

SOCIETY :- CLUBS :- PERSONALS

PHONE 137

MRS. T. L. GWYN, Editor

PHONE 137

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY TO HOLD MEETING

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday evening in the auxiliary rooms in the American Legion Home. Hostesses of the occasion will be Mrs. Hurst Burgin, Mrs. Roy Phillips, and Mrs. Edna McGee.

MISS JUANITA BROWN BRIDE OF MR. RUFUS DOWNS

Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Brown, of Lake Junaluska, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Juanita Brown, to Mr. Rufus Downs, son of the late Mrs. Lloyd Downs, which took place on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. H. Vestal, Moravian minister, of Winston-Salem. Members of the two families witnessed the ceremony. Miss Dorothy Greene, of Waynesville, attended the bride. She wore a black crepe gown with contrasting accessories. The groom was attended by Mr. Henry Hooper, of Sanoak, as best man.

The bride was attired in a brown wool ensemble with matching accessories. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held, after which the couple left for a brief trip through the park and to points in Tennessee. Mr. Downs holds a position with the State Highway Commission, and is located in this section, where upon their return, the couple will reside.

MRS. BOSTON TENDERED FAREWELL PARTY

As a farewell courtesy to Mrs. G. F. Boston who leaves this week for New Bern, where she will join Mr. Boston for the winter, a group of friends surprised her on Saturday evening, with a miscellaneous shower. Among those present were: Mrs. W. A. Rollins, Mrs. Theodore McCracken, Mrs. R. S. Truesdale, Mrs. M. F. Albright, Mrs. W. S. Patterson, Mrs. J. E. Barr, Mrs. W. L. McCracken, Mrs. J. C. Rose, and Mrs. C. B. Hosaflook.

Mrs. Boston was presented with a number of lovely gifts, by those attending, and other friends.

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS FERGUSON AND MR. GREEN ANNOUNCED

Wide social interest will be attached to the announcement made on Saturday by General and Mrs. Harley Bascom Ferguson, of New Orleans and Waynesville, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Virginia Ferguson, to Mr. Otis Green, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Green, of Asheville. The wedding will take place sometime around the middle of January.

Owing to the fact that the Fergusons have such a wide circle of relatives and friends in Western North Carolina, and that the groom also belongs to a large Western Carolina family, the marriage will be solemnized at St. Lawrence Catholic church in Asheville and will be a large fashionable affair attended by many prominent people from the state as well as elsewhere.

Miss Ferguson is well known in Waynesville where she spends the summers with her family at the old Ferguson home, and has a host of friends here. She is a graduate of the Georgetown Visitation convent in Washington, D. C., and the University of North Carolina, where she was a member of the Pi Beta Phi fraternity.

Since finishing school she has been residing with her family in New Orleans. General Ferguson, outstanding in the engineering department of the United States Army, is at present president of the Mississippi River Commission and has for several years been in charge of engineering work on the Mississippi, where he maintains headquarters at Vicksburg, while the family have been living in New Orleans.

Miss Ferguson is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William B. Ferguson, beloved and prominent couple of Waynesville, and a grand niece of the late Judge and Mrs. Garland S. Ferguson, and is a niece of Mr. Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newport News Ship Building and Dry Dock Company, of Newport News.

Mr. Green is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Green, of Asheville. He was graduated at Riverside Military Academy of Gainesville, Ga., and from Duke University in the class of 1932, and is a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity. He was a member of the King's Court of the Rhododendron Festival in 1933 and in 1934, first gentleman in waiting, and was in the 1935 festival. He is now regimental colonel in the Royal Brigade of guards of the Rhododendron Kingdom.

Mr. Green is a member of the junior board of stewards of Central Methodist church, a director in the Asheville Merchants association, secretary and treasurer of the Patton avenue corporation, and is also associated with his father in the Otis Green Hardware Company. His father is a former president of the Asheville Chamber of Commerce, and is widely known in the civic affairs of Asheville. His mother is a prominent member of several patriotic and club organizations in Asheville.

