

Increased Enrollment Recorded In District Schools

material over and above the amount furnished by the state. Heretofore the teachers and the school officials have felt that since the parents were buying the text books, they would not ask them to buy the supplementary material. Now, however, with the state furnishing the material, the teachers feel that the parents should be willing to purchase the required standard instructional material, in order that the teacher and the pupil may do a better job, by the use of ample material with which to work.

While it will not be compulsory, Mr. Bowles says for parents to pay this additional fee for instructional material, only those children paying the stated fee for such, will be furnished the full supply of material which will give them an opportunity for superior work.

The class room and the subject teachers have all been asked to explain this matter to the pupils, so that they in turn may explain the situation to their parents. Any further infor-

All aboard for a big Labor Day!

Are you going some place, or planning to stay here and enjoy the program arranged by Bill Chambers and his co-workers?

If you plan to make a trip, you'll be able to enjoy your trip more knowing that our trained mechanics have checked your car.

On the other hand, if you are going to stay here and join in on the festivities, you will certainly want to have your car looking like new—and that is what our washing man can do to your car.

In either event, you'll never regret having us grease it for you—we never miss a joint, a cup or oil hole—try us out.

Several people have already had their brakes checked before they take to the road where school children are playing. How about yours?

Our used car lot is the center of attraction for thrifty bargain seekers. All our cars are sold with our personal reputation behind them.

Some of our summer visitors are leaving for home, but we can't complain with this season—there has been a lot of people here, and they spent money. Now that we are approaching the Fall months, let's get those things we have long been wanting—

P.S. A new 1937 Chevrolet will please the family.

Tom Lee is back from attending the special salesman's training course in Charlotte. He went down to get some of the special features on Chevrolets. How about asking Tom what he found out?

Tom Rainey, the veteran car salesman, is on the job every day rearing to spin yarns and talk car trading. Tom is not hard to deal with—just hint to him your needs.
