... questions seem to predominate... all discussions with refer... to Congressional activities... What will be the final out... of the President's court plan? ... progress will be made on the... President's proposal to reorganize the... of the government? ... the President's relief recommend... be followed, or will the $1,500... be proposed be raised or lowered? ... new tax legislation be brought... now or at the next session? ... will Congress adjourn?

... seems to be no political wiz... who can answer these questions... at this time. However, all... the subject of much comment and... of vital interest to all citizens... general opinion seems to be some... as follows:

COURT PLAN—Congressional... indicates that interest in the... proposal is still keen in some... of the country and is lag... in others. This may be due to... that often marks important... between the time of public... and a report to Congress by... committee handling the measure... moment there is no indication... the President will offer or ac... compromise. Her Act Cools

Diana Raye

When Diana Raye, well-known to American burlesque fans, attempted to introduce her strip-tease act to London audiences, it was met with coolness, and threats of censorship, banning and what not. Miss Raye is seen telling her troubles to the press in London.

... will not go beyond the billion and a half recommended in the President's budget message. They may be lowered under the new urge for Federal economy and a balanced budget now sweeping cities and cross-roads, factory and farm.

TAXES—Two schools of thought prevail with reference to Federal revenue. One is to attempt tax revision at the current session so that business, industry and agriculture... The other enactment of excise levies, until the next session convening in January. Final decision on taxes will be largely based on the economy moves and the total of the relief bill as it emerges from the House Committee.

ADJOURNMENT—Here again opinion varies and adjournment dates in current discussions vary from July to October. It must be kept in mind, however, that a great number of the members of Congress maintain homes in Washington on a year-round basis. For these, the idea of a break in the session—that is adjournment from say July to September—is not so attractive. Others favor such a break in what has been a difficult session, not from the standpoint of legislation enacted, but from the standpoint of uncertainty and efforts to properly proceed with the legislative structure as recovery nears. At the present time, adjournment in September seems to be the prevailing thought. But developments might change this situation at a moment's notice.

Many of the questions can be properly answered after the return of the President. He may have in mind new recommendations to Congress that would change the present picture. Thus, the home-coming of President Roosevelt from his much-needed vacation, around May 15, may have an important effect on the affairs of government.

HERE and THERE

By HILDA WAY GWYN

Women were the topic of conversation... her fads and fancies of to-day... what she had gained in her effort to stand side by side with men on an equal footing... what she had lost... her strength... her weaknesses... everything from the length of her skirts to her morals... and the next day the following was handed to me to use in this column... you may have read it... if so—pass it up... if not... you might find enlightenment in the origin of some of the habits of the feminine world... I would dislike to think that all women were so lacking in mental poise... and had so few resources within themselves for happiness... as this picture of the woman of to-day...

"She copies the coolie women of the Chinese bazaar in plucking her eyebrows... the Siamese peasant in bobbing her hair... the Arab in letting her nails grow like claws... and painting them a hideous red... the courtesan in painting all visible parts of her anatomy... and in painting and powdering herself in public, betrays incredible vulgarity... She is so restless that she cannot sit peacefully at home; she cannot eat her meals without smoking and is unhappy unless she is at the cinema or dancing, or playing cards."

The Great Smoky Mountains National Park will have a rival attraction in the state this summer... when the "Lost Colony"... a recently written pageant drama by Paul Green, well-known author, will be presented on the sandy shores near Fort Raleigh, down in Dare county... President Roosevelt has accepted an invitation... and it is estimated that at least 50,000 visitors will view this 350th celebration of the landing of Sir Walter Raleigh's first English colonists, which begins July 4th, and lasts through Labor Day, Sept. 6... this attempted settlement was made 33 years before the Pilgrim Fathers landed at Plymouth Rock and if it had happened in New England... we might know much more about it... than we do...

Mrs. Gay talked on beautification at the Chamber of Commerce banquet... it is as popular as the weather for an item of discussion in this community... and we have done as little about changing one as we have the other... do not get me wrong... individually we have done much... there are many lovely gardens... beautiful lawns... and well kept places... but as regards a co-operative community plan to be followed... we have done practically nothing of permanent value... I mean a definite plan of community beautification, that will take in the frontage on the highways... with a responsibility of the owners... in some instances to be shared co-operatively... of planting... in the long run it might pay us to engage the services of a landscape artist... and start at once... for all gardeners know that it often takes years to get desired effects... and as Mrs. Gay pointed out it would be worth thousands of dollars... and as R. L. Prevost also told us... whatever you do... it pays to make it distinctive...

News Briefs... Girl Scout Week... all scouts in uniforms... brand new... and their owners justly proud... Sunday—impressive Mother's Day programs at all the churches... and the graves in Green Hill of those "who have gone ahead" remembered... Mrs. Charles E. Ray introduced as the mother of three past presidents of the Chamber of Commerce... given great applause... the new home of Chandler Jewelers...

an addition to Main street... a spotlessly clean place to eat... is W. W. N. C. Cafe... freshly painted... have you made your pledge to the Chamber of Commerce?... we welcome to town Mr. Beddingfield... of Summerville, S. C., who has taken the Palmer House... and is also operating the dining room of the Hotel LeFaine... may he never have cause to regret he has cast his lot with us for a year... we hope he will find everything so favorable... that he will prolong his stay... from the reports that have traveled ahead of Mr. Beddingfield we are convinced that he will be an asset to the town...

TO DIVIDE STATE INTO ROAD DISTRICTS MAY 11

Frank I. Dunlap, chairman, said the new highway and public works commission expected to district the state under the 1937 law at its first call meeting on May 11. Little business of any kind, Dunlap said, can be done except continue present operations until the districts have been set up.

MASSIE'S General Electric Headquarters

It Took 26 Years To Build This G-E

This Is IMPORTANT!
Only the General Electric refrigerator has an oil-cooled motor. In the south that is VERY important. No matter how hot the weather becomes or for how long, a G-E unit NEVER becomes overheated causing expensive repairs. To prove this we offer 5 YEARS PERFORMANCE PROTECTION.

You Will Always Be Glad You Bought A G-E.

Why Take Chances?
With every General Electric refrigerator we have sold has gone our own unqualified guarantee and the guarantee of the General Electric Company. Ask yourself, "How can I go wrong on a G-E?" The answer is, you can't. Right now is the time to buy that new G-E—and let the other fellow take the chances!

A G-E Saves You Money Three Ways
With the new G-E you save on price, you save on Current, you save on Upkeep... and you save on the cost of "gadgets." You don't need any with a G-E. Everything is there, better than you can buy separately! No other refrigerator can offer you the same economies you get in a General Electric!

Here Are NEW PROVED Features

- There are 15 G-E models—One for your family and pocketbook.
- New, full-width sliding shelves. Even the top shelf slides.
- New thrift-mometer shows at a glance that temperature is correct.
- New, faster freezing speeds.
- New, easy-out ice cube trays with faster freezing speeds.
- NEW TERMS that permit the G-E to pay its own way by the economy it brings.