MISS BONNIE BRENDEL BRIDE OF MR. C. G. RAYLE

Mr. J. H. N. Brendle announces the marriage of his daughter, Miss Bonnie Avis Brendle, to Mr. Champ Grant Rayle, of Canton and Elizabethton, Tenn., which was solemnized at the Presbyterian manse in Canton, on Saturday afternoon, December the 3rd at 3 o'clock. Rev. George B. Hammond, pastor of the church, pronounced the vows.

Only a small group of relatives and close friends attended the ceremony. The bride is a graduate of the Robert Burns Hospital, of Chicago, and took post graduate work at the Charity Hospital, of New Orleans. She is now a member of the nursing staff of the Haywood County Hospital, and has many friends in this section.

The groom is a native of Tennessee, and has been connected with the Champion Fibre Company, of Canton, as a master machinist.

The young couple will make their home in Waynesville.

Miss Frances Robeson is a guest at the home of Miss Jessie Herren during the absence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Robeson, who are spending sometime in Newport News, Va., as the guests of their sons and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Robeson, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Robeson.

MUSIC CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

The November meeting of the Waynesville Music Club, which was changed from the Saturday following Thanksgiving, to Wednesday of this week, was held in the Welch Memorial building of the First Baptist church, with Mrs. Lawrence Green and Mrs. Thomas Spurlock as associate hostesses. Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, president, presided.

During the business session Mrs. Charles Gullely, of the voice department of the Western Carolina Teachers College, gave the report of the recent district meeting held in Hendersonville. The members were much gratified over the selection of Mrs. Grover C. Wilkes, who was elected to succeed Mrs. William Ray Griffith as president of the district.

The subject under study was Polyphonic Music, with Mrs. Grover C. Wilkes as leader of the afternoon. Mrs. Wilkes gave an interesting outline of the various stages of polyphonic music from its earliest beginnings with two voices, down to its highest form.

She discussed at length the music of Bach, who developed this form of music to its peak standard. At intervals her talk was illustrated with numbers as follows:

One of the earliest musical compositions written in the polyphonic style, "Summer Is I-cumen," was sung by a group of selected voices from the Waynesville Choral Club, directed by Mr. Evander Preston.

From the "Messiah," one of the greatest pieces of polyphonic music ever written, Mrs. Charles Gully sang two numbers, Mrs. Evander Preston played a Bach "Fugue" in C Minor.

Miss Virginia Gustafson, teacher of violin at the Western Carolina Teachers College, gave two violin selections, "Air on G String by Bach, and two movements from Handel's Sonata in G.

The Waynesville Choral Club gave several other greatly enjoyed numbers. Announcement was made that the next meeting would be held with Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Jr., the Saturday before Christmas and would be held in the evening with a Christmas program.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED WITH PARTY SATURDAY

On Saturday evening Mrs. H. W. Hart, of Bryson City, Mrs. Carolina Dyatt, and Miss Harte Oliver, entertained with a linen shower, followed by contract, as a courtesy to Mrs. Howard Clapp, public health nurse, of Jackson county, and recent bride. The affair was given in the lounge of the Waynesville Country Club, which was attractively arranged in Christmas greens.

Prizes were awarded in a novel manner at intervals after a certain number of hanks were played. Among those winning prizes were: Mrs. Jean T. Dillon, Mr. John Cuddeback, Mr. Ben Sloan, Mrs. Howard Clapp, Mr. T. Lenoir Gwyn, Mrs. George Kunze, Dr. Z. P. Mitchell, of Bryson City, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, and Mr. Howard Clapp.

The guests included the following: Mr. and Mrs. George Kunze, Mr. and Mrs. John Cuddeback, Mrs. C. N. Sisk, Miss Nell Nash, of Franklin, Mrs. Elizabeth Tudor and Mr. Roy Crouse, of Burnsville, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clapp, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan, of Sylva, Mrs. Jean T. Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, Mr. Sam Mitchell, and Dr. Z. P. Mitchell, of Bryson City.

EAST WAYNESVILLE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION TO MEET

The Parent-Teacher Association of the East Waynesville school, will meet tonight in the school auditorium, at 8 o'clock. All patrons are urged to attend.

Mrs. James Tutwiler and Mrs. W. G. Byers were among those spending Friday in Asheville.

Dr. C. N. Sisk has returned from Atlanta, where he visited his mother.

