Miss Tallulah Blankhead

Weds Actor John Emery

The speaker of the House of Representatives William B. Bankhead, vacationing in Alabama attended a wedding in his family last week. He gave in marriage his daughter, Tallulah Bankhead, famous actress, to John Emery, actor. Miss Bankhead, 35, who has been on the stage since she was 16, did not at first warm up New Yorkers by her acting, so she went to London, where for 8 years she was the toast of the city. Back to Broadway she drew long lines to the box office. She and her husband will grace Broadway this fall in "Antony and Cleopatra." Miss Bankhead will play the Egyptian Queen, and her husband will take the role of Octavius Caesar.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jolly had as the guests during the week Mr. and Charlie Fulford, of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Fulford is the sister of Mr. Jolly.

Are Your Children Ready For School?

(Health Bulletin.)

September is the time for getting the children ready for school. Their readiness involves more than suitable clothes, a new book-sack and a row of shiny pencils. As essential as these things are to a child's idea of readiness, they are of minor importance compared to his physical fitness and mental well-being.

It is well known that a child's progress in school, his mental and social development and his ready adjustment to school and community life are greatly influenced by the state of his bodily health. If he is suffering from such defects as bad teeth, diseased tonsils, adenoids, poor vision, impaired hearing, or from conditions brought about by improper diet and faulty health habits, he will be placed at a disadvantage with his companions. The odds will be against him in any race.

It is, therefore, of the greatest importance that a child be started to school right, free of all physical handicaps and in a healthful state of mind. Parents are urged to use these days prior to the opening of school in September in which to make sure that their children are in as good health as possible, and thus ready to enter school. To do this most satisfactorily, a trip to the dentist and a check up by the family physician are advised.

THE BOY'S RIGHT

Oshkosh, Neb.—Four-year-old Gwyn Hogoboom told his father a silver-colored snake that made a noise with its tail was under the kitchen sink.

Father investigated and found a creamy-hued rattlesnake.

Behind the Scenes in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL

HOLLYWOOD—Paula Stone's mistake in signing her marriage application as Pauline Stone gets funnier as you learn the details.

Seems as it was Flance George Mason's idea, not Paula's. He suggested it might help throw the reporters off the track.

Paula Stone

"But is it legal?" asked Paula. Mason assured her it was. Still puzzled, on the way back from Santa Barbara, she brought the question up again.

"Of course, it was legal," said Mason, "isn't that your real name?"

The surprised Paula then learned that her prospective bridegroom actually didn't know her first name. He'd thought all the time that Paula was a diminutive for Pauline.

In Agua Caliente the other day were Gypsy Rose Lee and Bob Mizzy. He's her No. 1 boy friend, and was trying to get her to elope to Mexico recently. Questioners will want to know whether he finally talked her into it.

Interesting to cold sufferers is an item from Warners' "Submarine D-1" troupe in San Diego. Symptoms of flu appearing in the company, a sailor suggested a navy remedy—putting the victims in a decompression chamber. This is the device used to acustom submarine crews to underwater air pressures. A few minutes, at a 20 pounds pressure, has been found beneficial to colds. George Brent, Pat O'Brien, Doris Weston and the whole troupe tried the remedy, claim it really worked.

It may be talk, but Isabel Jewell says she'll sail her 48-foot boat to Honolulu, possibly right after she finishes "Love on Toast." Star plans to carry four other people.

To forestall possible suits, studios have to be careful even of names used on shop windows in a movie set. The ones you'll see on the street in "Madame X" are those of members of the M. G. M. research department. Natalie Bucknall, head of the department, is represented by the "Bucknall Loan Co."

Answering Your Questions: Craig W., Los Angeles: Spencer Tracy didn't give up polo for yachting, but he is selling the boat and going back to his old favorite.

Joan Crawford has been ordered to stop embroidering on the set. It's been discovered that the fine work is a strain on her eyes and that the camera, using the new sensitive film, picks up the result.

Chatter. Louise Henry is wearing a ring and Hollywood hears it was put there by William John Warburton—not the actor but the New Yorker. A reconciliation has quietly been effected by Margot Grahame and Ray Hafer. Hollywood night club proprietor Virginia Carroll and Ralph Byrd (he plays Dick Tracy in the films) are expecting a baby in December. The Hays office won't let Paramount use stills of Irene Dunne in a tuff of soap-suds in "High, Wide and Handsome". They say that Kathleen Howard, fashion editor of Photoplay, will return to the stage and that Gwen Walters, formerly designer for Columbia, will succeed her on the magazine.

Little Judy Garland has written lyrics and music for two songs, "Gone" and "Deep in My Heart". You should see the handbill that Harold Lloyd's friends are receiving. Picture of Harold, John Sumner and Roy Brooks in turbans, with caption advertising their mind-reading act. And, best news of the day, Alice Faye's brother, Bill, is improving from his heart attack. He'll be out of bed in a few days.

Many Killed In Undeclared War

In one of the worst disasters in the three months undeclared war, 300 non-combatant Chinese were killed and 400 injured yesterday by Japanese air bombs. Five railroad cars packed with Chinese refugees, fleeing from the war zone, were blown from their track by the Japanese bombers, 30 miles from Shanghai. Many of the occupants not killed by the explosives were crushed to death in the wreckage. Red Cross officials rushed aid from Shanghai to reinforce crews of doctors and nurses on the scene from a nearby Chinese hospital.

BORROWS PENNY FOR MARRIAGE LICENSE

Jury Says Father Was Justified In Killing

Jacob Duds shot his wayward son in Chicago last week and a coroner's jury called it justifiable homicide. Sadly the father, 63, told how he was awakened at his tavern in the early morning by two men shattering a window and he fired a shot at them and then found out that he had fatally wounded his son Alexander, 29. Police records showed the son had been arrested fourteen times on minor charges since 1933.
