

WAYSIDE LODGE OPEN FOR SEASON

Announcement is made this week of the opening of the dining room of Wayside Lodge, as well as the rooming facilities of the hotel, for the summer season of 1937.

The Lodge this year is managed by Mr. and Mrs. J. William Irion of Clearwater, Fla., who operate the West Coast Hotel of that City. They have been operating this popular resort and commercial hotel for the past ten years.

This season they were attracted to Western North Carolina, and selected Waynesville as the most promising location in this section.

They plan to operate the Lodge on the American and European plan at moderate rates. Good food will be featured in the dining room, with a variety of unusual dishes not served in hotels in this section. Special invitation is extended the local people to avail themselves of the service offered by the dining room.

Cam Morrison Might Get in Senate Race

Former Senator Cameron Morrison, who makes periodic visits to Washington, is spending this week in the capital. He declined to make a definite statement as to whether or not he will enter the senatorial race in 1939. While he is making no statement, it is generally understood that he is convinced that Senator Robert R. Reynolds can and will be defeated in 1939.

Travel In Nation Reaches High Peak

It has been estimated that more than 10,000,000 persons this year will "sight see" the cities and country of North America. Nearly 3,000,000 will ride in streamlined sight-seeing buses and spend upwards of $6,000,000. A fleet of more than 5,000 parlor coaches guided by trained lecturers will care for many sight seers this year. Now that business is on the up grade it is revealed by travel agencies that never in the history of this country has as much travel been anticipated as this year.

Rats Stop Sales At Liquor Store

Wilmington.—Rats have stopped the sale of legal liquor in Onslow county's liquor store at Richlands. The rodents recently made a feast of the federal tax stamps on the liquor bottles and sale of liquor in those bottles has been stopped by the department of internal revenue. Raymond D. Christman, deputy collector of internal revenue here, will visit the store this week and make some arrangements which will enable the store to dispose of the damaged bottles, he said.

F. D. R. And Wife Shake Hands With 16,650 People

While New Year's Day with long lines of handshaking has been eliminated at the White House during the Roosevelt regime, handshaking has still been the vogue of many occasions. It was announced last week that during the past year, President and Mrs. Roosevelt have shaken hands with 16,650 persons at regular White House functions.
