ANNIVERSARY TEA LARGELY ATTENDED

A delightful affair on Friday afternoon was the anniversary tea held at the home of Mrs. W. D. Ray, commemorating the organization of the Woman's Guild of Grace Episcopal church. The group was organized in April, 1887 by the late Mrs. Robena Miller and is the oldest women's organization in the town.

Mrs. Ray was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Harry Marshall, president of the guild, and other members of the group. Serving were Miss Jones, of Warrenton, Miss Genevieve Barr, Mrs. Robert Smithwick, Miss Thomazine Stringfield, and Miss Mildred Crawford. The house was arranged in a motif of pink and white, with zinnias and gladioli used in various effects.

The afternoon was featured by a musical program with Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. E. B. Camp in charge. The following numbers were presented: "Cornelia Valse," a piano solo, by the composer, Miss Margaret Stringfield; a vocal number, "Sylvia," by Oley Speaks, sung by Miss Agnes Shapter, of Washington, D. C., accompanied by Mrs. Albert New.

Two piano numbers, "Romance," and "Impromptu," by Zez Confrey, by Miss Grace Crocker; "Arbutus," by Davis, and "Armour Coquette," by Rudolph Friml, by Mrs. Austin Hayes, artist whistler, of Chicago, who accompanied herself.

Mrs. Evander Preston, pianist, rendered "Dance Negro," by Sybil Scott; Miss Mable Nick, of Lakeland, Fla., accompanied by Mrs. Fran Broadfield, of St. Petersburg, Fla., sang a group of songs, including, "In the Luxembourg Garden," "Sing Me to Sleep," and "Morning," Mrs. Fred Martin, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Matney, sang "Her Alice Blue Gown," from Irene.

More than one hundred guests called during the hours from four to six o'clock.

GIRL SCOUTS GIVEN PARTY BY MRS. E. C. WAGENFELD

On Friday afternoon Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld entertained the members of the Waynesville troop of the Girl Scouts, at her home of Academy street. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. L. M. Richeson.

Interesting and clever games featured the afternoon. Among those present were: Lois Massie and her guest, Martha Ivey, of Albemarle, Mary Lou Ellwood, of Snyder, N. Y., Betty Jean Alley, Mary Lee Alley, Dorothy Richeson, Jane Dudley Francis, Ruby Frances Brown, Martha Mae Wyche, Winifred Rogers.

Charline Rotha, Edna Katherine McGee, Katherine Woolard, of Miami, Gladys Walker, Lenora Mae Walker, Virginia Kellett, Shirley Colkitt, Ruthie Wagenfeld, and Annie Osborne, of Tampa, Fla.

MARRIAGE REPORTS

This week, this paper received three written reports of marriages, but since neither of the three were signed they are not being published. If those who sent in the account of the weddings will send us their name, we will publish the articles. Our policy is to ignore all news which is sent in unsigned. We must know the source of the news before it goes into this newspaper.

GARDEN PARTY HONORS OUT OF TOWN GUESTS

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. James Love Stringfield, Miss Caroline Alstetter, and Mrs. Hugh Arthur Love entertained with a garden party as a courtesy to her sister, Mrs. Leslie G. Thom and her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Noble, of Richmond, Va. Receiving with the hostesses also was Mrs. J. S. Correll, of Raleigh, state president of the North Carolina Federation of Music.

The garden made a lovely setting for the colorful gowns of those receiving and the guests calling.

From a beautifully arranged table in the garden ices were served.

Among those assisting the hostesses in receiving and serving were: Mrs. H. B. Simmerman, Mrs. F. M. Rowe, and Mrs. F. A. Wilcox, of Daytona Beach, Mrs. Robert Breese, Mrs. William Clark, of Jacksonville, Mrs. J. F. Abel, and Mrs. Charles Harde, of Elyria, Ohio, Hester Anne Withers, Miss Mary Stringfield, Mrs. George Semmes, of Jacksonville, Miss Mary Ray, Mrs. Tom Taliaferro, Miss Frances Smithwick and Miss Valerie Smithwick, of Memphis.

