MRS. CHAS. E. QUINLAN HOSTESS TO D. A. R. CHAPTER

The April meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan, at Prospect Hill. Quantities of lovely arrangements of spring flowers adorned the rooms. The Regent, Mrs. J. F. Abel, presided.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell reported that the good citizenship medals which were annually presented to the outstanding boy and girl of the senior class of the high school, would be given on April the 30th. She also stated that in behalf of the chapter she was giving a copy of Haskins History of the United States Government to the boy making the best grade in history.

A discussion regarding the completion of the marking of the graves of the members of the chapter buried in Green Hill cemetery was held. It was decided to complete the work, and Mrs. B. J. Sloan and Mrs. W. F. Swift were appointed to have charge of the marking.

Mrs. Abel thanked the chapter for the regent's pin which she wore to the state meeting. The pin is the property of the chapter, and is to be worn by each regent during her term of office.

Mrs. James W. Killian had charge of the program. She introduced Mrs. J. M. Kellett, who gave an illuminating paper on the outstanding events in the history of the D. A. R. She outlined the most important pieces of work that had been accomplished by each state society, Porto Rico and the Panama Canal.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell gave a full account of the state meeting held in Charlotte, and the various new phases of the work to be undertaken by the society. She also told of the movement sponsored by the local chapter, and then by the state group to ask that the park service move William Morris and his century and a half fire into the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Mrs. J. W. Killian also told of the meeting, confining most of her remarks to the North Carolina room.

Following adjournment the guests were invited into the dining room, where tea was served from a table with a central arrangement of yellow and white flowers, with Mrs. J. F. Abel and Mrs. S. H. Bushnell pouring. Others assisting in serving were: Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan, Miss Alice Quinlan, Mrs. J. W. Seaver, and Mrs. W. F. Swift.

Special guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. E. J. Robeson, Miss Frances Robeson, Mrs. G. C. Plott, Mrs. R. L. Coin, Miss Robena Miller, Mrs. Chas. E. Ray, Mrs. Maria Mitchell, Mrs. J. M. Kellett, and Mrs. McCall, of Cincinnati.
