MOUNTAIN JOE

As I set down to pen off this regular note to my friends, the rain is falling, and the roads are muddy, and about the last thing you would think of on such a day is drewing up.

This matter of dressing up is more important than most of us think. Our appearances indicate whether or not we take pride in ourselves.

Now you men, you know should make a better impression when you are neatly dressed, so why not stop in and ask Ote Burgin to show you them new Merit Suits. that he has just got in for spring? They are nifty suits and they don't cost much.