Approximately one hundred and fifty guests called during the hours from four-thirty to six-thirty.

SHIRLEY COLKITT OBSERVES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

On Monday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, in Belle Meade, little Miss Shirley Colkitt, assembled a group of her young friends in celebration of her birthday anniversary. She was assisted by her mother in receiving and entertaining the guests.

Various games, including several rounds of bingo, were enjoyed. The guest list was as follows: Betty Jean Alley, Bebe Medford, Elois Martin, Patsy Gwyn, Mary Lee Alley, Martha Mae Wyche, Carroll Louise Bell, Ruthie Wagenfeld, Gladys Walker, Doris Colkitt, Betsy Siler, Meta Dicus, Elsie Corbett, Betty Jane Bradley, Mary Anne Massie, and Geraldyn Colkitt.

MR. FLOYD RIPPETOE, JR., MARRIES MISS PENTREATH

Of interest locally is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Edith Pentreath and Mr. Floyd Rippetoe, Jr., which took place Sunday, July the 18th at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the garden of the bride's mother, Jessie Pentreath, at her home in Miami, Fla. The Rev. Edward F. Nuber pronounced the vows.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Charles Morgan sang, "At Dawning" and "O Perfect Love." She was accompanied by Miss Ferrels Allen. Miss Allen also rendered the wedding marches using the "Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin as the processional and as a recessional, the march by Mendelssohn. The bridal party stood before an improvised altar of palms and white amaryllis.

The bride had as her attendants her two sisters, Mrs. T. K. Hodges and Mrs. C. S. Eldredge. They wore gowns of pastel chiffon with pleated capes and matching hats of horsehair braid. They carried bouquets shaped as fans.

Mr. Rippetoe had as his attendants, Clifford D. Fossey and Thomas R. Fossey, cousins of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. A. D. H. Fossey. She wore a gown of shell pink chiffon, with fitted bodice, and very full skirt. Her hat was in poke bonnet style and made of the same material as her gown. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and sweetheart roses.

The bride's mother wore a hyacinth blue chiffon gown with matching hat and a corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held in the garden, where the ceremony had taken place. A number of friends assisted in receiving.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jessie Pentreath and the late A. H. Pentreath, pioneer Miamians. She is a graduate of the University of Miami, and is a member of the Chi Omega fraternity. She is a teacher in the West Little River school.

Mr. Rippetoe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gray Rippetoe, of Waynesville. He is a graduate of the Marion Military Academy and attended the University of North Carolina. He is associated with the Pan American Airways in Miami. The couple will reside in Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hardin have as their guests this week, the latter's sister, Mrs. Will H. Hardin, of Salisbury, who formerly resided here, and the former's sister, Mrs. W. M. Goodman, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Miss Vivian King has returned from Johnson City, Tenn., where she has spent the past month with her parents. While there she was tendered many affairs, given in honor of her approaching marriage to Mr. Clington Herold Kee, of Lexington, Tennessee.

Mrs. Thad Chafin, of the Barge-Thompson Construction Company, of Atlanta, returned on Monday after spending several days with his family here at their home on the Fairview Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Clayton and young son, Henry, of Addie, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James R. Boyd.

Mr. William C. Smith and young son, Junior, of Riverdale, Ga., joined Mrs. Smith at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Boyd, for a week-end visit.

Miss Edna Hayes is spending this week in Bryson City, where she is reporting the court proceedings.

Judge Felix Alley, who is holding court in Brevard, was with his family here over the week-end.

Mrs. Cody Hendrix, of California, was the guest during the week of Mrs. C. W. Ellner and family, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Redmond. Mrs. Hendrix was greatly impressed with this section.

Miss Helen King spent the week-end in Johnson City, Tenn., where she was the guest of relatives and friends.

Prof and Mrs. Paul Brubeck, the former headmaster of the Florida Preparatory school of Daytona Beach, was the guests during the week of Mr. Thomas Hill. Mr. Hill is a former pupil in the school, after graduating from there this summer.
