"I ity and good-will we should not find a solution, and leave Spain to settle her own future."

King And Queen Pay High Tribute As They Make Visit In Scotland

Guns boomed from Edinburgh Castle last week, as King George VI and Queen Elizabeth entered the Scottish capital for their first visit since the coronation. To Scotts the royal stay at the palace had special meaning for Queen Elizabeth is one of their own and the first Scotswoman to be the consort of a British king in more than 800 years. An 84-year-old sergeant who greeted the royal couple at a review of ex-service men said to the queen. "You're a bonnie lass. I wish I'd courted you myself." Queen mind, with historic Glamis Castle, built in the eleventh century for the Scottish Crown and owned today by much of her girlhood. And it was of America, claiming an initial memto Glamis that Elizabeth, as Duch- bership of 4,300. ess of York, returned in 1930 for the birth of Princess Margaret Rose, the first royal heir to be born in Scotland since the birth of Charles Stuart in 1600.

Social Security Staff In Haywood Laden With Work

Office Will Be Unable To Handle Any More Applications Until Sometime In August

Owing to the number of inquiries being made at the offices of the superntendent of public welfare, of Haytood county, the following information has been section from that office regarding the method of obtaining assistance under the Sar at Security act

Public assistance under the Social Security act means and to the needy aged and needy bind, and to the dependent children, through plans made. and administered by the separate states with county and Federal co-cperation. This Federal-State public assistance program is a long-time, farcaching plan, designed to do us a tore effective why what either states, minutes and cause have for many cars been doing single banded.

The purpose is to provide from public unds for old people who are in want, for the needy bland, and ros enthren under sixteen who have lest the support of their natural local winners. Determining eligibility necessitation the rough discussion of the manual status of the applicant, not only the total ancount of the amplicant is to be considered, but the meone of the family group, with which the uppl. eam resides. Brothers, section, secdiughters, and other responsibly win ives are repeated to surpost the cheant if they are able;

The amount each applicant shall receive will be debecomined by this board and the case work staff after considering the new and the amount of funds available state and government to match course ands. The county will pay one-fourth the state one fourth and the govern ment one-half of these grants.

The procedure will be as follows: The people now receiving cash pay Wuz up at Maggie t'other day, an' ments for assistance by the county qualified by the state to do this work and investigation and verification of each statement on the blank will be made. A definite need will be established before each case will be considered eligible to receive assistance.

When the case worker has verified these facts, they will be brought before the county board of public welfare and they will pass on each individual case, and approve or reject both On For Entire Year eligibility and grant recommended, as information will justify according to ples and policies set up by the It will be a year on Sunday since Whether approved or rejected, a spethe bitter civil war flared up in Spain. cial form will be used to notify the load. There are probably 40 people in Haywood county, who are now receiving assistance who will be eligible for old age assistance, and the office will not be able to handle more than these during July. Not until sometime in August will the office be able to receive any other applications and these lieve anybody wants to start a Euro- at the rate of only a few a day. Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, superintendent of don't see why with a little ingenu- county welfare, for Haywood, suggests that these new applications in August be made by appointment only, and then long waits and rush in the office will not retard the work for either party.

The federal board under the act provided that the maximum grant could not be more than $30.00 a month. However funds available established a maximum average grant for Haywood county of $12.20 for old age assistance, including the one-fourth and one-half paid by the state and federal funds, and averaging $5.88 per child for aid to dependent children.
