Lesson for May 2

ABRAHAM A MAN OF FAITH

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 12:1-9; 13:14-18. GOLDEN TEXT—By faith, Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed. Hebrews 11:8. PRIMARY TOPIC—A Friend of God. JUNIOR TOPIC—A Hebrew Pioneer. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Adventurous Faith. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Creative Faith.

One of the greatest characters in all human history comes before us today in the person of Abraham. He is venerated by Christian, Jew, and Mohammedan alike. His personal history is replete with interest and instruction. But his claim to an outstanding place in history is broader than any of these things, for he was the one by whom God called out a nation for himself and began his dealings in sovereign grace which continue to our day. In choosing Abraham God began the history of the Jewish people, his chosen nation. They were called by him to be not only a national witness to the one true God, but also to be the repository for his truth (the Holy Scriptures) in the earth, and, above all, to be the channel for the coming of the Redeemer to the earth.

Our lesson, however, centers on the faith of Abraham. As the Golden Text (Heb. 11:8) indicates, it was by faith that Abraham responded to the call of God. That call came to him in his father's house in Mesopotamia (Acts 7:2, 3). His partial obedience brought delay at Haran (Gen. 11:31), and wasted years, but in Genesis 12 we find his complete obedience and resultant blessing.

The study of faith is always fascinating. Faith is the thing in man that pleases God. He is quick to honor our trust in Him. Unbelief shuts the door not only to blessing, but also to usefulness.

I. Faith Calls for Separation, Obedience, and Worship.

1. Separation (Gen. 12:1). "Get thee out" was God's command to Abraham. It is his command to his followers today. "Come out from among them and be ye separate, saith the Lord" (II Cor. 6:17). This is the crying need of the church in our day. Instead of the church's being in the world seeking to win it for Christ, the world has come into the church and destroyed much of its vital testimony.

2. Obedience (Gen. 12:4,5). "So Abram departed, as the Lord had spoken." Faith obeys God, without question, without hesitation, and without reservation. We need a revival of obedience in the home, in society, and in our relation to God.

3. Worship (Gen. 12:7, 13-18). "There builded he an altar unto the Lord." Faith in God is far more than the psychologist's preaching of self-confidence. It results in fellowship with God, reliance upon him, not on one's own strength of personality. Faith worships God.

II. Faith Results in Blessing, Protection, and Liberty.

1. Blessing (12:2,3). "I will bless," said God. "The Lord's commands are rarely accompanied with reasons, but they are always accompanied with promises, either expressed or understood."

In the case of Abraham the promise was not only to him, and to the nation of which he was the father, but to "all families of the earth." That promise was fulfilled in the coming of Christ to earth to be our Redeemer (Matt. 1:1).

2. Protection (12:3). "I will . . . curse him that curseth thee." That promise to the seed of Abraham is still true. The nations have forgotten it in their hatred of the Jew, but God has not forgotten. The promise is equally true in the case of those who follow Christ, "the son of Abraham." His protecting hand is over us even in the dark hour when it looks as though the hosts of Satan had conquered.

3. Liberty (13:14-17). "All the land . . . will I give." After many and varied experiences in which Abraham proves God's grace and power, he comes out into a place of unlimited liberty.

The man who boasts of his "personal liberty," who feels that he is free from the "bondage of religion," is in fact a slave to the enemy of his soul. And the man who becomes "the bondsman of Jesus Christ," he alone is free. None is more fettered than he who shouts "I am the captain of my fate. I am the master of my soul." And none is so free as he who can say, "Christ is the Captain of my fate, the Master of my soul."

Deciding What Not to Do Men must decide on what they will not do, and then they are able to act with vigor in what they ought to do.—Mencius.

God's Way God can act where we cannot even think, out of resources that we know nothing about.

Strength of Character He who is firm and resolute in will moulds the world to himself.—Goethe.

Dressmaking Contest Won By Mary Long

The 12th annual dressmaking contest held for the girls of the Waynesville Township High School, sponsored by the Woman's Club, took place on Thursday.

Mrs. M. G. Stamey, chairman of the American citizenship committee of the club, presided, and Mrs. S. P. Gay, president, presented the prizes.

Mary Long, member of the freshman class, won the cash prize of $2.00 given by the club. Others winning the dress materials contributed by the merchants were: Louise Leatherwood, Virginia Kellett, Helen Llye, and Mary Calhoun.

Serving as judges of the dresses were: Mrs. James W. Killian, Mrs. F. A. Worthington, and Mrs. D. M. Beatty.

The following merchants donated the dress materials: C. E. Ray's Sons, Massie's Department Store, C. N. Allen and Company, and W. A. Bradley.

Champion Fibre Employees Join In Safety Program

Enlistments in the 1937 Mobilization for Highway Safety program sponsored by the Carolina Motor Club are pouring into headquarters in Charlotte by the thousands, it has been announced. To date more than 12,000 Carolinians have pledged themselves to drive carefully and walk safely and those who maintain no-accident records throughout the year will be presented with certificates of award.

Five large industrial plants in Western North Carolina, including the Champion Fibre Co., at Canton, through their safety engineers, are enlisting their employees 100 per cent in the mobilization.

R. E. Sentelle Denies Charges Of Sheriff

The following was taken from The State, Raleigh: Mr. Sentelle is well known in Haywood county, being a native of the county, and has many relatives here:

Vigorous denial was the answer of Representative R. E. Sentelle of Brunswick county to the charge of the Montgomery county sheriff that the lawmaker drove his car near Biscoe in an intoxicated condition. In fact, Mr. Sentelle said he did not even know he had been arrested. Sheriff Earl Bruton placed the representative under $100 bond after saying he had caught Mr. Sentelle zig-zagging down the highway. A political dry with the general reputation of being a personal dry, Mr. Sentelle said he was "riding along the road with his wife and we were frolicking and joking a little bit. I guess that's why my car was zig-zagging." The sheriff allowed Mr. Sentelle to proceed, said the representative, adding: "He didn't say I was drunk, and if he arrested me I don't know it."

RUMANIAN TEMPEST

The Rumanian royal family's troubles bubbled over into politics last week when King Carol, II, stripped his brother, Prince Nicholas, of royal status, titles and military rank and ordered him to quit the country. The ostensible reason was that Nicholas refused to renounce the commoner wife he married seven years ago and with whom he was exiled in 1931, only to be returned at the demand of the army in 1933.

Navy Requests A Sum Of $48,206,000

With the approval of President Roosevelt the Navy Department asked Congress to provide $48,206,000 to begin construction on an aircraft ship program estimated to cost $250,000,000.

The action, coming on the heels of the President's economy message, indicated the determination of the administration to achieve a full navy.

In his message the President defended American expenditures for national defense, asserting that they far less than the expenditures of other nations, and said that an adequate national defense must be maintained.

HENRY FORD HONORED

Henry Ford has been elected president of the Chauffeurs Union of Ecuador, and last week the Ecuadorian Minister to the United States it be known that he had been commissioned to present Mr. Ford the document testifying to his election. Whether or not a union card was included was not stated.

LAST RITES IN NEW YORK

Funeral expenses in New York are said to average about $400 a week the legislature had before bills which would establish minimum funeral authorities to perform the rites at low prices. Proponents of measures had studied European practices with such public authorities.
