Try At Home First Campaign Outlined To Betnel Students

"It is the local merchant, not the mail order house, that is interested in the activities of your school and your community," said William Medford, of Waynesville, in a talk to the Bether chool students last Wednesday, on the subject "Why it is Good Business o Try at Home First '

Mr. Medford was the third speaker to appear before the Bethel group, in connection with the "Try at Home First' campaign that is being spon-sored by the Waynesville Chamber of Commerce. The other two speakers were J. Dale Stentz and L. M. Richeson, both of Waynesville,

In his talk, Mr. Medford emphasized the following advantage of tryng at home first:

It enables the merchants to know your wants, and to stock accordingly. You can see exactly what you are

You can get wearing apparel that fits, and you can adjust misfits better than if you order from an outside

In concluding, Mr. Medford stated that he did not expect people to pay more for goods at home than they would have to pay elsewhere, provided that the goods were of the same quality, nor that they should refrain from buying things that they cannot

Mountaineers Take Black Bears In A Thrilling Game

Reeves and Sawyer Star For Waynesville; Flynn For Canton

By THOS. REEVES From Waynesville Ht-Life

Playing on a perfect day before a hrilled crowd of 2,500 people, Coach Weatherby's Mountaineers drove and passed their way to an 18-6 victory over the Canton Black Bears, coached by Charlie Poindexter, former Way nesville mentor. Both teams played excellent ball in all departments, displaying two well-oiled machines that really went to town when any alleyway was opened,

Canton drew first blood as soon as they got the ball. On the kick-off Waynesville failed to make a first down and Garrett Reeves quick-kicked to Canton's 47. In two attempts Flynn and Darnell gained 2 yards at the line. Then Darnell faded back to flip a beautiful pass to Owen for 25 yards. Darnell and Burch hit the line for a first down on Wavnesville's 11. Then the same stars made a first down on Waynesville's one-half yard line. Flynn went over Waynesville's left tackle for the first touchdown of the game. Gragg's pass for the extra point was knocked down.

Waynesville got possession of the ball on Canton's 40 soon after the second quarter opened. Yount got 10 vards, and Smith in a beautiful dash schind perfect interference gan 30 yards to score. A drive at the line failed to convert.

In a few minutes the Mountaineer got the ball on Canton's 45. A steady drive ended in a Waynesville score with Reeves going over from the 4 yard line. Sawyer's drop-kick was Returning in the second half leading 12-6, Waynesville got the ball on Canton's 26 vard line as Smith made a nice 15 yard return. Reeves added : yards and on the third play Smith passed to Yount for the final score of the game. Sawyer's drive failed to add the extra point.

Highlights Of The Game

"We will be back next year, trying to win," was the good-natured remark of a Canton fan, as 2,500 fans tried to leave the Waynesville Township Stadium at one time.

It was a good-natured crowd, and two good teams. Neither team had a man injured. This is unusual, when remembered that both teams blocked and tackled hard.

And the weather-just the answer to an ardent fan's prayer. It could not have been better.

Something like 750 fans from Canon were on hand to support their

The only disturbance of any kind happened during the last quarter-in the cornfield-two colored boys got to scrapping. There were no disturbances in the stadium.

Some fans became excited during the 3rd quarter when a dog trotted on the field. The players ignored him,

Father Lane took moving pictures of both the fans and teams throughout the game, while Homer Davis around on the sidelines took snap-