Mr. George Stentz, student at Brevard College, was the guest over the week-end of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Dale Stentz.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan and young daughter, Linda, spent the week-end in town with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bushnell.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD DECEMBER MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Thursday, December the 17th, in the assembly rooms of the American Legion Home. Mrs. S. P. Gay, president, will preside. A special Christmas program has been prepared.

Hostesses of the afternoon will be: Mrs. John M. Queen, Mrs. James M. Long, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Grover C. Davis, and Mrs. Homer Henry.

The plans for the Community Christmas tree which the club with the assistance of Mr. Oscar Briggs, sponsors each year for the underprivileged children of the town, will be discussed. Each member is asked to come to the meeting prepared to make a donation to the fund of $50.00 which is to be raised.

MEN OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ENJOY SUPPER MEETING

The men of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a supper meeting on Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Richeson.

Following the serving of supper the Rev. P. N. Gresham, pastor of the Kenilworth Presbyterian church, of Asheville, addressed the group.

MRS. MCCrackEN PATIENT IN BILTMORE HOSPITAL

The condition of Mrs. J. Rufus McCracken, who has been a patient in the Biltmore Hospital for the past two weeks, remains about the same.

Mrs. Fred Corn, of Asheville, who has been confined to her bed with influenza at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Limer, is improving.

THE NEW GLEAM SHAMPOO 10c Extra

Permanents At Holiday Prices

Regular $5.00 to $10.00 At

$3.50 to $6.50

The Personality Beauty Shop

RUTH CRAIG, Mgr. PHONE 306

Santa Claus--- Uncles and Aunts

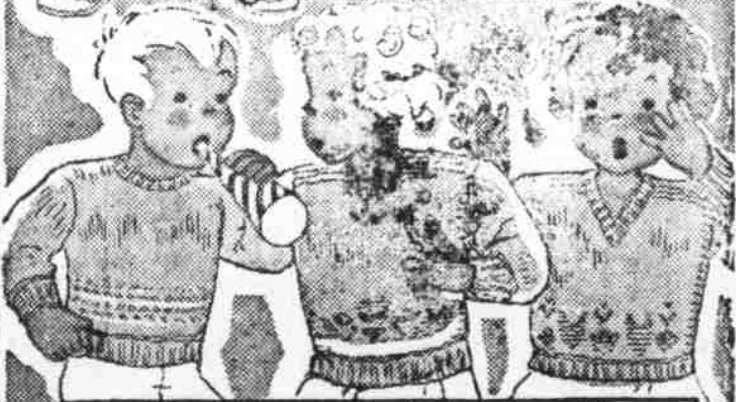

Cannot Do Better Than To Buy

Snow Suits, Coats, Sweaters.

And Other Clothing For The Kiddies.

We can show you a large selection of lovely things.

SHOES TOO, MAKE MOST ACCEPTABLE GIFTS

LOVELY COAT AND BERET SETS

Blues, Pinks, Whites, Tans—Sizes 1 to 4

Ski Pants and Suits

Everything For The Kiddie

Shirley Temple Dresses, Hats and Berets.

C. E. RAY'S SONS

When Quality Is Desired Visit THE JO ANN

40% cut on all permanents from this week through the Christmas Holidays.

For professional hair tinting, permanent waving, finger waving, and manicuring, see Miss Eldis MacDonald.

For excellent shampoos, scalp treatments and facials, see Miss Virginia Nelson.

For artistic hair cutting, marcelling, and permanent waving, see Mr. Claud C. Brown.

No substitution of Supplies, Expert Operators, Courteous Attention.

PHONE 63

Christmas SALE OF Ready-to-Wear

Reductions have been made generally on fall numbers of dresses, coats, and hats, and our customers are invited to take advantage of the marked savings offered.

Fur Trimmed Coats At Most Attractive Prices

Two Fur Coats at Sacrifice Prices

NELLY DON DRESSES SHARPLY REDUCED

THE SELECTION OFFERED IS ATTRACTIVE

Attractive Christmas Gifts

In selecting Christmas items, our Ready-to-Wear Department has found many things that are lovely yet modest in price and useable in nature.

Visit with us and let us show you.

Men Will Find Gift Buying Easier Here

C. E. Ray's Sons