howell, commander of the local American Legion, brought greetings, giving to the assembly in an impressive way the worthwhile objects of the two affiliated groups. Response was graciously given by Mrs. Allen Luther, of Asheville.

Musical numbers on the program included two vocal solos, by Miss Ida Jean Brown, "Little Brown Hands" and "If Flowers Speak." She was accompanied by Miss Nancy Killian. Mrs. Nancy Keener played "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" from Rachmaninoff.

Mrs. J. B. Payne, of Canton, fifth area woman and state departmental vice president, spoke on membership and urged that a drive be inaugurated at the beginning of each year.

Reports were given by the presidents of the following units, in the form of membership totals: Asheville, Burnsville, Black Mountain, Canton, Marion, Oteen, and Waynesville. The reports were followed by a round table discussion of problems, led by the state departmental president, Mrs. C. P. Andrews.

Greetings were brought to the group from the following: Mrs. W. T. Green, of Oteen, state chaplain; Mrs. Allen T. Luther, of Asheville, state chairman of Gold Star Mothers; and Mrs. C. M. Taylor, of Oteen, state chairman of the poppy sale.

The successful afternoon session closed with the announcements, retirements of the colors and the dismissal by the State Chaplain, Mrs. W. T. Green, of Oteen.

Following adjournment the Waynesville unit entertained with a tea as a courtesy to the visitors. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. T. Guy Massie, Mrs. LeRoy Davis, and Mrs. M. C. Green. The table was covered with a lace cloth, appointed with a silver service. Blue and gold flowers were arranged in silver bowls, with yellow tapers in silver holders. Tea, cakes, sandwiches and nuts were served.

Styled Overcoats

Yes indeed there is style in overcoats. As much so as in suits.

Coats for young men have a decidedly youngish flare both in models and patterns.

Coats for older men run more to the conservative.

Regardless of your age and taste we can show you something suitable in overcoats—and will be pleased to do so. Top-coats, overcoats, and raincoats.
