

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Published In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

FIFTY-THIRD YEAR NO. 35

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1937

$1.50 IN ADVANCE IN COUNTY

News Events Seen Thru The Camera's Eye

Japanese Residents of Shanghai Aid Troops

When Japanese marines and supporting troops invaded Shanghai, Japanese residents of the city enlisted as volunteers to aid in erecting sandbag barricades at strategic points to cover landing places from the barrage laid down by Chinese batteries along the shores of the Whangpoo river.

Seeks Reinstatement

Mrs. Laura Elms Morris
Legal battle being waged by Mrs. Laura Elms Morris, 41-year-old Waynesburg, Pa., country school teacher against charges of beating her pupils with a baseball bat and teaching them evolution, will ultimately be decided by the courts, according to Mrs. Morris' attorney. Mrs. Morris vigorously denied all charges when given a hearing by the school board.

President Off On Fishing Trip

President Roosevelt and Party

When President Roosevelt departed from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., above, aboard the presidential yacht, Potomac, for a fishing trip, among those in his party were, left to right, standing, Lieut. A. D. Clarke, James Roosevelt and Capt. Paul Bastedo. Seated are Harry L. Hopkins, relief administrator, and the president. Their destination was Long Island sound.

Famous Family Sport on Beach

Reventlows at play

This informal scene on the Lido at Venice, Italy, shows Count Kurt von Haugwitz-Reventlow of Denmark snapping a picture of his beautiful wife, the former Barbara Hutton, heiress to the Woolworth millions, and their three-and-one-half-year-old son, Lance.

Heads Democrats

Pitt Tyson Maner

Pitt Tyson Maner of Montgomery, Ala., was unanimously elected head of the Young Democratic Clubs of America when that organization held its national convention at Indianapolis, Ind.

New Moose Head

William J. Egan

New supreme dictator of the Loyal Order of Moose is William J. Egan, 49, of Newark, N. J., elected at the national convention at Cleveland as successor to William A. Anderson of Indianapolis.

Cycling 1,028 Miles

William C. Bailey

Despite his 84 years, William C. Bailey, Vermont farmer, cycled from his home to Chicago to visit his daughter and is now en route home, a trip of 1,028 miles, without a lift from a motorist.

"Sleep of Death"

Mrs. W. W. Coble

Suffering a blood clot on the brain as a result of a fall, Mrs. W. W. Coble, 78, of Omaha, Neb., has been asleep since last Jan. 17. Physicians agreed that an operation would be fatal, so Mrs. Coble, her husband consenting, has been allowed to continue her "sleep of death."

Play Important Role in China

Three sisters, named Soong, together rule the destiny of China today. They have names like the echo of temple bells—Mei-Ling, Ching-Ling and Ai-Ling. First named, Mei-Ling, is Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek, wife of the Chinese dictator; Ching-Ling is the widow of modern China's hero, Dr. Sun-Yat-Sen, and Ai-Ling is the wife of Finance Minister Kung, who holds the purse strings of China.

A LARGE NUMBER TO ATTEND BREVARD COLLEGE

The following students have gone to Brevard this week where they will enter Brevard College for the coming year: Miss Mary and Miss Catherine Palmer, Mr. James Palmer,

Miss Catherine Martin, Miss Marguerite Murphy, Mr. J. E. Whisenhunt, Jr., Mr. George Stentz, Miss Frances Turner, Mr. David Stentz, Mr. Frederick Nichols, and Mr. Weaver McCracken.

Aftermath Of Battle In China

China Gathers Her Dead

This graphic photo from North China describes with telling effect the horrors of the conflict between Chinese and Japanese. Dead Chinese soldiers, killed while defending the sector around Peiping, are shown being carried from the field of battle in a truck.