Dear Santa,
I am 9 years old and in the fourth grade, my brother is 7 and in the second grade. We go to Pines Creek High School. Our teachers say we have been very good and we want you to bring us something that we want. For myself I want a dress, slippers and handkerchiefs, sweater and gloves, candy, nuts and fruits. My brother wants a cap buster, handkerchiefs, candy, nuts and fruits. Send us any kind of toys except a doll. We will be asleep when you come but you can find our stockings by the fireplace. Santa don't forget the poor girls and boys, bring them as much as you do us for we are sure they have been good, too.
We are looking forward to your visit to our school. Don't forget us.
Marcine and Paul Walker.
Clyde Route One.
