Mountaineers To Meet Saluda-Tryon Here Friday P. M.

At the township stadium Friday afternoon Coach Weatherly will send his Mountaineers against the Tryon-Saluda eleven determined to win their third Blue Ridge Conference victory. Some of the first string are not in the best condition and have required much rest during the past two weeks. However, daily drills have been carried out with able reserves in all positions left vacant by ailing regulars. Coach Weatherly has given the team new plays as well as stressed all fundamentals of football.

The Mountaineers defeated Hendersonville Bear Cats 25-7 on the latter's field last Friday. In the backfield Saunders, Phillips, Smith and Hill will probably start as they did in the Mountaineers easy victory over Hendersonville last week. Yount, Reeves, Hendricks, "Red" Phillips, Jack Davis, and John Reeves will probably see service in this game. The line will be led by Sawyer, Bryson, Galloway, Byrd, Stringfield, and Collins. Able reserves, such as Mehaffey, Ewing, Hancock, Chafin, and Davis, will be ready.

The Mountaineers and Mars Hill are considered tops in the Blue Ridge Conference, and the local lads are anxious for a clean slate when they meet the latter team next week. The "7 Club" will again give a play-by-play account of the contest. Coach Weatherly and other officials are expecting one of the season's largest crowds to watch a great Mountaineer eleven in action. The locals are rolling along towards another impressive record, having only been defeated by one team during this season.

700 Attending Adult Schools In County

Mrs. Joe Liner, director of adult education in Haywood county, was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club last Friday.

Mrs. Liner gave briefly, an outline of the work in Haywood county, and some of the objectives which have been set for the coming years.

There are now 10 teachers in the county teaching 700 students, she said. She also told the Rotarians that Haywood county was only fourth from the bottom in North Carolina in rank in illiteracy. Twenty years ago this county was third from the bottom, having moved forward one place in 20 years.

WILDCAT VETERANS TO MEET IN KNOXVILLE 8th

Veterans of the historic 81st or Wildcat Division will meet in National Reunion in Knoxville, Tennessee November 8th to 11th.

It is fitting that these dates be selected as the division moved into Meuse Argonne Sector on November 8th and the division lost 1,200 of its personnel from that date to the 11th.
