HARVEST DAY DINNER GIVEN BY METHODIST WOMEN

As a closing feature of the past year's activities of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church, a dinner meeting was held on Tuesday night in the banquet hall of the church. Around sixty-five women were in attendance.

The long tables were attractively decorated in Christmas greens, with the red and green noted in the various appointments.

Mrs. Rufus Siler, who has so ably served the organization for the past year, presided. Mrs. S. H. Bushnell gave a toast to Mrs. James Atkins, Jr., chairman, and the members of her circle, who have scored highest on all points, during the past year, to which Mrs. Atkins responded.

Mrs. J. Dale Stentz gave a toast to Mrs. Siler out-going president, in which she cited some of the work accomplished during her term of office.

Mrs. M. H. Bowles had charge of the devotional period, which was opened with assembly singing. Mrs. Fred Martin accompanied by Mrs. W. L. Matney gave a vocal selection, and Miss Frances Robeson gave an impressive reading, "My Gift Complete."

A business session followed, at which time the annual reports were given, and the names for the circles for the coming year were drawn, with

Mrs. Mary Fie, 88, Buried Last Mon.

Last rites were conducted on Monday at the Methodist church, of Maggie, for Mrs. Mary C. Huntley Fie, 88, who died suddenly early Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Don Carpenter. The officiating ministers were: Rev. Dennis Rev. C. D. McHaffey, and Rev. J. P. White. Burial was in the Phillips cemetery.

Pallbearers were the grandsons of Mrs. Fie as follows: Frank Fie, Frank McHaffey, Walter Fie, Hebe Fie, and Conley McHaffey. Great granddaughters had charge of the flowers.

Mrs. Fie was born in Mitchell county on Jan. 15, 1848 and was the widow the late John Fie, a Confederate veteran. At an early age she had joined the church and for 77 years had been a faithful and active member. She was at all times interested in the affairs of her community.

Surviving are seven children: Mrs. J. W. Moore, of Bridgeton, N. J., Mrs. Columbus Bradley, of Warren, N. C., Mrs. Don Carpenter, of Maggie, Noble Fie, of Canton Ohio, and Abe, Allen, and General Fie, of Maggie; 39 grandchildren, one hundred and eleven great grandchildren, and six great, great grandchildren.

Pigeon St. School Loses Two Games

The first basketball game ever played at the Pigeon Street colored schools was played against Canton last week, in which the Waynesville girls lost by a score of 4 to 14. The boys lost to Sylva by a score of 8 to 18.

Sutton, Casey and Foster were Waynesville's stars for the boys, while Casey, Wilson and Love lead the attack for the Waynesville girls.

The teams have been in training for 6 weeks under the new principal, Homer Kempf, who was proud of their showing.
