WEDDING OF LOCAL MAN ANNOUNCED IN SAN DIEGO

Announcement has recently been made of the marriage of Lt. Jack Edwards, U. S. Navy, to Miss Mildred Schriber, of San Diego, which took place in that city on June 3rd.

Lt. and Mrs. Edwards are en route to Waynesville, where they will visit the groom's mother, Mrs. Tom Edwards.

Lt. Edwards is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, and has made a splendid record during his service in the navy.

MISS ELLEN LOUISE KILLIAN HONORED WITH TEA

Among the many delightful courtesies with which Miss Ellen Louise Killian has been honored since the announcement of her approaching marriage, was a tea given by Mrs. J. Harden Howell at her home, Windover, on Wednesday afternoon. The house was arranged throughout with quantities of flowers.

Mrs. E. L. Withers greeted the guests in the main reception hall, from which they were taken to the drawing room, where they were presented to the receiving line by Mrs. James W. Killian. Receiving with the hostess and Miss Killian, were the attendants, Miss Kathryn Queen, maid of honor, and Miss Martha Bobbitt, of Raleigh, and Miss Marietta Way, bridesmaids. Here bouquets of roses were advantageously placed.

Mrs. LeRoy Davis and Mrs. Roy Francis directed the guests to the dining room. The central table was covered with an imported lace cloth, and was centered by a crystal bowl of pink and white roses and white snap dragons. Crystal holders with white tapers further adorned the table. Miss Nancy Killian, Miss Jewel Hipps, Mrs. S. P. Gay, Miss Hester Anne Withers, Miss Tillie Rotha, and Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., received and served.

Mrs. J. W. Seaver and Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick directed the guests from the dining room to the library, where punch was served from a table arranged with roses and sweet peas. Vases of mixed garden flowers were also used in the room. Mrs. R. N. Barber, Mrs. W. F. Swift, and Miss Lois Harrold presided.

During the afternoon a musical program was rendered by Miss Mildred Crawford, Miss Ida Jean Brown and Miss Grace Crocker. A large number of guests called between the hours from four to five-thirty o'clock.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY HELD MEETING TUESDAY

The American Legion Auxiliary held the regular meeting on Tuesday night, with the opening ceremonies held jointly with the Legion post.

During the business session communications were read from Mrs. Anderson, state president, and Miss Aurelia Adams, state secretary and treasurer, thanking the unit for the successful area meeting, of which the local group served as hostess.

Mrs. Camp presented the $5.00 in cash and the citation won by the auxiliary in the recent membership contest.

Mrs. Eli McGee gave a report of the poppy sale. A rising vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. E. B. Camp for her untiring work as president for the past four years.

The following officers were elected to serve for the coming year: President, Mrs. Hurst Burgin; 1st vice president, Mrs. E. B. Camp; 2nd vice president, Mrs. T. G. Massie; secretary, Mrs. J. C. Brown; treasurer, Mrs. M. C. Green; chaplain, Mrs. W. T. Crawford, and sergeant at arms, Miss Ida Jean Brown.

The auxiliary joined the legion for the installation service of the newly organized Boy Scout troop, which is sponsored by the legion.

A joint social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. George Plott, Mrs. M. C. Green, and Mrs. T. L. Bramlett as associate hostesses.

DORCAS BELL LOVE CHAPTER HOLDS LAST MEETING

The last meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter for the year 1936-37 was held on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. Faucette Swift, at her home on the Fairview Road. Mrs. J. F. Abel, regent, presided. Bowls of flowers of a variety of shades were used in the rooms.

Interesting reports of the past year's activities were presented by the officers and chairmen, with the regent also outlining the plans for the coming year.

A letter from Continental Hall was read relative to a reprint of the back numbers of the lineage book, not owned by the chapter. Motion was made to write and ask headquarters that the purchase of these books be delayed until the fall, when the matter could again be taken up by the chapter.

Mrs. E. B. Camp had the paper of the afternoon, "The History of the Flag and the Use of it." Mrs. Camp revealed many interesting facts relative to the origin of the national flag. She also told of the proper use of the flag for various occasions.

Mrs. J. E. Henderson gave a review of the National magazine, reading in full the message of the president general.

Following adjournment during the social hour Mrs. Swift was assisted by her sister, Miss Nancy Killian, and her daughter, Miss Haseltine Swift.

From 8,000 to 9,000 cards an hour are being printed from metal plates for records for workers in North Carolina by a "speedomat" machine in the offices of the state unemployment compensation commission.
