WEDDING ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Bertha L. Leopard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Leopard, of Ratchiff Cove, to Mr. Joseph W. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Howell. The vows were solemnized on September the 17th at the West Asheville Methodist church, with the Rev. N. H. Neuse, pastor, officiating.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville High School. The groom is also a graduate of the township school and of the Coyne Electrical and Radio school of Chicago.

The young couple are making their home for the present with the parents of the groom.

CAROLINE MILLER BECOMES BRIDE OF CLYDE H. RAY, JR.

Of wide spread interest is the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Caroline Miller, of Waycross, Georgia, and Clyde H. Ray, Jr., which took place on Thursday, Sept. twenty-third, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. D. J. Lott, in Waycross. The vows were solemnized by the Rev. J. O. J. Taylor, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church, of that city.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ray left by train for a fortnight's trip to New York. They plan to return to Waycross for a brief stay before coming to Waynesville, where they will reside.

The bride, a novelist of note, won the Pulitzer prize in 1934 with "Lamb in His Bosom," which was the literary sensation of that year. Since that time she has written several short stories and has been in great demand as a lecturer.

Mrs. Ray has many friends in this section, where she has spent several summers, first coming to Waynesville in 1934.

Mr. Ray is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Ray. For the past several years he has maintained a florist and gift shop here, both of which draw patronage not only in town, but from this section of the state. He has countless friends who have learned with keen interest of his marriage.

MR. AND MRS. C. J. REECE GIVE DINNER PARTY

The largest affair of the week was the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reece on Friday evening, at the Hotel Waynesville. Quantities of fall flowers in rich autumnal shades adorned the lounge and dining room.

Contract followed the serving of dinner. Prizes were presented to the highest and lowest scorers among both men and women.

Among those enjoying the delightful affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Massie, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins, Dr. and Robert H. Stretcher, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Withers, Mrs. Woodson Jones, Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Medford, Mr. M. H. Bowles, Miss Viola Folsom, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Long, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Seaver, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Massie, Mr. and Mrs. Grayden Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Massie, of Sylva, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bell, Dr. and Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Bonner Ray, Mrs. Nancy Keener, and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn.
